Im Black And Im Sober:

Hard Times and Survival; the Autobiography of an African-American Son William A. James Sr.,2018-10-19 Hard Times and Survival The Autobiography of an African American Son is my story It is how I overcame all the heartbreaking brutal and horrendous circumstances that I was born into in 1947 I saw it all in my first sixteen years unbridled lust gross immorality damning lies and terrible brutality by my father against me and my mother He tried to kill me once but kept up a constant campaign of horrible abuses of my mother until I left home at sixteen However success is the best revenge After three years of alcoholism I pulled myself together and went back to school on my own That was after I spent a year in Job Corps from 1966 to 1967 From 1975 to 1977 I went to Piedmont Virginia Community College in Charlottesville From 1977 to 1980 I attended Virginia State University in Petersburg I earned my BA and MA degrees I studied above a master s at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville from 1980 to 1983 I did not graduate but I learned valuable life lessons I started to write in 1993 about what had happened to me over the years and how I used my dire circumstances as motivation to pick myself up and make my life better I hope I am an example that will help others who are suffering through similar atrocities to be motivated to not give up but persevere and that they will as I did overcome anything they are being faced with The Horse-breeders' Handbook Joseph Osborne,1889 The Best Short Plays Margaret (Gardner) Mayorga,1947 The (Im)possibility of Forgiveness Dion Forster,2019-09-10 The findings from this study go beyond biblical theological scholarship on forgiveness Dion Forster boldly succeeds in showing that creating conditions for deeper human connection transforms impossibility into possibility and shines a light on the face of the Other who can now be forgiven Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Professor and Research Chair of Historical Trauma and Transformation Stellenbosch University Dion Forster refuses to accept the conclusion that understandings of forgiveness may be so different and complex across social racial and cultural groups in South Africa that actual forgiveness may be impossible Using Matthew 18 15 35 as a meeting ground he gathers ordinary Methodist Christians for cross cultural intergroup Bible reading He draws upon the philosophical integral theory of Ken Wilber the insights of intergroup contact theory and the methods of critical biblical exegesis to organize analyse and understand this encounter What emerges is a hopeful conclusion that differing conceptions of forgiveness its challenges and possibilities can be understood shared and perhaps actualized across social racial and cultural barriers Bruce C Birch Dean and Professor of Biblical Theology Wesley Theological Seminary Reading Dion Forster on the im possibility of forgiveness I was once again struck by our desperate need to learn more about ourselves and one another but also about the meaning of forgiveness in our respective communities This is an excellent example of the potential of Intercultural Bible Reading Forster not only makes an outstanding academic contribution with implications for New Testament studies Systematic and Public Theology but also for flesh and blood communities wrestling with the possibilities and perils of forgiveness Juliana Claassens Professor of Old Testament Studies and Head of Department Chair of the Gender Unit

Stellenbosch University This book deals with contested and topical matters Biblical hermeneutics has always been contested how to read and understand Biblical passages Things become even more contested when such passages are read inter culturally they become even more contested when the words are about contested personal and social issues like Jesus words on forgiveness in Matthew 18 Empirical studies like this show how deeply contested such readings truly are in the context of South African churches with their painful histories of division and conflict Future academic work will therefore benefit from the creative and careful methodological approach developed in this study However this book offers much more than academic promise precisely because of the theme so topical today and without doubt topical for a long time to come and in many other places in our contemporary world as well Forster offers resources for reading and conversation for everyone concerned with public life today This is public theology in action showing how faith matters without prescribing answers but rather by invitation to join an informed discussion Dirk J Smit The Rimmer and Ruth deVries Professor of Reformed Theology and Public Life Princeton Theological Seminary
