Later Simple Stories:

Epistrophies Brent Hayes Edwards, 2017-06-05 Hearing across media is the source of innovation in a uniquely African American sphere of art making and performance Brent Hayes Edwards writes He explores this fertile interface through case studies in jazz literature both writings informed by music and the surprisingly large body of writing by jazz musicians themselves The Novels Langston Hughes, 2001 Although best known as a poet Langston Hughes was also the author of two novels that richly evoke the black experience in America First published in 1930 and 1958 respectively Not without Laughter and Tambourines to Glory reflect the early and late vision of one of the twentieth century's most distinguished men of letters In his introduction to this combined edition of both novels Dolan Hubbard addresses Hughes's growing influence on American letters and reveals how a black aesthetic tradition shaped his art and his imagination Hughes shows us how the discourse of black America informs and alters our understanding of cultural history and of aesthetic values In Not without Laughter he movingly tells the story of a black boy growing into manhood in a small Kansas town during the early twentieth century and his experiences with race family school work music and religion His grandmother a humble religious woman struggles to keep her family living with her are two of her three daughters one son in law and her grandson together on the meager income she earns by taking in washing Set in Harlem the center of Hughes's spiritual universe Tambourines to Glory is an urban folk melodrama based on the black fusion of Christian hymns and spirituals with the blues This comic novel captures the spirit of newly transplanted southern blacks who bend the alien rhythms of the city to the gospel sound This volume of The Collected Works of Langston Hughes is a testament to a man whose life and writings have had a profound influence on world literature and is proof that Hughes's immense talent embraced not only poetry but fiction as well

Works for Children and Young Adults Langston Hughes, Steven C. Tracy, 2001 The twelfth volume of The Collected Works of Langston Hughes contains Hughes's collections of biographies for children and young adults Famous American Negroes Famous Negro Music Makers and Famous Negro Heroes of America gathered together for the first time In these works Hughes sought to remedy decades of historical and cultural neglect by telling the stories of African Americans who had made vital contributions to the construction of the American identity Hughes made clear his commitment to an inclusive and diverse accounting of the achievements of African Americans on American soil from vernacular expression to high culture oratory to combat geographical exploration to intellectual introspection His lively and dramatic portraits of African Americans such as Crispus Attucks Frederick Douglass Jackie Robinson and Mahalia Jackson battling against exclusivity and adversity to achieve their full potential present a captivating portrait of America This volume is a valuable record of the emerging African American struggle for civil rights and positive self determination It also documents Hughes's interests as he entered the fifth decade of his life and can be read fruitfully alongside his writings for adults at the time reflecting his sociocultural and political thought Late-Talking Children, revised and expanded edition Stephen M.

Camarata,2025-05-20 A revised and expanded edition of the bestselling guide to late talking children for parents clinicians and educators from a leading authority on development and disabilities Every year in America more than half a million parents of late talking children face agonizing questions What should I do if my two or even three year old has not yet begun to talk Should I worry that my child is autistic or intellectually disabled Are expensive therapies or medications needed Will my child ever speak normally In this revised and expanded edition of the essential resource on the subject Late Talking Children Stephen Camarata the parent of a late talking child and a late talker himself provides clear sensible and compassionate answers for parents clinicians and educators drawing on his more than three decades of experience diagnosing and treating the late talking syndrome as well as the best science available today The Poems, 1951-1967

Langston Hughes,2001 Volume 3 collects the poems of the last period of Hughes s life Montage of a Dream Deferred 1951 brilliantly fused the modernist dissonances of bebop jazz with his perception of Harlem life as both a triumph of hope and a deepening crisis What happens to a dream deferred In the tumultuous following years he refused to relinquish the mantle of the poet as may be seen in his inspired last two books of verse Ask Your Mama 1961 and The Panther and the Lash 1967 The former demonstrates Hughes s continuing alertness to the significance of black music as a guide to American reality here avant garde jazz rhythms and allusions fueled an intensity of language that predicted the cultural upheavals of the sixties and seventies Hughes s last volume combining old and new poems emphasized the struggle for civil rights in the face of reactionary defiance on the one hand and the volatility of Black Power on the other Vigorous and versatile to the end Hughes concluded his career as he had begun it a master poet dedicated to observing and celebrating African American culture in its full complexity From the Later Roman Empire to Late Antiquity and Beyond

Averil Cameron,2023-05-23 Averil Cameron is one of the leading historians of late antiquity and Byzantium This collection Cameron s third in the Variorum series discusses the changing approach among historians of the later Roman empire from the 1960s to the present and the articles reproduced have been chosen to reflect both these wider changes in treatments of the subject as well as Cameron s own development as a historian over many decades It provides a revealing and important survey of some profound historiographical changes Her volume contains fundamental papers and reviews that tell a story in which she has played a leading part They move from her early days as an ancient historian to her important contribution in the establishment of the field of late antiquity and point to her later work as a Byzantinist a trajectory rivalled by few other scholars The book will be important for scholars and students of the later Roman empire and late antiquity and for anyone interested in the inheritance of Edward Gibbon the perennial questions about the end of the Roman empire and its supposed decline or the emergence of Islam in the early seventh century and its relation to the late antique world CS 1113 The Black Cultural Front

Brian Dolinar,2012-04-27 This book examines the formation of a black cultural front by looking at the works of poet Langston Hughes novelist Chester Himes and cartoonist Ollie Harrington While none of these writers were card carrying members of the Communist Party they all participated in the Left during their careers Interestingly they all turned to creating popular culture in order to reach the black masses who were captivated by movies radio newspapers and detective novels There are chapters on Hughes s Simple stories Himes s detective fiction and Harrington s Bootsie cartoons Collectively the experience of these three figures contributes to the story of a long movement for African American freedom that flourished during the 1930s 1940s and 1950s Yet this book also stresses the impact that McCarthyism had on dismantling the Black Left and how it affected each individual involved Each was radicalized at a different moment and for different reasons The Volta Review,1915 Education for Cultural Change Willard Walcott Beatty,1953 The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach,2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid s end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought The Verbal System in Late Enlightenment Hebrew Lily Kahn,2009-10-31 This book constitutes the first detailed corpus based analysis of the verbal morphology and syntax employed in the Eastern European Maskilic Jewish Enlightenment Hebrew prose fiction written between 1857 and 1881 This verbal system exhibits biblical rabbinic and medieval elements as well as unprecedented features and similarities to Israeli Hebrew and Yiddish The first section of the work offers a selective examination of maskilic verbal morphology while the second section constitutes a thorough examination of the functions of the verbal conjugations and the third section surveys selected features of verbal syntax The work fills a serious gap in the Hebrew philological literature and will therefore be of great relevance to students and scholars of diachronic Hebrew language and linguistics A Study Guide for Anton Chekhov's "A Problem" Gale, Cengage Learning, Communicating with Normal and Retarded Children W. I. Fraser,R. Grieve,2014-05-15 Communicating with Normal and Retarded Children explores the way in which normal children acquire language and the mistakes they make It aims to trace the common growth between professions in understanding of normal language development and the retarded person s language and to encourage research particularly of an interdisciplinary kind This book is organized into five main sections The contributors provide different professional perspectives of how and why the mentally retarded get their communication wrong and what remedies can be applied They also present their own research findings often in little explored areas or from a novel angle and offer their opinion on the types and topics of research that should be carried out This book will be of interest to academic and clinical psychologists educators linguists advisors and tutors in nursing and social studies child health doctors psychiatrists and a range of therapists The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Fight for Freedom and Other Writings on Civil Rights

Langston Hughes, 2001 Nearing the end of a distinguished literary career that spanned nearly fifty years Langston Hughes took on the daunting task of writing the official history of the national Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP Beginning with the social political and economic contexts that led to the founding of the NAACP in 1909 and ending with a summary of its targeted goals for 1963 Hughes attempted to write a history that would be comprehensive in scope and singular in its purpose of highlighting the ways in which the Association had a direct and positive influence on racial justice in the United States Focusing on the individuals who had the greatest impact on the NAACP and the issues with which the organization was most concerned in its first fifty years of existence Hughes produced the widely acclaimed Fight for Freedom striking an exceptional balance between biography and cultural history Long before the publication of Fight for Freedom Hughes had begun writing nonfictional prose about these same issues as a regular columnist and essayist for the nation s most influential African American publications including the Chicago Defender and Crisis A selection of these popular columns and other essays which reveal the extent to which Hughes s unique varied and sometimes Blues tinged narrative voice shifted in tone over the course of his extensive career is included in this volume Hughes intersperses historical facts with compelling anecdotes that often frame subtly ironic commentaries on various themes The result is history that provides a lens through which to view Hughes's attitudes in the early 1960s toward the ways the NAACP addressed the vital social cultural political and economic issues central to its agenda Fight for Freedom and Other Writings on Civil Rights makes a unique contribution to the oeuvre of an African American writer whose full significance to American literature history and culture will continue to be defined well into the twenty first century God's Plenty W. J. Keith, 2014-10-20 A companion volume to Canadian Odyssey A Reading of Hugh Hood's The New Age God's Plenty surveys the short fiction of the writer dubbed Canada's Proust Hugh Hood an unparalleled stylist was equally accomplished in short forms and long this straight talking assessment of Hood's stories is thorough insightful readable and profound With its story by story breakdown and rigorous engagement with Hood's technique God's Plenty offers an excellent introduction not just to an undersung master but to the art of short fiction full stop W J Keith is a professor emeritus at the University of Toronto Black Silent Majority Michael Javen Fortner, 2015-09-28 Aggressive policing and draconian sentencing have disproportionately imprisoned millions of African Americans for drug related offenses Michael Javen Fortner shows that in the 1970s these punitive policies toward addicts and pushers enjoyed the support of many working class and middle class blacks angry about the chaos in their own neighborhoods The Latin American Short Story at its Limits Lucy Bell, 2017-07-05 The Latin American short story has often been viewed in terms of its relation to orality tradition and myth But this desire to celebrate the difference of Latin American culture unwittingly contributes to its exoticization failing to do justice to its richness complexity and contemporaneity By re reading and re viewing the short stories of Juan Rulfo Julio Cortazar and Augusto Monterroso Bell reveals the hybridity of this genre It is at once rooted in traditional narrative and fragmented by modern experience its residual qualities are revived through emergent forms Crucially its oral and mythical characteristics are compounded with the formal traits of modern emerging media photography cinema telephony journalism and cartoon art The Prodigal Son in English and American Literature Alison M. Jack, 2018-11-30 The Parable of the Prodigal Son is one of the best known stories in the Bible It has captured the imagination of commentators preachers and writers Alison M Jack explores the reconfiguring of the character of the Prodigal Son and his family in literature in English She considers diverse literary periods and genres in which the paradigm is particularly prevalent such as Elizabethan literature the work of Shakespeare the novels of female Victorian writers the American short story tradition novels focused on the lives of ordained ministers and the poetry of Elizabeth Bishop and Iain Crichton Smith Drawing on scholarship from biblical and literary studies this study demonstrates the remarkable potency of the parable in generating new and at times contradictory meanings in different contexts Historical and literary criticism are brought into dialogue to explore this remarkably resilient and nimble character as he dances through drama novels and poetry across the centuries Past and Promise The Women's Project of New Jersey, Inc., 1997-05-01 This unique book explores the lives and work of nearly 300 New Jersey women from the Colonial period to the present century Included are biographies of notable often nationally known individuals as well as less celebrated people whose vibrant personal stories illustrate the richness of women's experiences in New Jersey and really in America from 1600 to the present. Researched, written and illustrated by The Women's Project of New Jersey, this volume both recovers and re-tells the life stories of women who have helped shape our world. Past and Promise is a long overdue celebration of the accomplishments of these individuals who succeeded often against overwhelming odds. Past and Promise: Lives of New Jersey Women incorporates an inclusive view of history that understands the past as the history of all of the people, not merely those who held a monopoly of power. As such, this work contains biographies of artists, activists, entertainers, scientists, scholars, teachers, factory and agricultural workers, businesswomen, social engineers, and community builders. This easy to use and beautifully presented volume is indexed and full of illustrations. The biographies are arranged alphabetically within four sections covering the following time periods: 1600-1807, 1808-1865, 1866-1920, and 1921 to the present. Each section is introduced by a historical overview, and each biographical entry includes a brief bibliography for further reading and research. This unique and very readable collection of biographies belongs in every public and personal library and deserves a wide audience of general readers from high school age through college and beyond.
