Ray,2020-05-09 After over a century of existence the cinema still has its mysteries Why for example is the job we call movie stardom unlike any other in the world How do films provide so much unconcealed information that we fail to notice What makes it hard to define what counts as acting How do movies like Casablanca and Breathless store the film and world histories of their generations How can we reconcile auteurism s celebration of the movie director s authority with the camera s automatism Why have the last four decades of film criticism so often neglected such questions After beginning with an overview of film studies this book proposes a shift from predictable theoretical approaches to models that acknowledge the perplexities and mysteries of the movies Deriving methods from cinephilia Wittgenstein Richard Rorty Stanley Cavell Eleanor Duckworth V F Perkins and James Naremore Robert B Ray offers close readings that call attention to what we have missed in such classic films as La R gle du Jeu It Happened One Night It s a Wonderful Life Vertigo Holiday The Philadelphia Story Casablanca Breathless and Tickets

Images of Projects Mark Winter, Tony Szczepanek, 2017-03-02 In this very distinctive book Images of Projects challenges how we think about projects in the most fundamental way it rejects outright the idea of a one best way to view all projects and also the idea of following a prescriptive approach In contrast Images of Projects seeks to encourage a more pragmatic and reflective approach based on deliberately seeing projects from multiple perspectives exploring the insights and implications which flow from these and crafting appropriate action strategies in complex situations Based on real examples and the authors work over the last ten years Images of Projects presents seven pragmatic images for making sense of the complex realities of projects Illustrated using various models these images are presented in ways that allow the reader to reflect upon their own mental models in relation to the different perspectives in this book

The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg, 2016-11-11 In The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg takes a twofold approach to the role of revision in significant American autobiographies He reexamines the problem of the autobiographical subject from a poststructuralist perspective and he places that problem in the context of American culture As a framework for his unique study he offers a reading of Ecce Homo that argues that Nietzsche s autobiographical I is both buried in and created by the text itself Only by revising his text by retelling his life to himself can Nietzsche arrive at self knowledge Ultimately Nietzsche finds himself in all literature everywhere He becomes a universal soul Fichtelberg demonstrates that Nietzsche s complex ideas about where subject and language meet in a text can be used to understand the dominant millennial impulse evident in American autobiographies Thomas Shepard cast the American portion of his autobiography as a compendium of colonial triumphs John Woolman rearranged his Journal to make a vision of Christian unity its climax and Walt Whitman fashioned Specimen Days to highlight his late tour of the west during which he realized an earlier poetic vision of national unity In the nineteenth century this easy faith in millennial union began to collapse and Fichtelberg contends that it remained only in the autobiographies of such marginal groups as those represented by Frederick Douglass and Gertrude Stein He offers a close analysis of their autobiographies and in a concluding chapter examines the work of four recent writers W E B DuBois Lillian Hellman Mary McCarthy and Maya Angelou The Complex Image will interest scholars and students of American history and literature

H. Favero, 2017-11-27 The Present Image explores the world of images in the contemporary increasingly digitized habitats of the world Moving across a theoretical spectrum that brings visual and digital culture in touch with anthropology political theory phenomenology and art history and based on the author s practice based involvement with images the book argues against the idea of the digital as a revolution in the world of images Present images are the result of a dialectic between the material and the immaterial the manual and the mechanical the visible and the audible the old and the new Offering an analysis containing simultaneously elements of timeliness and timelessness the book addressed practices such as VR and 360 degrees iDocs and action cameras in a dialogue with classical art religious iconography early photography and contemporary art In the final chapter the book explores the significance of images and image making in the context of dying mourning and living
