Kenneth Burke And Martin Heidegger With A Note Against Deconstructionism:

Kenneth Burke & Martin Heidegger Samuel B. Southwell, 1987 Kenneth Burke and the Conversation after Philosophy Timothy W. Crusius, 1999-03-30 Throughout much of his long life 1897 1993 Kenneth Burke was recognized as a leading American intellectual perhaps the most significant critic writing in English since Coleridge From about 1950 on rhetoricians in both English and speech began to see him as a major contributor to the New Rhetoric But despite Burke's own claims to be writing philosophy and some notice from reviewers and critics that his work was philosophically significant Timothy W. Crusius is the first to assess his work as philosophy Crusius traces Burke's commitment and contributions to philosophy prior to 1945 from Counter Statement 1931 through The Philosophy of Literary Form 1941 While Burke might have been a late modernist thinker Crusius shows that Burke actually starts from a position closely akin to such postmodern figures as Michel Foucault and Richard Rorty Crusius then examines Burke's work from A Grammar of Motives 1945 up to his last published essays drawing most heavily on A Rhetoric of Motives The Rhetoric of Religion and uncollected essays from the 1970s This part concerns Burke's contributions to human activities always closely associated with rhetoric hermeneutics dialectic and praxis Burke's highly developed notion of our species as the symbol using animal argues Crusius draws together the various strands of his later philosophy his concern with interpretation with dialectic and dialogue with a praxis devoted to awareness and control of the self deceiving and potentially self destructive motives inherent in language itself Kenneth Burke on Myth Lawrence Coupe, 2013-10-18 Kenneth Burke rhetorician philosopher linguist sociologist literary and music critic crank was one of the foremost theorists of literary form He did not fit tidily into any philosophical school nor was he reducible to any simple set of principles or ideas He published widely and is probably best known for two of his classic works A Rhetoric of Motive and Philosophy of Literary Form His observations on myth however were never systematic and much of his writing on literary theory and other topics cannot be fully understood without fleshing out his thoughts on myth and mythmaking Kenneth Burke and His Circles Jack Selzer, Robert Wess, 2008-07-24 Kenneth Burke and His Circles consists of original papers focusing on the intellectual circles in which Burke participated during his long career Instead of concentrating on Burke himself as most recent scholarship has done this book considers Burke as one participant in a host of important overlapping intellectual movements that took place over the course of the twentieth century Kenneth Burke Stephen Bygrave, 2012-09-10 Kenneth Burke Rhetoric and Ideology is a lucid and accessible introduction to a major twentieth century thinker those ideas have influenced fields as diverse as literary theory philosophy linguistics politics and anthropology Stephen Bygrave explores the content of Burke's vast output of work focusing especially on his preoccupation with the relation between language ideology and action By considering Burke as a reader and writer of narratives and systems Bygrave examines the inadequacies of earlier readings of Burke and unfolds his thought within current debates in Anglo American cultural theory This is an excellent re evaluation of Burke's thought and valuable introduction to the impressive range of his ideas Kenneth Burke Robert Wess,1996-03-29 Kenneth Burke arguably the most important American literary theorist of the twentieth century helped define the theoretical terrain for contemporary literary and cultural studies His perspectives were literary and linguistic but his influences ranged across history philosophy and the social sciences In this important study first published in 1996 Robert Wess traces the trajectory of Burke s long career and situates his work in relation to postmodernity His study is both an examination of contemporary theories of rhetoric ideology and the subject and an explanation of why Burke failed to complete his Motives trilogy Burke s own critique of the isolated unique individual led him to question the possibility of unique individuation a strategy which anticipated important elements of postmodern concepts of subjectivity Robert Wess study is a judicious exposition of Burke s massive oeuvre and a crucial intervention in debates on rhetoric and human agency Kenneth Burke Laurence Coupe,2013-05-16 KENNETH BURKE FROM MYTH TO ECOLOGY is the first full length study of a remarkable thinker s approach to those founding narratives those essential structures of thought which cannot be credited to any one individual but rather belong to the whole community Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Addressing Postmodernity Barbara Biesecker,2000-10-05 A deconstructive reading of the three texts that constitute the apex of Burke s career A Grammar of Motives A Rhetoric of Motives and The Rhetoric of Religion Studies in Logology Confronting challenges posed by postmodernity to social theorists and critics alike Biesecker U of Iowa argues that a radicalized rereading of Burke s theory of the negative opens the way toward a rhetorical theory of social change and human agency Of interest to philosophers social theorists graduate students and precocious undergraduates Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Moving Bodies Debra Hawhee,2022-03-23 A sophisticated study of how bodies and language move and are moved by each other Kenneth Burke may be best known for his theories of dramatism and of language as symbolic action but few know him as one of the twentieth century s foremost theorists of the relationship between language and bodies In Moving Bodies Debra Hawhee focuses on Burke s studies from the 1930s 40s and 50s while illustrating that his interest in reading the body as a central force of communication began early in his career By exploring Burke s extensive writings on the subject alongside revealing considerations of his life and his scholarship Hawhee maps his recurring invocation of a variety of disciplinary perspectives in order to theorize bodies and communication working across and even beyond the arts humanities and sciences Burke s sustained analysis of the body drew on approaches representing a range of specialties and interests including music mysticism endocrinology evolution speech gesture theory and speech act theory as well as his personal experiences with pain and illness Hawhee shows that Burke s goal was to advance understanding of the body s relationship to identity to the creation of meaning and to the circulation of language Her study brings to the fore one of Burke s most important and understudied contributions to language theory and she establishes Burke as a pioneer in a field where investigations into affect movement and sense perception broaden understanding of physical ways of knowing

Rhetorical Invention and Religious Inquiry Walter Jost,Wendy Olmsted,2000-01-01 This exceptional collection of writings offers for the first time a discussion among leading thinkers about the points at which rhetoric and religion illuminate and challenge each other The contributors to the volume are eminent theorists and critics in rhetoric theology and religion and they address a variety of problems and periods Together these writings shed light on religion as a human quest and rhetoric as the origin and sustainer of that quest They show that when pursued with intelligence and sensitivity rhetorical approaches to religion are capable of revitalizing both language and experience Rhetorical figures for example constitute forms of language that say what cannot be said in any other way and that move individuals toward religious truths that cannot be known in any other way When firmly placed within religious social and literary history the convergence of rhetoric and religion brings into focus crucial issues in several fields including philosophy psychology history and art and interprets relations among self language and world that are central to both past and present cultures Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz,Lewis L.B. Fried,2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida s work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida s Master s thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy

Sign, Sentence, Discourse Julian N. Wasserman,Lois Roney,1988-12-01 Religious Dialectics of Pain and Imagination Bradford T. Stull,1994-09-30 This book explores the possibility of a liberatory postmodern rhetoric or alternatively a postmodern liberation rhetoric The author turns to one of the most ancient disciplines rhetoric in order to address a most contemporary concern how can humans imagine new and better worlds when surrounded by unspeakable pain After a foray into key terms rhetoric postmodern liberation pain imagination religion the author places into conversation the theory and practice of four contemporary rhetoricians two postmoderns Kenneth Burke and Thomas Merton and two liberationists Paulo Freire of Brazil and Oscar Romero of El Salvador Jacques Derrida's Aporetic Ethics Marko Zlomislíć,2007-01-01 Derrida has been interpreted as a nihilist and relativist This study demonstrates that he has an ethics and a concern for religion that goes beyond the structures of the philosophical tradition The Johns Hopkins Guide to

Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005 Publisher Description Intentions Arabella Lyon, 2004-06-11 The relationship between an author's and an audience's intentions is complex but need not preclude mutual engagement This philosophical investigation challenges existing literary and rhetorical perspectives on intention and offers a new framework for understanding the negotiation of meaning It describes how an audience's intentions affect their interpretations shows how audiences negotiate meaning when faced with a writer's undecipherable intentions and defines the scope of understanding within rhetorical situations Introducing a concept of intention into literary analysis that supersedes existing rhetorical theory Arabella Lyon shows how the rhetorics of I A Richards Wayne Booth and Stanley Fish as well as the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer fail to account for the complex interactions of author and audience Using Kenneth Burke's concepts of form motive and purpose she builds a more complex notion of intention than those usually found in literary studies then employs her theory to describe how philosophers read Wittgenstein's narratives metaphors and reversals in argument Lyon argues that our differences in intention prevent consistency in interpretations but do not stop our discussions deliberations and actions She seeks to acknowledge difference and the communicative problems it creates while demonstrating that difference is normal and does not end our engagement with each other Intentions combines recent work in philosophy literary criticism hermeneutics and rhetoric in a highly imaginative way to construct a theory of intention for a postmodern rhetoric It recovers and renovates central concepts in rhetorical theory not only intention but also deliberation politics and judgment Contingency Blues Paul Jay, 1997-04-01 From Emerson to Rorty American criticism has grappled in one way or another with the problem of modernity specifically how to determine critical and cultural standards in a world where every position seems the product of an interpretation Part intellectual history part cultural critique this provocative book is an effort to shake American thought out of the grip of the nineteenth century and out of its contingency blues Paul Jay focuses his analysis on two strands of American criticism The first which includes Richard Poirier and Giles Gunn has attempted to revive what Jay insists is an anachronistic pragmatism derived from Emerson James and Dewey The second represented most forcefully by Richard Rorty tends to reduce American criticism to a metadiscourse about the contingent grounds of knowledge In chapters on Emerson Whitman Santayana Van Wyck Brooks Dewey and Kenneth Burke Jay examines the historical roots of these two positions which he argues are marked by recurrent attempts to reconcile transcendentalism and pragmatism A forceful rejection of both kinds of revisionism Contingency Blues locates an alternative in the work of the border studies critics those who give our interest in contingency a new more concrete form by taking a more historical cultural and anthropological approach to the invention of literature subjectivity community and culture in a pan American context Dictionary of World Philosophy A. Pablo Iannone, 2013-04-15 The Dictionary of World Philosophy covers the diverse and challenging terminology concepts schools and traditions of the vast field of world philosophy Providing an extremely comprehensive resource and an essential point of reference in a complex and expanding field of study the Dictionary covers all major subfields of the discipline Key features Cross references are used to highlight interconnections and the cross cultural diffusion and adaptation of terms which has taken place over time The user is led from specific terms to master entries which provide valuable historical and cultural context Each master entry is followed by at least two suggestions for further reading on the subject creating a substantial bibliography of world philosophy References extend beyond philosophy to related areas such as cognitive science computer science language and physics Subdisciplines covered include aesthetics ethics sociopolitical philosophy the philosophy of law epistemology logic the philosophy of science the philosophy of mind the philosophy of culture and history metaphysics the philosophy of religion Entries are drawn from West Africa Arabic Chinese Indian Japanese Jewish Korean Latin American Maori and Native American philosophy including the important and so far largely neglected instance of Pre Hispanic thought Nahua philosophy A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music It is all about after After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty The book relates five areas of general human interest spirituality philosophy science art and body awareness The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music their patterns of discipline are comparable to self discipline A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills there is enjoyment in being yourself which is a neglected liberal art
