Images of Sex and Desire in Renaissance Art and Modern Historiography Angeliki Pollali, Berthold Hub, 2017-12-06 Studies on gender and sexuality have proliferated in the last decades covering a wide spectrum of disciplines This collection of essays offers a metanarrative of sexuality as it has been recently embedded in the art historical discourse of the European Renaissance It revisits canonical forms of visual culture such as painting sculpture and a number of emblematic manuscripts The contributors focus on one image either actual or thematic and examine it against its historiographic assumptions Through the use of interdisciplinary approaches the essays propose to unmask the ideologies of representation of sexuality and suggest a richer image of the ever shifting identities of gender The collection focuses on the Italian Renaissance but also includes case studies from Germany and France The Cosmopolitan, 1919

Deane-Drummond,2016-09-01 This book offers a critical and constructive analysis of the contribution of Jurgen Moltmann to the field of ecotheology Moltmann is one of the foremost and influential contemporary theologians of our time but his specific contribution to ecotheology has received relatively scant attention in the secondary literature The author deals sensitively with the relevant scientific aspects necessary in order to develop an adequate theology of the natural world She also offers a careful and constructive analysis of the specific systematic theologies of creation humanity eschatology and Trinity that are woven into Moltmann s rich interpretation of the relationship between God and creation A Lover's Breast-knot Katharine Tynan,1896

Guido Cavalcanti Gregory B. Stone,2020-03-04 Guido Cavalcanti Dante s intellectual mentor is widely considered among the greatest Italian lyric poets his famous and notoriously difficult philosophical canzone Donna me prega is often characterized as the most studied lyric poem in Italian literature This book situates Cavalcanti s poetry in the context of the Arabic Aristotelian rationalism that entered the Latin West in the 12th century a tradition marked by questions concerning whether humans can ever transcend their animality Cavalcanti s poetry is a focal point where one can view circa 1300 AD Arabo Islamic philosophy in the process of being assimilated and naturalized in Western Europe eventually leading to values associated with the Renaissance and the Enlightenment that we now call modern and secular in particular to a notion of human reason as bound up with imagination and with ethical praxis rather than as a means for the attainment of knowledge concerning God and the cosmos The book features a radically unprecedented interpretation of Donna me prega starkly opposed to all previous accounts far from treating love as a threat to reason that would best be eliminated the canzone praises loving as the essential operation of rational human flourishing This study of Cavalcanti serves as a prelude to the formulation of a new paradigm for understanding Dante's Comedy The Book of My Life John Rompapas,1914
