The Image Kenneth Ewart Boulding, 1956 Boulding discusses the image as the key to understanding society and human behavior The Image Kenneth Ewart Boulding, 1975 Image Kenneth Ewart Boulding, 1961 The Image Kenneth E. Boulding, 2003-01-01 Boulding discusses the image as the key to understanding society and human behavior The Image Donald Alexander Stuart Fraser, 1956 Gender and the Life Course Alice S. Rossi, 1985-01-01 Gender and the Life Course is an interdisciplinary collection of essays on the lives of women and men as they are affected by history culture demography economic and political stratification and the biopsychological processes that attend maturation and aging The book covers three major topics Part I which examines gender and the life course in broad historical perspective includes a summary of recent work in biological ecology and primatology and an analysis of the persistence of cultural and gender differences in role organization in societies undergoing the transition from agrarianism to industrialism Other essays trace the changes in sources of household income of industrial workers over the life span and review temporal and gender differences in life span transitions Part II examines gender differentiation in a variety of contexts psychological psychobiological and sociological Alice Rossi's ASA Presidential Address reviews recent work on fathering and mothering and argues that sociological explanations of such gender differences need supplementation by concepts from evolutionary theory and the neurosciences Three essays deal with gender and economy one shows how gender stratification took hold in the early stages of industrialization in France another demonstrates the persistence of gender stratification in modern economies the third focuses on ideology in relation to gender and political power Part III examines various aspects of the aged in contemporary society including an argument for an interpretive social science that uses diverse methods to improve our ability to describe and interpret many facets of the lives of elderly men and women a review of the methodology used to study changes in the aged population over time and an overview of existing data sets that permit further cohort and longitudinal analyses of the aged The final essays review social policies as they affect the elderly with particular attention to the fact that most very old people are women and the impact of the greatly expanded life course for family and kin relations Gender and the Life Course is a state of the art assessment of the best work currently being done on gender and age's maturational factors and is essential reading for anyone interested in adult development and gender roles Bulletin United States. Office of Education, 1963 Bulletin, 1963 Preliminary Draft Report of the Second Circuit Task Force on Gender, Racial, and Ethnic Fairness in the Courts United States Second Circuit Task Force on Gender, Racial, and Ethnic Fairness, 1997 Epistemic Communities, Constructivism, and International Environmental Politics Peter Haas, 2015-08-20 Epistemic Communities Constructivism and International Environmental Politics brings together 25 years of publications by Peter M Haas The book examines how the world has changed significantly over the last 100 years discusses the need for new constructivist scholarship to understand the dynamics of world politics and highlights the role played by transnational networks of professional experts in global governance Combining an intellectual history of epistemic communities with theoretical arguments and empirical studies of global environmental conferences as well as international organizations and comparative studies of international environmental regimes this book presents a broad picture of social learning on the global scale In addition to detailing the changes in the international system since the Industrial Revolution Haas discusses the technical nature of global environmental threats Providing a critical reading of discourses about environmental security this book explores governance efforts to deal with global climate change international pollution control stratospheric ozone and European acid rain With a new general introduction and the addition of introductory pieces for each section this collection offers a retrospective overview of the author s work and is essential reading for students and scholars of environmental politics international relations and global politics

Social Imaginary and the Metaphysical Discourse

Christoforos Bouzanis,2023-05-05 This book departs from approaches to truth in social science and ideas in philosophy that connect truth to the ability of language to fulfil certain real world conditions of objectivity Pointing to an extra linguistic level in our cognition at which scientific creativity occurs it highlights the manner in which epistemic communities share work on and modify not only the world imaginaries that they endorse but also those world views that they reject or which partially overlap with their own Through the concept of the social imaginary the author explores the theoretical interrelations among various metaphysical world imageries by which we organise our scientific understanding of the world and our expectations of experience thus shedding light on the manner in which social ontology can inform our practices of sharing belief A study at the intersection of metaphysics and social theory The Fundamental Predicament of Contemporary Philosophy and the Social Sciences will appeal to scholars of sociology and philosophy with interests in questions of ontology and epistemology

Curriculum Windows Redux Thomas S. Poetter,Kelly Waldrop,Syed Hassan Raza,2022-08-01 Curriculum Windows

Redux What Curriculum Theorists Can Teach Us about Schools and Society Today is an effort by students of curriculum studies along with their professor to interpret and understand curriculum texts and theorists in contemporary terms The authors explore how key books authors from the curriculum field illuminate new possibilities forward for us as scholar educators today How might the theories practices and ideas wrapped up in these curriculum texts still resonate with us allow us to see backward in time and forward in time all at the same time How might these figurative windows of insight thought ideas fantasy and fancy make us think differently about curriculum teaching learning students education leadership and schools Further how might they help us see more clearly even perhaps put us on a path to correct the mistakes and missteps of intervening decades and of today The authors complete the Curriculum Windows series with this 7th book Redux providing a scholarly view of 33 books that should have been treated in the first 6 books based on the decades of the 1950s 2000s The book s Foreword is by renowned curriculum theorist William H Schubert

NorCalMod Pierluigi Serraino,2006-08-03 Many people think modernist architecture never flowered in California north of the San Fernando Valley NorCalMod dispels that notion in a copiously illustrated history showcasing extraordinary examples of its proud contribution to the Bay Area and environs As a style modernist architecture was hotly debated in its day why create modern structures where such distinctive Victorian and Arts and Crafts buildings already existed pulling heavyweights such as Frank Lloyd Wright Lewis Mumford and Walter Gropius into the fray Ultimately that existing Bay Region Style would remain the area s architectural hallmark but not before hundreds of important modernist projects many still standing yet unjustly neglected today had been established The remarkable photos in this book open our eyes to a long lost chapter in the history of California architecture and make NorCalMod a volume to be enjoyed by those interested in California history and style as well as by architecture students and professionals
