Images and Objects in Ritual Practices in Medieval and Early Modern Northern and Central Europe Krista Kodres, Anu Mänd, 2014-07-18 This multidisciplinary collection of essays explores the functions meanings and use of images and objects in various late Medieval and Early Modern social practices which were linked by their ritual character The book approaches ritual as an action which is discussed under the general umbrella term performative practice and is characterised by a synthesis between the repetitive and the extraordinary that carries an intense symbolic meaning and is emotionally charged Images spaces and rituals were closely interconnected in both the religious and the secular spheres and played a relevant role in the symbolic communication of the time The essays in this volume are devoted to a complex study of these phenomena in Northern and Central Europe including regions which due to linguistic or cultural barriers have thus far received comparatively little attention in Anglo American scholarship including Scandinavia Poland and the Baltic states Barbaric Splendour: The Use of Image Before and After Rome Toby F. Martin, Wendy Morrison, 2020-06-11 This book comprises a collection of essays comparing late Iron Age and Early Medieval art Fundamentally the book asks what making images meant on the fringe of the expanding or contracting Roman empire particularly as the art from both periods drew heavily from but radically transformed imperial imagery The European Image of God and Man Hans-Christian Günther, Andrea A. Boer, 2016-06-10 The Jesuit investment in images whether verbal or visual virtual or actual pictorial or poetic rhetorical or exegetical was strong and sustained and may even be identified as one of the order's defining characteristics Although this interest in images has been richly documented by art historians theatre historians and scholars of the emblem the question of Jesuit image theory has yet to be approached from a multi disciplinary perspective that examines how the image was defined conceived produced and interpreted within the various fields of learning cultivated by the Society sacred oratory pastoral instruction scriptural exegesis theology collegiate pedagogy poetry and poetics etc The papers published in this volume investigate the ways in which Jesuits reflected visually and verbally on the status and functions of the imago between the foundation of the order in 1540 and its suppression in 1773 Part I examines texts that purport explicitly to theorize about the imago and to analyze its various forms and functions Part II examines what one might call expressions of embedded image theory that is various instances where Jesuit authors and artists use images implicitly to explore the status and functions of such images as indices of image making Contributors include Wietse de Boer James Clifton Ralph Dekoninck Karl Enenkel Pierre Antoine Fabre David Graham Agn's Guiderdoni Anna Knaap Walter Melion Jeffrey Muller Hilmar Pabel Aline Smeesters Andrea Torre and Steffen Zierholz Images and Ideas in the Middle Ages Gerhart Burian Ladner, 1983

Images of the Nation, 1993 This collection of case studies investigates the significance and function of national identity The authors see national consciousness in terms of the circumstances in which it arose and in terms of the meaning which it had for a specific group or individual Representations of the nation could serve to legitimize or support specific political or social agendas or to provide people with a point of fixity amidst changing circumstances The articles in this volume trace these aspects of national consciousness in the case of a single country The Netherlands Ideas, Images, and Methods of Portrayal Sebastian Günther, 2005-05-01 This volume deals with the genesis of selected classical Arabic texts as the products of different milieus and the implications which these texts had for Islamic societies in medieval times It explores the concepts and images which Muslim scholars from the 8th to the 14th century presented in their writings and in particular ponders the ways in which these authors used specific methods of portrayal either overtly or more subtly to advance their ideas The fresh theoretical and methodological approaches applied in this book facilitate the understanding of how medieval Muslim writers expressed their views and more importantly why they expressed them in the way they did This helps disclose for example how the images of historically or religiously significant figures in Arabic Islamic culture have been developed and shaped in the process of their literarization Iconotropy and Cult Images from the Ancient to Modern World Jorge Tomás
