Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language, photo texts considering a variety of examples from America, Britain, Canada, and France. Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky, the contributors' analyses address photo-textuality's implications for representation and its cultural contexts. A truly interdisciplinary collection, Photo-Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies, English, romance languages, as well as contributors who work in media studies, film, graphic arts. Photo-Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres, including photo texts that elude genre classification. Besides documentary and biography, nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue. The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes, portraiture, documentary, tourist snapshots, and media images, as well as to the standard photo-textual forms of published album and photo essay. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc.
