Decades of Discovery Tony Abramson,2008 Tony Abramson presents this groundbreaking collection of articles centred upon the study of early Anglo Saxon coinage Radical Sensibility Chris Jones,2016-04-06 First published in 1993 Radical Sensibility provides a detailed account of the interrelations of literature ideas and history in the eighteenth century s Revolutionary decade The book traces a continuity of ideas from Shaftesbury to Godwin and Wollstonecraft and sets it beside a conservative tradition established in the work of Hume and Adam Smith As a guide to the transformations of sensibility as a concept Jones examines the trajectories of three writers who work spans the decade Charlotte Smith Helen Maria Williams and the early Wordsworth A mixture of literary textual analysis and historical and political documentation Radical Sensibility will be important reading for students and teachers of poetry ideas and the novel The Beatles and Fandom Richard Mills,2019-12-12 Sex death and nostalgia are among the impulses driving Beatles fandom the metaphorical death of the Beatles after their break up in 1970 has fueled the progressive nostalgia of fan conventions for 48 years the death of John Lennon and George Harrison has added pathos and drama to the Beatles story Beatles Monthly predicated on the Beatles good looks and the letters page was a forum for euphemistically expressed sexuality The Beatles and Fandom is the first book to discuss these fan subcultures It combines academic theory on fandom with compelling original research material to tell an alternative history of the Beatles phenomenon a fans history of the Beatles that runs concurrently with the popular story we all know Land-Cover and Land-Use Changes in Eastern Europe after the Collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991

Garik Gutman,Volker Radeloff,2016-11-14 This work analyzes the effects of one of the most dramatic changes of entire societies that the world has ever witnessed It explores the collapse of socialist governance and management systems on land cover and land use in various parts of Eastern Europe As readers will discover this involved rapid and unprecedented changes such as widespread agricultural abandonment Changes in the countries of the former Soviet block former Soviet Union republics and European Russia are compared and contrasted Contributing authors cover topics such as the carbon cycle and the environment effects of institutional changes on urban centers and agriculture as well as changes in wildlife populations The volume includes analysis of the drivers of agricultural land abandonment forest changes in Black Sea region an extreme drought event of 2010 impacts of fires on air quality and other land cover land use issues in Eastern Europe Satellite data used were mostly from optical sensors including night lights observations with both coarse and medium spatial resolution Ultimately this work highlights the importance of understanding socioeconomic shocks that is those brief periods during which societies change rapidly resulting in significant impact on land use and the environment Thus it shows that change is often abrupt rather than gradual and thereby much harder to predict This book is a truly international and interdisciplinary effort written by a team of scientists from the USA Europe and Russia It will be of interest to a broad range of scientists at all levels within natural and social sciences including those studying recent and ongoing changes in Europe In particular it will appeal to geographers environmental scientists remote sensing specialists social scientists and agricultural scientists

The Decades of the Newe Worlde Or West India, Pietro Martire d' Anghiera, 1555      The Decades of Henry Bullinger, Minister of the Church of Zurich, Translated by H. I. Henry Bullinger, 2009-02-02 History The Parker Society For the Publication of the Works of the Fathers and Early Writers of the Reformed English Church was formed in 1840 and disbanded in 1855 when its work was completed Its name is taken from that of Matthew Parker the first Elizabethan Archbishop of Canterbury who was known as a great collector and preserver of books The stimulus for the foundation of the society was provided by the nineteenth Century Tractarians Some members of this movement e g R H Froude in his Remains of 1838 9 spoke most disparagingly of the English Reformation Really I hate the Reformation and the Reformers more and more Keble could add in 1838 Anything which separates the present Church from the Reformers I should hail as a great good Protestants within the Church of England therefore felt the urgent need to make available in an attractive and accessible form the works of the leaders of the English Reformation To many it seemed that the Protestant foundations of the English Church were being challenged like never before Thus the society represented a co operation between traditional High Churchmen and evangelical churchmen both of whom were committed to the Reformation teaching on justification by faith Subscribers were also involved in the erection of the Martyrs Memorial in Oxford although this was as much anti Roman Catholic as anti Tractarian The society had about seven thousand subscribers who paid one pound each year from 1841 to 1855 thus for fifteen pounds the subscribers received fifty three volumes the General Index and the Latin originals of the 1847 Original Letters relative to the English Reformation being special subscriptions Twenty four editors were used and the task of arriving at the best text was far from easy The choice of publications was controversial and some authors and works were unfortunate not to be included in PS volumes While some of the volumes have been superseded by more recent critical editions today this collection remains one of the most valuable sources for the study of the English Reformation

Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 1998 Documenting the Documentary features essays by 27 film scholars from a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives Each essay focuses on one or two important documentaries engaging in questions surrounding ethics ideology politics power race gender and representation but always in terms of how they arise out of or are involved in the reading of specific documentaries as particular textual constructions By closely reading documentaries as rich visual works this anthology fills a void in the critical writing on documentaries which tends to privilege production over aesthetic pleasure As we increasingly perceive and comprehend the world through visual media understanding the textual strategies by which individual documentaries are organized has become critically important Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis

Latino Image Makers in Hollywood Frank Javier Garcia Berumen, 2014-08-15 Latinos have been part of the Hollywood film industry for more than 100 years yet beyond the remarkable success of a few their visibility and clout have generally not reflected their significance in American society Worse the Latino image has suffered from widespread stereotyping in film and performers face unjustified constraints in the kinds of roles available to them Decade by decade from 1960 onward this book analyzes important films made by or about Latinos details the careers of Latino performers and filmmakers of the time and analyzes how film portrayals of Latino characters and subjects connect with political and social trends of each decade It discusses the role of gender social class and ethnicity in film portrayals and provides an overview of the diverse and dynamic Latino community in the United States while celebrating a substantial and enduring contribution to Hollywood film history
