Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders , Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood,P. Hallinger,2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development

The School Administrator Internship Handbook Ronald L. Capasso,John C. Daresh,2001 Plan conduct and evaluate effective internship experiences School administration internships are a central ingredient in any preservice program and they can be very effective if they are well organized and well designed Capasso and Daresh have created a blueprint for an effective internship program that can turn preservice administrators into transformational leaders not simply organizational survivors The School Administrator Internship Handbook is written for the intern to both understand the internship program and the roles of all of the participants in the program The book helps the intern self assess leadership ability challenge one's commitment to the field become a reflective practitioner and collaborate with the field mentor and the university faculty member to make the internship a rich and valuable experience Internship directors will find that the handbook addresses them as well providing opportunities to assess students abilities to take theory to practice develop community outreach programs and assess the effectiveness of the entire preservice program And mentors will get a clear understanding of their role in facilitating the intern's experience Other key topics include Examining current practices Establishing goals and objectives Defining internship standards Preparing project proposals Developing leadership skills Understanding the roles of the participants Evaluating and assessing the participants and the program Moving beyond the internship Finally an effective blueprint for preservice programs This practical guide is designed for everyone involved in the school administrator internship especially the men and women who will be stepping into assistant principalships principalships and other administrative roles Ronald L Capasso is currently an Associate Professor of Educational Leadership at Rowan University Glassboro New Jersey He has spent 30 years in public school education having served twelve years as a superintendent of schools in Pennsville New Jersey and five years as an Assistant Superintendent of Schools in Ramsey New Jersey He has also served as a consultant and speaker for the U S Office of Education the New Jersey State Department of Education and various government agencies and school districts John C Daresh has spent more than 20 years in higher education having served as a faculty member and administrator at the University of Texas at El Paso the University of Northern Colorado Ohio State University and the University of Cincinnati He has also worked as a consultant and speaker for school districts universities and state departments of education across the United States and in England
