International Symposium on East Anatolia—South Caucasus Cultures Mehmet Işıklı, Birol Can, Mehmet Işıklı, 2015-09-04
The Southern Caucasus is a region of great historical cultural and strategic importance which means that it has become an indispensable research field for most of the social sciences particularly archaeology. However, despite its rich potential research in the areas of modern day Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Nakhichevan, North western Iran and North eastern Turkey has been inadequate when compared with other important culture basins such as Mesopotamia and the Mediterranean. In October 2012 Atatürk University in Erzurum, North eastern Anatolia, Turkey, with the patronage of the Eurasian Silk Road Universities Consortium ESRUC, hosted a Symposium of academics from more than 120 science and education institutions around the world to discuss opinions and share information about cultures in this region from its earliest times to the Middle Ages within the scope of Ancient History, Archaeology, Art History and Ethno archaeology. This two volume publication is a compilation of 75 articles which were evaluated and selected by an Academic Committee from contributors who presented their academic papers at the Symposium.

Mandelstam's Worlds Andrew Kahn, 2020-07-28
Rightly appreciated as a poet, the poet Mandelstam has been habitually read as a repository of learned allusion. Yet as Seamus Heaney observed, his work is as firmly rooted in both an historical and cultural context as real as Joyce's Ulysses or Eliot's Waste Land. Great lyric poets offer a cross section of their times and Mandelstam's poems represent the worlds of politics, history, art and ideas about intimacy and creativity. The interconnections between these domains and Mandelstam's writings are the subject of this book, showing how engaged the poet was with the history, social movements, political ideology and aesthetics of his time. The importance of the book also lies in showing how literature, no less than history and philosophy, enables readers to confront the huge upheaval in outlook that can demand of us. Thinking with poetry is to think through the moral compromise and tension felt by individuals in public and private contexts and to create out of art experience in itself. The book further innovates by integrating a new comprehensive discussion of the Voronezh Notebooks, one of the supreme achievements of Russian poetry. This book considers the full political dimension of works that explore the role of the poet as a figure positioned within society but outside the state, caught between an ideal of creative independence and a devotion to the original ameliorative ideals of the revolution.

N. F. Fedorov (1828-1903) Stephen Lukashevich, 1977
N. F. Fedorov was one of the most formidable Russian thinkers of the nineteenth century. His influence on philosophical, religious and social thought was enormous. In this volume, Professor Lukashevich uses his structural method to elucidate the psychological problems that accounted for Fedorov's extraordinary ideology.
