Koyal Dark Mango Sweet:

Koyal Dark, Mango Sweet Kashmira Sheth, 2013-06-04 Jeeta's family is caught up in the whirlwind of arranging marriages for her two older sisters but the drama and excitement leave Jeeta cold. Even though tradition demands the parade of suitors, the marriage negotiations and the elaborate displays, sixteen-year-old Jeeta wonders what happened to the love and romance that the movies promise. She dreads her turn on the matrimonial circuit, especially since Mummy is always complaining about how Jeeta's dark skin and smart mouth will turn off potential husbands. But when Jeeta's smart mouth and liberal ideas land her in love with her friend's cousin Neel, she must strike a balance between duty to her tradition-bound parents and the strength to follow her heart. Kashmira Sheth was born in Bhavnagar, Gujarat, India, and immigrated to the United States at the age of 17. Sheth attended Iowa State University where she received her B.S. in Microbiology. She is married to a civil engineer and they have two daughters. Sheth is both a scientist and an author. Sheth has worked for the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection as a microbiologist. In 2012, she will teach at the Solstice Low Residency MFA in Creative Writing Program at Pine Manor College. In her free time, Sheth teaches Indian dance to children. Warmly descriptive of life in Mumbai (formerly Bombay), this love story has a rich sense of place. Sixteen-year-old Jeeta's mother is consumed with the problems of arranging marriages for her three daughters and is sure that Jeeta's dark skin and smart mouth will turn off prospective grooms. But the teen's new friend Sarina opens her eyes to other possibilities. Discovering the pleasures of learning, Jeeta does well in her last year at school and enters college hoping to study law. Then a handsome boy whom she meets at the swimming pool turns out to be Sarina's cousin. Because her mother forbids her to socialize with boys, she uses visits to Sarina to provide cover for their developing relationship. Readers may feel let down by the inconclusive ending, expecting at least an engagement, but the family's movement toward more modern ways is realistic. The novel reads like a memoir written by someone who wants to hold on to every detail of a remembered life. The tensions of family life in a small apartment are evident, and the conflict between old beliefs and customs and the modern world is clear. Like the matrimonial ad, her friend quotes Jeeta as a girl with strong east-west family values with all the contradictions that that statement suggests. This first-person narrative is a lush and loving exploration of coming of age. Kathleen Isaacs, Towson University, MD. Copyright Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle, 2011-05-09 Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children's literatures, Contemporary English language Indian Children's Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention. Superle critically examines the ways Indian children's writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation, Indian cultural identity, and Indian girlhood. From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories, children's novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period.

considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children s literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL
