Laugh We Make When We Fall

Douglas Snauffer

Laugh We Make When We Fall:

From the Woods Kira A Stoyko, 2012-05-29 Dakota Stieber is at the top of her game in the horse riding world running a business with her father heading a premier team and entering college on an athletic scholarship Despite suddenly plagued by odd feelings and unsettling events she continues life as usual This changes drastically when she sneaks into an all male fox hunt with her father and four of her closest friends In chase the riders quickly realize they are not alone in the woods that day and face dire consequences Dakota manages to escape but finds herself stranded and alone In the face of grave fear she re enters the woods and is rescued by a young police officer who aids in her recovery and establishment of a new life Attempting to return to a normality she is soon deeply haunted by the grave fate of the others learning it was meant for her as well Now she is forced to figure out how to conquer and put right what they had met in the woods before she loses even more

An Otherwise Healthy Woman Amy Haddad, 2022-03 First Place in Creative Works from the American Journal of Nursing s Book of the Year Awards Second Place in Professional Issues from the American Journal of Nursing s Book of the Year Awards The poems in An Otherwise Healthy Woman delve into the complexity of modern health care illness and healing offering an alternative narrative to heroics and miracles Drawing on Amy Haddad s firsthand experiences as a nurse and patient the poems in this collection teach us to take a moment to stop and acknowledge the longing for compassion in each of us what ought to be the immediate human response to suffering The poet isn t afraid to explore her own fears and failures or to find joy and humor in the many roles women play An Otherwise Healthy Woman presents the intimate experiences of a nurse the vulnerable perspective of a patient and the lessons of caring for family

Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech-American Biography Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2016-11-10 As the Czech ambassador to the United States H E Petr Gandalovic noted in his foreword to this book that Mla Rechcigl has written a monumental work representing a culmination of his life achievement as a historian of Czech America The Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech American Biography is a unique and unparalleled publication The enormity of this undertaking is reflected in the fact that it covers a universe starting a few decades after the discovery of the New World through the escapades and significant contributions of Bohemian Jesuits and Moravian brethren in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the mass migration of the Czechs after the revolutionary year of 1848 and up to the early years of the twentieth century and the influx of refugees from Nazism and communism The encyclopedia has been planned as a representative a comprehensive and authoritative reference tool encompassing over 7 500 biographies This prodigious and unparalleled encyclopedic vade mecum reflecting enduring contributions of notable Americans with Czech roots is not only an invaluable tool for all researchers and students of Czech American history but is also a carte blanche for the Czech Republic which considers Czech Americans as their own and as a part of its magnificent cultural history

The Transit of Venus Susan Firer, 2019-09 In Firer s poems place often the western shore of Lake Michigan provides an imagistic and sonic landscape in which language explores the empire of skin with its daily happinesses and sorrows gifts and losses Often blue light illuminates these poems and frequently the language of a Catholic childhood shows up Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams s poems say Use everything and Firer does receipts anatomy astronomy clothes poles paintings checklists quagga mussels questions and grapefruit Birds fly through these poems insights too For a minute we are disguised as human That quote concisely sums up Firer s main attentions transience and time and with what and how we fill our brief time here on earth

Butterfly Nebula Laura Reece Hogan,2023-10 Gold Medal in Poetry for the 2024 Illumination Book Awards 2024 Catholic Media Association Book Award Honorable Mention in Poetry Winner of the Backwaters Prize in Poetry Butterfly Nebula reaches from the depths of the sea to the edges of space to chart intersections of the physical universe the divine the human and the constantly unfolding experience of being one thing in the act of becoming another This collection of poems teems with creatures and cosmic phenomena that vivify and reveal our common struggle toward faith and identity The longing and metamorphosis of the human heart and soul are reimaged in an otherworldly landscape of firework jellyfish sea slug stingray praying mantis butterfly and moth moon and star and celestial events ranging from dark matter and Kepler s Supernova remnant to a dozen classified nebulae Our desire for purpose and renewal collides with the vast constellation of divine possibility in this collection which invites the reader to enter a transformative world both deeply interior and embracing of the far flung cosmos

Antillia Henrietta Goodman,2024-03 Winner of the Backwaters Prize in Poetry Honorable Mention The title poem of this collection refers to the phantom island of Antillia included on maps in the fifteenth century but later found not to exist The ghosts that haunt this collection are phantom islands moon lakes lasers used to clean the caryatids at the Acropolis earlier versions of the self suicides a madam from the Old West petroleum snapdragons pets ice apples Casper and a resident ghost who makes the domestic realm of the cradle and the bed uninhabitable The ghosts are sons fathers asleep in front of the TV and a variety of exes lost boys with names like The Texan and Mr No More Cowboy Hat whom Henrietta Goodman treats with snarky wit but also with grief guilt and love Although memories pervade this collection these poems also look forward and outward into a world where social inequality and environmental disaster meet the possibility of metamorphosis

Skin Memory John Sibley Williams,2019-11-01 2020 Next Generation Indie Book Award Finalist in Poetry A stark visceral collection of free verse and prose poetry Skin Memory scours a wild landscape haunted by personal tragedy and the cruel consequences of human acts in search of tenderness and regeneration In this book of daring and introspection John Sibley Williams considers the capriciousness of youth the terrifying loss of cultural identity and self identity and what it means to live in an imperfect world He reveals each body as made up of all bodies histories and shared dreams of the future In these poems absence can be held the body s dust is just dust and though childhood is but a poorly edited memory and even our well intentioned gestures tend toward ruin Williams nonetheless says I m pretty sure everything within us says something beautiful

Everybody's Jonesin' for Something Indigo Moor,2021-03 Turning an unflinching spotlight on the American Dream Indigo Moor plunges headfirst

into national and personal laments and desires From Emmett Till to the fall of the Twin Towers and through the wildfires of Paradise California Moor weaves a thread through the hopes sacrifices and Sisyphean yearnings that make this country the beautiful trap that it is Everybody s Jonesin for Something takes an imagistic leap through the darker side of our search for life liberty and the pursuit of happiness perusing what we lose what we leave behind and what strange beauty we uncover

Foxlogic, Fireweed Jennifer K. Sweeney, 2020-09 Winner of the Backwaters Prize in Poetry Jennifer K Sweeney s Foxlogic Fireweed follows a lyrical sequence of five physical and emotional terrains floodplain coast desert suburbia and mesa braiding themes of nature domesticity isolation and human relationships These are poems of the earth s wild heart its searing mysteries its hollows and its species poems of the complex domestic space of before and after motherhood gun terror the election of dislocation and home and of how we circle toward and away from our centers Sweeney is not afraid to take up the domestic and inner lives of women a nuanced relationship with the natural world that feels female or even maternal or a duty to keeping alive poetry s big questions of transcendence revelation awe and deep presence in the ordinary Two Open Doors in a Field Sophie Klahr, 2023-03 Through sonnets and a long sequence the poems of Two Open Doors in a Field are constructed with deliberate limitations restlessly exploring place desire and spirituality Living Room Laura Bylenok, 2022-10 2023 Virginia Literary Awards Finalist Eric Hoffer Book Award Category Finalist Deeply phenomenological and ecological Laura Bylenok s poems in Living Room imagine the lived reality of other organisms and kinds of life including animals plants bacteria buildings and rocks They explore the permeability of human and nonhuman experience intelligence language and subjectivity In particular the poems consider so called model organisms nonhuman species studied to understand specific and often human biological processes diseases and phenomena as well as an experience of self and world that cannot be objectively quantified The impulse of these poems is to slow down to see and feel and to listen closely Language becomes solid palpable as fruit Long lines propel breath and push past the lung s capacity Life at a cellular level synthesis and symbiosis is revealed through forests fairy tales and vines that grow over abandoned houses and hospital rooms A living room is considered as a room that is lived in and also a room that is alive Cells are living rooms A self is a room that shares walls with others Interconnection and interplay are thematic and the network of poems becomes a linguistic rendering of a heterogeneous and nonhierarchical ecosystem using the language of biology genetics and neurochemistry alongside fairy tale and dream to explore the interior spaces of grief motherhood mortality and self Dear Wallace Julie Choffel, Long Rules Nathaniel Perry, 2021-11 This book length poem in six sections takes readers to five Trappist monasteries in the southeast United States to consider the intersections of solitude family music and landscape Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role Locomotive Cathedral Brandel France de Bravo,2025-03 With wit and vulnerability Brandel France de Bravo explores resilience in the face of climate change and a global pandemic race and the concept of a self all while celebrating the power of breath as baptism on repeat Whether her inspiration is twelfth century Buddhist mind training slogans or the one footed crow who visits her daily France de Bravo mines the tension between the human desire for permanence and control and life s fluid ungraspable nature Poem by poem essay by essay she builds a temple to the perpetual motion of transformation the wondrous churn of change and exchange that defines companionship marriage and ceding our place on Earth not dying but molting Seen & Heard Lucy Baldwin,Ben Raikes,2019-05-01 A collection of poems and drawings by parents and children affected by imprisonment in the UK and abroad The poems and images are all original and from open competitions begun in 2018 They address the thoughts feelings and beliefs of the authors as they express themselves concerning their emotions and experiences Over a million children and family members are affected by imprisonment in the UK alone and the poems seek to emphasise the sense of loss deprivation and isolation involved They also show resilience and how enforced separation impacts each and every day of the writer s life Extract from Mark s And I Need My Dad You are not here Like my friend s dad To build rocket ships And kick a football You are not here Because you are there Inside doing time And I need my dad Backed by prison and prisoner interest groups and children s charities Contains wholly original material and insights Linked to public events and initiatives To be used in education and training The Hormone of Darkness Tilsa Otta,2024-10-15 A bilingual selection of tender transgressive poems by a Peruvian poet and multimedia artist In Tilsa Otta s The Hormone of Darkness we find a queer Latinx person who has lived through iterations of authoritarian rule and who answers these conditions by creating poetry that doubles down on a life force that precedes and exceeds received notions of the poetic Here poetry is bawdy fabulist and spiritual in short it is alive Otta has created a heaven where readers can go after they die Drawing from four volumes spanning Otta s career translator poet Farid Matuk has curated a playlist we can dance and dream to one that honors Otta s drive toward liberation through both perreo in the club and transdimensional wandering among the stars Weavings Terrie Olsson,2021-06-23 God is a Weaver The tapestry of a person s life is His design The threads of experience and the colors of truth are His alone to choose He moves every individual shuttle in and out to create the lives that are mine and yours We see only the underside of His masterwork while He alone sees the beauty of its design from above The closer we stay to the Weaver the more beautiful the shades and patterns appear to us There are knots and patches in every tapestry yet in His grace He works through those rough spots and faithfully continues the process until we are with Him and can see it complete

The Show Must Go On Douglas Snauffer, 2008-08-06 A powerful behind the scenes look at some of America's all time favorite television programs during their darkest hours this study examines how various hit series have absorbed the death of a lead actor during production Although each television program eventually resumed production the lead actor's death in each case had a profound impact on the surviving cast and crew and the future of the show itself Individual chapters explore the events surrounding the deaths of Freddie Prinze Chico and the Man John Ritter 8 Simple Rules for Dating My Teenage Daughter Redd Foxx The Royal Family Nicholas Colasanto Cheers Phil Hartman NewsRadio and many others Their stories are told through first hand accounts by those who knew them best including many of the most talented actors producers writers and directors in television over the past forty years

Leading with Love and Laughter Zina Sutch, Patrick Malone, 2021-05-25 Leadership has for too long been treated as a function and not as a relationship Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone argue that successful leadership must be based on love altruism and empathy and laughter positive emotions and joy Science tells us that humans are deeply wired for empathy and compassion and that our emotional selves help us make better decisions and motivate others However the tactics we use to train leaders bear little reflection of these advancements we're still creating competent but emotionally distant leaders who manage human assets and lead by setting goals deadlines and deliverables Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone hope to flip a light switch and illuminate above all else that leadership begins with heart and soul Too many training programs reduce leadership to an equation matrix or acronym But leadership is a relationship It's one human helping another The most successful leaders show they genuinely care about their employees and are well fun It's just like any relationship In seven succinct chapters the authors show that people lead best when they tap into their genetically driven human nature to love and nurture connect and trust Leading with love and laughter offers powerful dividends tighter teams stronger performance improved morale greater trust more creativity and even better health While Sutch and Malone cite the science and offer examples tips and practices their larger purpose is to reintroduce the warmth of human interaction and emotion as the foundation of what leadership is all about
