

Exotic Birds Stained Glass Coloring Book

Ed Sibbett, Jr.

Dover Publications, Inc., New York

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

This collection of birds from around the world features some of the most lovely displays of plumage and most distinctive beaks in the avian kingdom. From the jungles of New Guinea some birds of paradise with flowing tail streamers and bright patches of color. The forests of Central and South America yield huge toucans with a fiery red-lined beak. The range of these birds—the stork, egret and heron—represent the impressive species that inhabit wet lands of Europe, Africa and Asia. A tropical hummingbird is shown in flight, circling a thistle and two elegant scimitar wings complete the show.

The illustrations have been printed on cream-colored paper so that you can mount them on your windows after coloring, and when a stained glass effect is desired. The pages can be colored with crayons, felt tip pens, markers, water colors, temperas or even oil paints. You will get interesting results if you use markers. Colored tissue paper can also be cut and pasted down so that you have beautiful stained glass.

You can color one side or both. The use of different colors on the two sides will produce rich combinations. It also can be used as a gift. It is suggested that you place the sheet on your window with the colored side facing outdoors. This will give you a proper back outline. Some of the birds are shown in order for the creator, but use your imagination and color the pages in any way that suits you.
