Shades of Loneliness Richard Stivers, 2004-02-09 In this incisive and controversial book Richard Stivers rejects genetic explanations of psychological problems arguing instead that the very organization of technological societies is behind the pervasive experience of loneliness In its extreme form loneliness assumes pathological dimensions in neurosis and schizophrenia which reflect the contradiction between power and meaninglessness that characterizes modern life Loneliness in its many manifestations seems to be the price we must pay for living in a technological world Yet nurturing family friend and community ties can mitigate its culturally and psychologically disorganizing power This book is a clarion call for a renewal of moral awareness and custom to combat the fragmentation and depersonalization of our technological civilization Visit our website for sample chapters

Inventing Peace Wim Wenders, Mary Zournazi, 2013-08-30 Inventing Peace revolves around the question of how we look at the world but do not see it when there is so much war injustice suffering and violence What are the ethical and moral consequences of looking but not seeing and most of all what has become of the notion of peace in all this In the form of a written dialogue Wim Wenders and Mary Zournazi consider this question as one of the fundamental issues of our times as well as the need to reinvent a visual and moral language for peace Inspired by various cinematic philosophical literary and artistic examples Wenders and Zournazi reflect on the need for a change of perception in the everyday as well as in the creation of images In its unique style and method Inventing Peace demonstrates an approach to peace through sacred ethical and spiritual means to provide an alternative to the inhumanity of war and violence Their book might help to make peace visible and tangible in new and unforeseen ways Images and Strategies for Autonomy Ole Elgström, 2013-11-11 How do small states approach their security problems What types of strategic instruments exist for small states and when and why are certain strategies chosen rather than others The security of weak states is problematic demanding trade offs in the decisions made Using 19th century Swedish security policy as an example it is argued here that small states in their pursuit of security and autonomy face a dilemma between abandonment and entrapment leading to a choice between balancing between great powers or making an approach to one of them This hard choice confronts both non aligned and allied states It is also argued that a focus on the images of decision makers is required as a complement to traditional realist theory in order to gain an in depth understanding of small state security decisions This book is special in its focus on small non aligned states Most studies on balance of power behaviour limit their analysis to alignment decisions The study also expands the domain of image constructs by introducing perceived regime characteristics into the analysis besides images of power and intentions Audience Scholars and students interested in foreign policy analysis particularly small state behaviour The book points to the importance of beliefs and ideas in security policy

Dynamic Image Analysis of Granular Materials Magued Iskander,Linzhu Li,2024-05-18 This book explores the effectiveness of Dynamic Image Analysis DIA in granulometry studies of sand and presents criteria for soil characterization using DIA including test parameters specimen size efficacy in gap graded soils and its limitations DIA is a modern experimental technique used to analyze and classify particulate materials based on their size shape and other morphological properties This method employs a high frame rate camera to capture images of individual sand particles which have been transported and separated using various techniques DIA generates both particle size and shape information by analyzing thousands to millions of particles providing a quantitative statistical description of grain size and shape distribution within the specimen The manuscript also offers a comprehensive examination of 2D and 3D particle size and shape descriptors It demonstrates that there is no correlation between size and shape parameters in many sands and that shape descriptors can be reduced to four independent parameters representing sand granulometry at different scales Additionally the use of DIA in exploring the depositional history of two complex calcareous sands is presented The manuscript presents the properties of 30 representative sands including size and shape parameters and fits them to statistical distributions The investigated soils encompass both natural and machine sorted materials particles with regular and irregular shapes as well as siliceous and calcareous sands Physical granulometry of sand particles is compared using 2D 3D DIA and micro computed tomography CT The work demonstrates that DIA offers significant advantages in terms of efficiency for 3D shape analysis while providing an adequate representation of particle sizes and shapes of most sands Finally the manuscript integrates classical geotechnical engineering with computer vision and artificial intelligence Size and shape descriptors are utilized for sand classification through machine learning models This work represents a crucial step toward the automatic machine classification of soils potentially enabling on site classification using smartphones equipped with high resolution cameras
