Exemplary Centre Administrative Periphery:

Exemplary Centre, Administrative Periphery Hans Antlöv, 1995 Investigates the position of rural leaders and villages within the Indonesian nation building process It is the story of an exemplary village eventually caught up in cultural tensions characteristic not only of Indonesia but indeed of many authoritarian societies Regime Change and Ethnic Politics in Indonesia Taufiq Tanasaldy, 2012-01-01 When the Indonesian New Order regime fell in 1998 regional politics with strong ethnic content emerged across the country In West Kalimantan the predominant feature was particularly that of the Dayaks This surge however was not unprecedented After centuries of occupying a subordinate place in the political and social hierarchy under the nominal rule of the Malay sultanates Dayaks became involved in an enthusiastic political emancipation movement from 1945 The Dayaks secured the governorship as well as the majority of the regional executive head positions before they were shunned by the New Order regime This book examines the development of Dayak politics in West Kalimantan from the colonial times until the first decade of the 21st century It asks how and why Dayak politics has experienced drastic changes since 1945 It will look at the effect of regime change the role of the individual leaders and organizations the experience of marginalization and conflicts on the course of Dayaks politics It will also examine ethnic relations and recent political development up to 2010 in the province Internet and Social Change in Rural Indonesia Subekti Priyadharma, 2021-09-20 This book is based on an empirical research which explores bottom up development practices initiated and organized by rural communities in the Indonesian periphery by placing communication at its core of analysis The aim is to determine the extent that the Indonesian decentralization policy and the use of internet and other digital Information and Communication Technologies ICTs has affected the theory and practice of development communication as well as changes in relations between the center and the periphery within the context of Indonesian rural development The book takes on periphery perspective in center periphery interactions and relations Hence it belongs to periphery research that has rarely been used in recent decades By using Grounded Theory for its data collection and analysis method the results of this study are grouped into two major thematic categories communication development instead of development communication and communication empowerment Pursuing Livelihoods, Imagining Development Ahmad Kusworo, 2014-01-29 This monograph explores the ways in which people experience development and how development shapes and maintains their lives The discussion begins with Lampung Province moves to one of the province's highland regions and ends in a village in this highland region Colonial and post colonial initiatives drove the transformation of Lampung in the twentieth century bringing mixed results and effects including rapid growth in agricultural production the formation of wealthy zones in some areas and the creation of pockets of poverty in other areas In Sumber Jaya and the highlands of Way Tenong migrants have transformed one of Lampung's last frontier regions into one of its wealthy zones Although the bulk of these migrants migrated spontaneously they were integrated within the framework of planned development The level of progress that the region has achieved is largely the result of villagers efforts to bring state resources to the village In conflict with forestry authorities for decades farmers in some villages have agreed to establish a new relationship with authorities but the struggle for control over land resources continues Localising Power in Post-Authoritarian Indonesia Vedi Hadiz,2010-01-26 This book is about how the design of institutional change results in unintended consequences Many post authoritarian societies have adopted decentralization effectively localizing power as part and parcel of democratization but also in their efforts to entrench good governance Vedi Hadiz shifts the attention to the accompanying tensions and contradictions that define the terms under which the localization of power actually takes place In the process he develops a compelling analysis that ties social and institutional change to the outcomes of social conflict in local arenas of power Using the case of Indonesia and comparing it with Thailand and the Philippines Hadiz seeks to understand the seeming puzzle of how local predatory systems of power remain resilient in the face of international and domestic pressures Forcefully persuasive and characteristically passionate Hadiz challenges readers while arguing convincingly that local power and politics still matter greatly in our globalized world The Darker Nationsa Biography Of The Short-Lived Third World Vijay Prashad,2007 The Third World was not a place argues Vijay Prashad It was a project This book is a paradigm shifting history of both a utopian concept and global movement the idea of the Third World The Darker Nations traces the intellectual origins and the political history of the attempt to knit together the world s impoverished countries in opposition to the United States and Soviet spheres of influence in the decades following World War II as nation after nation across Asia Africa and South America gained political independence from colonial rule Traversing continents Vijay Prashad s fascinating narrative takes us from the birth of postcolonial nations after World War II to the downfall and corruption of nationalist regimes The Darker Nations restores to memory the vibrant though flawed idea of the Third World whose demise Prashad ultimately argues has produced a much impoverished international political arena

Religion and Regulation in Indonesia Ismatu Ropi, 2017-01-05 This book analyses the relation between state and religion in Indonesia considering both the philosophical underpinning of government intervention on religious life but also cases and regulations related to religious affairs in Indonesia Examining state regulation of religious affairs it focuses on understanding its origin history and consequences on citizens religious life in modern Indonesia arguing that while Indonesian constitutions have preserved religious freedom they have also tended to construct wide ranging discretionary powers in the government to control religious life and oversee religious freedom Over more than four decades Indonesian governments have constructed a variety of policies on religion based on constitutional legacies interpreted in the light of the norms and values of the existing religious majority group A cutting edge examination of the tension between religious order and harmony on one hand and protecting religious freedom for all on the other this book offers a cutting edge study of how the history of regulating religion has been about the constant negotiation for the boundaries of authority between the state and the religious majority group

State of Authority Gerry Van Klinken, Joshua Barker, 2018-05-31 A major realignment is taking place in the way we understand the state in Indonesia New studies on local politics ethnicity the democratic transition corruption Islam popular culture and other areas hint at novel concepts of the state though often without fully articulating them This book captures several dimensions of this shift One reason for the new thinking is a fresh wind that has altered state studies generally People are posing new kinds of questions about the state and developing new methodologies to answer them Another reason for this shift is that Indonesia itself has changed probably more than most people recognize It looks more democratic but also more chaotic and corrupt than it did during the militaristic New Order of 1966 1998 State of Authority offers a range of detailed case studies based on fieldwork in many different settings around the archipelago The studies bring to life figures of authority who have sought to carve out positions of power for themselves using legal and illegal means These figures include village heads informal slum leaders district heads parliamentarians and others These individuals negotiate in settings where the state is evident and where it is discussed coffee houses hotel lounges fishing waters and street side stalls These case studies and the broader trend in scholarship of which they are a part allow for a new theorization of the state in Indonesia that more adequately addresses the complexity of political life in this vast archipelago nation State of Authority demonstrates that the state of Indonesia is not monolithic but is constituted from the ground up by a host of local negotiations and symbolic practices

The Hong Merchants of Canton Weng Eang Cheong, 2013-10-11 This study eschews the uncritical acceptance of secondary sources that has characterized studies in this field going back to and reinterpreting previously neglected primary sources thereby enabling it to chart linkages between the European and Asian trades that have been regarded as parallel but unrelated or at best competing activities In so doing the work sheds new light on this crucial period

Trade and Society in the Straits of Melaka Nordin Hussin, 2007 This study compares Melaka and Penang in the context of overall trends policy geographical position nature and direction of trade and morphology and sociology and how these factors were influenced by trade and policies Conclusions are drawn concerning where and how Melaka and Penang fit in the urban traditions of Southeast Asia and the significance of the fact that the period under study coincided with the shift from the height of the Age of Commerce towards a period of heightened imperialist activities

Weak States, Vulnerable Governments, and Regional Cooperation Atena Ștefania Feraru, 2021-10-31 War famine poverty organized crime environmental catastrophes refugees epidemics and pandemics modern slavery all these affect people in the non Western world to an increasingly disproportionate extent It is also where wealthy governments wield economic leverage and military force to renegotiate existing norms of international relations Under these circumstances it is difficult to overestimate the importance and urgency of comprehending the mechanisms and motivations driving these phenomena This book is the outcome of a decade long effort to advance both theoretical and empirical understanding of what motivates non Western governments decisions to cooperate not cooperate regionally It starts by acknowledging the Western centrism of prevailing international relations theories abandoning deeply entrenched assumptions regarding the nature and roles of states and redefining state weakness The inquiry continues by elaborating this new concept and applying it to Southeast Asian polities while positing that it creates governments vulnerable to internal and external threats in line with Joel S Migdal s well known findings on the topic A set of regional cooperation strategies is then inferred based on the survival needs of insecure governing elites and its empirical validity is tested against the experience of regional organizations in Africa Asia and the Americas The second part of the book provides an in depth examination of how Southeast Asian governments shared security needs and interests shaped the emergence of the identified regional cooperation pattern and its evolution over 50 years of cooperation within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Overall this book is a call to international relations scholars to do our part in understanding non Western experiences and making a substantive contribution to addressing humanity s most intractable security threats Enacting the Corporation Marina Welker,2014-03-21 What are corporations and to whom are they responsible Anthropologist Marina Welker draws on two years of research at Newmont Mining Corporation s Denver headquarters and its Batu Hijau copper and gold mine in Sumbawa Indonesia to address these questions Against the backdrop of an emerging Corporate Social Responsibility movement and changing state dynamics in Indonesia she shows how people enact the mining corporation in multiple ways as an ore producer employer patron promoter of sustainable development religious sponsor auditable organization foreign imperialist and environmental threat Rather than assuming that corporations are monolithic profit maximizing subjects Welker turns to anthropological theories of personhood to develop an analytic model of the corporation as an unstable collective subject with multiple authors boundaries and interests Enacting the Corporation demonstrates that corporations are constituted through continuous struggles over relations with and responsibilities to local communities workers activists governments contractors and shareholders Indian Art Worlds in Contention Helle

Bundgaard,2013-11-05 This beautifully illustrated book explores the opinions of artists critics and others involved with arts or crafts arguing for a theory that considers the different discursive formations and related strategic practices of an art world Focusing on Orissan patta paintings in India the author examines the local regional and national discourses involved In so doing the text demonstrates that while painters local discourses are characterised by pragmatism the discourses of regional and especially national elites are concerned with the exegesis of local paintings and their association with the great Sanskrit tradition A central theme of the study focuses on the awards given for skill in craft making and their changing significance as they pass from national and regional elites to local painters It is shown how certain key actions by local painters result from a clash between local discourses on the one hand and regional and national discourses on the other Divinity and Diversity

Alexandra Kent,2005 This book looks closely at the Malaysian following of the contemporary Indian godman Sathya Sai Baba a neo Hindu guru famed for his miracle working The 911 attacks on the United States and subsequent war on terrorism have brought a discussion of transnational religious networks onto centre stage While the Sai Baba movement has no militaristic ideology it may like any other such movement ultimately call into question the sovereignty of the nation state Today then issues of fa Elite Cultures Stephen Nugent,Cris Shore,2003-12-16 Drawing on a diverse comparative ethnographic literature this new volume examines the intimate spaces and cultural practices of those elites who occupy positions of power and authority across a variety of different settings Using ethnographic case studies from a wide range of geographical areas including Mexico Peru Amazonia Indonesia Sri Lanka Europe North America and Africa the contributors explore the inner worlds of meaning and practice that define and sustain elite identities They also provide insights into the cultural mechanisms that maintain elite status and into the complex ways that elite groups relate to and are embedded within wider social and historical processes Imperial Policy and Southeast Asian Nationalism Hans Antlov, Stein Tonnesson, 2013-10-08 Traditionally the tumultuous period 1930-50 in South East Asia has been viewed as a dichotomy of European vs Asian or imperialist vs nationalist This highly acclaimed volume presents another triangular perspective and challenges established wisdom about the period
