Blueberries for the Queen John Paterson, Katherine Paterson, 2004-06-15

In 1942 Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands living in exile after the Nazi invasion of her country spent the summer in Lee Massachusetts with her daughter and granddaughters The following is based on a true story It's summertime in New England during World War II and a boy named William likes to imagine at bedtime that he is a brave knight fighting great battles to end the war But in the morning he is always just William again not big enough to contribute to the war effort like the rest of his family Then a real queen moves in just down the road Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands William's parents explain that the queen has been forced out of her country because of the war Now William has his chance to do something It may not be war work it's more like peace work but that makes all the difference Susan Jeffers's dramatic illustrations portray the compelling contrast between William's imagination and the real events in the story which are based on an actual incident in John Paterson's childhood Visually stunning with an evocative poignant telling this is the picture book art form at its finest Images of God John Barstow Paterson, Katherine Paterson, 1998 Explores some of the images which biblical writers use to teach about God images include light rock and wind as well as a gardener father and architect Lyddie Katherine Paterson, 1995-01-01 From two time Newbery award winning author Katherine Paterson When Lyddie and her younger brother are hired out as servants to help pay off their family farm's debts Lyddie is determined to find a way to reunite her family once again Hearing about all the money a girl can make working in the textile mills in Lowell Massachusetts she makes her way there only to find that her dreams of returning home may never come true Includes an all new common core aligned educator's guide Rich in historical detail a superb story of grit determination and personal growth The Horn Book starred review Lyddie is full of life full of lives full of reality The New York Times Book Review An ALA Notable Book An ALA Best Book for Young Adults A Booklist Editor's Choice American Bookseller Pick of the Lists School Library Journal Best Book Parents magazine Best Book The Wide-awake Princess Katherine Paterson, 2000 In this amusing eloquently told story created by Paterson specifically for Russian artist Vladimir Vagin to illustrate with his beautifully detailed watercolors After the death of her self absorbed parents a clever princess shows the peasants in her country how to make better lives for themselves Jip Katherine Paterson, 2005 An abandoned boy turns to his only friend to help him make sense of his past after a menacing stranger comes to town claiming to have been sent by his father Bread and Roses, Too Katherine Paterson, 2006 Jake and Rosa two children form an unlikely friendship as they try to survive and understand the 1912 Bread and Roses strike of mill workers in Lawrence Massachusetts By the author of The Same Stuff as Stars Who Am I? Katherine Paterson, 2004-02-17 An inviting book by an award winning author Who Am I explores with young readers what it means to be a child of God Within the context of biblical teaching and the Christian faith Katherine Paterson discusses common basic questions that she herself has grappled with for a long time Where in the World Is God What about Me Where Do I Belong Who Is My Neighbor What Is My Purpose In exploring these questions Paterson relates significant experiences from her own life and tells many other stories showing how God loves us and leads us through life's challenges Paterson's book Who Am I is so forthright faithful clear common and honest that any young people who read it will find themselves as much consoled as challenged It holds them close and doesn't let them go No one can finish this meditation without growing and coming closer to the Lord Bless Paterson for her love and her close attention to the souls of thoughtful children Walter Wangerin Jr A Sense of Wonder Katherine Paterson, 1995 Anyone familiar with children's literature knows the gifted pen of award winning Katherine

Paterson Sales of her books are in the millions and the list of coveted awards they have garnered including two Newbery Medals two National Book Awards and the Regina Medal is remarkable A Sense of Wonder is a collection of more than three dozen critical essays on reading and writing for children that were originally published as two books Gates of Excellence and The Spying Heart Combined for the first time in one volume with a new introduction these writings come from speeches Katherine Paterson has given all over the world from her book reviews and from articles she has authored on her craft Her trademark wit imagination and perception are in full evidence she reveals why she remembers being kissed by Miss Maude Henderson the last person ever kissed by General Robert E Lee relates the heartbreaking source of her novel Bridge to Terabithia and describes her dismay at failing as a foster parent to two Cambodian boys Most of all this extraordinary writer shares her ideas about writing for children tells of her passion for reading and allows us to witness her talent Teachers writers students parents librarians anyone who reads Katherine Paterson s essays will come away with an expanded vision and a sense of her deep respect for words ideas literature and people BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
