Expanding Options For Criminal Sentencing:

Expanding Sentencing Options Pierre S. Du Pont, 1985 Criminal Sentencing in Bangladesh Muhammad Mahbubur Rahman, 2017-03-20 In Criminal Sentencing in Bangladesh Muhammad Mahbubur Rahman critically examines the sentencing policies of Bangladesh and demonstrates that the country's sentencing policies are not only yet to be developed in a coherent manner and shaped with an appropriate and contextual balance but also remain part of the problem rather than part of the solution. The author forcefully argues that the conception of sentencing policies cannot and should not always be confined exclusively to institutional understandings. The typical realities of post colonial societies call for rethinking the traditional judiciary centred understanding of what is meant by criminal sentences. This book thus raises the question for theoretical sentencing scholarship whether the prevailing judiciary centred understanding of sentencing should be rethought. How Do Judges Decide? Cassia Spohn, 2002-01-28 The appropriate amount of punishment for a given crime is an issue that has been debated by scholars, philosophers and legal professionals since the beginning of civilizations. This book seeks to address this issue in all of its complexity by providing a comprehensive overview of the sentencing process in the United States. The book begins by discussing the overall concept of punishment and then proceeds to dissect individual aspects of punishment. Topics include the sentencing process, responsibility of the judge, disparity and discrimination in sentencing and sentencing reform. This book is an ideal text for introductory courses on the judicial system, criminal law, law and society. It can be an essential resource to help students understand patterns in the wide discretion and latitude given to judges when determining punishments within the framework of the United States judicial system. NIJ Reports, 1988 Performance Measures for the Criminal Justice System James Q. Wilson, 1994-12 Consist of 7 essays: criminal justice performance measures for prisons, measuring the performance of community corrections, measuring police performance, performance measures for the trial courts, prosecution and public defense and more. Critical Issues In Crime and Justice Albert R. Roberts, 2003-01-02 Critical Issues in Crime and Justice Second Edition provides a comprehensive examination of current developments and controversies confronting the American criminal justice system. An overview of contemporary criminal justice trends provides the context for interpreting the critical issues raised throughout this engaging volume. Editor Albert R. Roberts and a prominent group of scholars and criminal justice professionals examine both the successes and failures of modern law enforcement, juvenile justice, the courts and correctional systems. Developed for courses on Critical Issues in Criminal Justice, Special Issues in Criminal Justice and Contemporary Topics in Criminal Justice, Critical Issues in Crime and Justice Second Edition is also an excellent supplementary text for introductory Criminal Justice and related courses. Intergovernmental Perspective, 1986 Each issue concentrates on a different topic. Choosing Correctional Options That Work Alan T. Harland, 1995-12-14 This landmark volume responds to the persistent demands from criminal justice professionals, policy advisers and the general public for correctional options that work. The contributors define the options

seek to identify the varied concepts and hidden agendas underneath the simple phrase what works select three key areas in which to review relevant theory and empirical evidence risk needs assessment techniques intervention sanctioning options programme implementation approaches promote a dialogue amongst the key players which will prepare them for proactive decision making on when and for whom alternatives to prison particularly in the community are appropriate rather than force them into panic decisions

Performance Measures for the Criminal Justice System, 1993 A Discussion paper from the BJS Princeton Project

Principles of Criminology Edwin Hardin Sutherland, Donald R. Cressey, David F. Luckenbill, 1992 This classic has been the most authoritative text in the field since 1924 The thoroughly revised Eleventh Edition continues to provide a sound sophisticated sociological treatment of the principal issues in criminology

Federal Probation, 2001

Restorative Justice on Trial H. Messmer, H.U. Otto, 2013-06-29 Victim offender mediation schemes have experienced significant growth in the last decade They are seen as an important and innovative alternative to the traditional sanctions of the criminal justice system After a critical look at mediation schemes in the United States and Canada most European countries have also increased their efforts to develop informal strategies to deal with deviant behavior In terms of their legal and organizational base it turns out that type extent and capacities for development are quite different in the individual countries resulting in a remarkable diversity of programs with different outcomes The contributions in this book are revised and edited versions of papers presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop Conflict Crime and Reconciliation The Organization of Welfare Intervention in the Field of Restitutive Justice in April 1991 at Il Ciocco Italy The chapters document the present stage of restorative justice in the individual countries critically assess legal constraints and public needs discuss the organizational requirements of implementation and also evaluate outcomes in a broader context of crime and social policy In the long run this book should encourage further debates in the field of restorative justice and help build valid guidelines for an international evaluation research

The Southern Subculture of Drinking and Driving Julian B. Roebuck, Komanduri S. Murty, 2021-08-05 First published in 1996 The Southern Subculture of Drinking and Driving is part of the Criminal Justice series Volumes in the Current Issues in Criminal Justice series focus on scholarship original thought and research and readability This one is no different Julian B Roebuck and Komanduri S Murty have produced a volume that will be of vital interest to those who study and create policy on drunken driving one of the more enduring social problems of the past two decades The volume has two major components that make it unique in the drunken driving literature First Roebuck and Murty focus on drunken drivers themselves and through the use of a large dataset add to our knowledge of that group of people by describing their characteristics Second and perhaps more important Roebuck and Murty delve into the phenomenology of the drunken driver through a lengthy interview process
