Existential Encounters:

Young Children's Existential Encounters Zoi Simopoulou, 2019-02-28 This book is a psychoanalytic observation of five children's existential encounters in their ordinary life at the nursery. It is among the first within psychosocial literature to go beyond adult experiences and explore the existential in young children's lives as it plays out in their everydayness in symbolic and sensory articulations and in relationship with others including with the author as someone who arrived looking for it. The author offers analysis in the form of a writing inquiry into meaning by means of an ongoing movement between the self and the other, the interior and the exterior and psychoanalytic and existential phenomenological ideas. This is illustrated through a kaleidoscopic account of May, Nadia, Edward, Baba, and Eilidh's encounters with nothingness, strangeness, ontological insecurity, death, and selfhood as these emerged in the time they spent with the author embodying different forms from concrete objects to dreams exemplifying an attunement to existential ubiquity. With its relational ground, this work suggests the potential for adults including researchers, therapists, trainees, educators, and parents to attune to their own existential encounters as a path to understanding those of children.

Existential Encounters S. Sunder Das, 2003-09-01 The first part of this book contains a new system of existential psychotherapy illustrated by a few case studies. The Second Section, entitled Gallimaufry, is a selection of articles on various topics.

A Light in Dark Times Maxine Greene, William Ayers, Janet L. Miller, 1998 A Light in Dark Times: Maxine Greene and the Unfinished Conversation features a list of extraordinary contributors who have been deeply influenced by Professor Greene's progressive philosophies. While Maxine Greene is the focus for this collection, each chapter is an encounter with her ideas by an educator concerned with his or her own works and projects. In essence, each featured author takes off from Maxine Greene and then moves forward. Just as Maxine Greene herself has, this unique and fascinating collection of essays will influence a wide range of worlds: arts and aesthetics, literature and literacy studies, cultural studies, school change and improvement, the teaching of literacy, teacher education, peace and social justice, women's studies, and civil rights.

Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East. Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers' encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian-Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran. The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes, and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought. He also studies Muslim-Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non-governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals: Abdol Karim Soroush, Mostafa Malekian, and Mojtaba Shabestari. Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post-revolution Iran, Tavassoli relates concrete religious cultural and socio political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi i Islam Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world

Political Encounters Ruairidh J. Brown, 2019-05-24 This book takes the novel approach of framing Political Obligation as a situation rather than a problem By doing so Political Obligation is not considered as an issue to be solved but a central condition of existence to be investigated and understood The book launches a hermeneutic inquiry into how this relationship of obligation is constructed through encounters in which the citizen comes face to face with the existential manifestations of the State The book first discusses the dominant approaches to Political Obligation to elucidate the benefits of an existential hermeneutical approach The notion of encounter is then developed into a hermeneutic approach capable of uncovering and interpreting the arguments ideas and narratives of obligation as are communicated in political communities Finally the limitations of this approach are considered in reference to the concerns of the Post truth era

Pedagogic Encounters Aristi Trendel, 2021-02-15 This book offers a new approach to the genre of the campus novel Through a critical analysis of eleven novels Aristi Trendel argues that the specificity and complexity of the pedagogic rapport between professor and student calls for a new genre the Master Disciple novel After the 1980s the professor student relationship was highly scrutinized and politicized making the Master Disciple novel essential to critical theorists and educators Furthermore the Master Disciple novel broadens the scope of the campus novel as the master pupil rapport can develop beyond the halls of academia Though some of the novels analyzed in this book have been thoroughly discussed before Trendel reads them through the lens of the pedagogic rapport and in constant dialogue with a broad range of themes such as gender sexuality and power The book will be important for academics students and all who are interested in the bond between teacher and student

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth With additional contributions from Kimberly Carfore Lisa E Dahill Celia Deane Drummond Heather Eaton Nathan Kowalsky Abigail Lofte Jame Schaefer Cristina D Vanin Mark Wallace Grace Y Kao Chris Carter John Berkman Laura Hobgood
