Okay ... I'm Saved: Now What? James Langston, 2013-01-29 The way some live their Faith it makes you wonder if they know what it means to have a true biblical relationship with the Father Sadly we make Salvation the ultimate goal for the church and its ministry in other words get em Saved then afterward its business as usual We too often make the mistake that when we lead souls to the Lord its mission accomplished now on to the next one As much as we emphasize Salvation we then only give lip service to what happens after a person gets Saved I think this entirely misses the point of the born again experience God s plan for Salvation from the beginning of time was never about just saving us but about a relationship But someone will say You say you have Faith and I have works Now you show me your alleged Faith apart from any good works if you can and I by good works of obedience will show you my Faith James 2 18 Amplified Bible So church let s show our world some awesome good works

I'm Saved, So What? Elizabeth Moreau, 2008-04 Christian do you know who you are Well we know we are going to heaven and probably ought to be good until then but is that all Is Christian salvation nothing more than being good today for the promise of a future Christians have talked about salvation for so long we have forgotten its meaning and power We are saved so what What is the big deal Is salvation a big deal Sometimes we stop even talking about salvation The Christianity of the Bible is a powerful life giving history changing faith and life but Christianity in the western world is too often unremarkable and declining Are we missing something There is more There is so much more Come read and study Open your heart and mind to the riches of Christian life and faith Explore the life to which you have been saved the life the Father intended for you in your creation An ordained elder in the United Methodist Church Rev Moreau holds a Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University When health issues necessitated leaving parish ministry she used the time to respond to one of the greatest needs in the local church today the need for the laity to be taught the content of the faith and to come to see the world through the eyes of Christ in short to love God with all of their minds Over a decade of service in the local church convinced Rev Moreau that the laity desire the deeper things of God Raised in East Texas Rev Moreau now lives in Houston where she continues to write and teach as her health improves She has one son Paul and is the grandmother of the most precious grandchildren ever born Brandon Kenny Kyler Kambrei and Brianna

Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States. President, 2004 Containing the public messages speeches and statements of the President 1956-1992 I'm Coming Out of This John R. Adolph, 2009-10 If the Apostle Paul were here with us today what would he say to help us cope with tough times One of the most startling revelations believers face is that dedicating their life to Christ does not shield them from the trials of life or the blows of an enemy attack The truth is when we make the decision to live for Christ the battle is on Yet the answer is not to give up when we grow weary in the fight Instead take note from the Apostle Paul as he speaks to the church of Philippi and find restored confidence in the fact that Christ has assured our victory Dr John R Adolph is magnificent at communicating complex spiritual principles in simple everyday language In I m Coming Out of This Dr Adolph teaches what is required to find the faith and determination of Paul that is within the heart of every believer He uses biblical and practical illustrations to inspire and empower believers to stand up to the enemy while in the heat of the battle and leads warriors of the faith in the battle cry I m Coming Out of This
