What Philosophy Wants from Images D. N.

Rodowick,2018-01-08 In recent decades contemporary art has displayed an ever increasing and complicated fascination with the cinema or perhaps more accurately as D N Rodowick shows a certain memory of cinema Contemporary works of film video and moving image installation mine a vast and virtual archive of cultural experience through elliptical and discontinuous fragments of remembered images even as the lived experience of film and photography recedes into the past supplanted by the digital Rodowick here explores work by artists such as Ken Jacobs Ernie Gehr Victor Burgin Harun Farocki and others artists who are creating forms that express a new historical consciousness of images These forms acknowledge a complex relationship to the disappearing past even as they point toward new media that will challenge viewers confidence in what the images they see are or are becoming What philosophy wants from images Rodowick shows is to renew itself conceptually through deep engagement with new forms of aesthetic experience

Labor's Image of Its Place in the Community Power Structure Warren Louis Sauer,1958

Labor's Mind Tobias Higbie,2018-12-30 Business leaders conservative ideologues and even some radicals of the early twentieth century dismissed working people s intellect as stunted twisted or altogether missing They compared workers toiling in America s sprawling factories to animals children and robots Working people regularly defied these expectations cultivating the knowledge of experience and embracing a vibrant subculture of self education and reading Labor s Mind uses diaries and personal correspondence labor college records and a range of print and visual media to recover this social history of the working class mind As Higbie shows networks of working class learners and their middle class allies formed nothing less than a shadow labor movement Dispersed across the industrial landscape this movement helped bridge conflicts within radical and progressive politics even as it trained workers for the transformative new unionism of the 1930s Revelatory and sympathetic Labor's Mind reclaims a forgotten chapter in working class intellectual life while mapping present day possibilities for labor higher education and digitally enabled self study Encounter Images in the Meetings Between Africa and Europe Mai Palmberg, 2001 Positive images of Africa contrast with negative images of misery war and catastrophes often conveyed by the mass media This selection of papers debate the images and stereotypes of Africa
