Work Out Your Salvation D. Glenn Butner Jr., 2024-04-09 In Work Out Your Salvation D Glenn Butner Jr demonstrates that participation in markets forms our moral character perceptions actions and ideas Drawing on experimental economics and moral theology he argues that the nature of such formation varies based on the design of the market and our interactions within it How he asks does formation of the market relate to the formation of grace providence justification and sanctification Are these forces at war for our souls Through a detailed analysis of these three doctrines and the theology of common grace and concurrent divine human action Work Out Your Salvation argues that God can work through the social context of markets through human identity and through economic incentive structures to foster providentially the created basis for the supernatural gifts of justification and sanctification Careful and theologically guided participation in a market can by common grace provide the occasion for positive spiritual formation through concurrent divine action However such formation is not guaranteed Maladaptive practices ideas and identities can also be fostered by markets not oriented toward a supernatural end Butner provides detailed evidence backed by extensive experimental and empirical research as to which market practices allow Christians to work out their salvation Phil 2 12 and which practices resist such moral transformation Work Out Your Salvation undermines simplistic endorsements or rejections of capitalism in favor of more nuanced analysis and lays bare which features of markets make us better and which make us worse

In Defense of Christian Hungary Paul Hanebrink, 2018-09-05 In this important historical account of the role that religion played in defining the political life of a modern national society Paul A Hanebrink shows how Hungarian nationalists redefined Hungary a liberal society in the nineteenth century as a narrowly Christian nation in the aftermath of World War I Drawing on impressive archival research Hanebrink uncovers how political and religious leaders demanded that Christian values influence public life while insisting that religion should never be reduced to the status of a simple nationalist symbol In Defense of Christian Hungary also explores the emergence of the idea that a destructive Jewish spirit was the national enemy In combining the historical study of antisemitism with more recent considerations of religion and nationalism Hanebrink addresses an important question in Central European historiography how nations that had been inclusive of Jews before World War I became rabidly antisemitic during the interwar period As he traces the crucial and complex legacy of religion's role in shaping exclusionary antisemitic politics in Hungary Hanebrink follows the process from its origins in the 1890s to the Holocaust and beyond More broadly In Defense of Christian Hungary squarely addresses the relationship between antisemitic words and antisemitic violence and between religion and racial politics deeply contested issues in the history of twentieth century Europe The Hungarian example is a chilling demonstration of how religious nationalism can find a home even within a pluralist and tolerant civil society

The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism Bruce Gordon, Carl R. Trueman, 2021-07-28 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism offers a comprehensive assessment of John Calvin and the tradition of Calvinism as it evolved from the sixteenth century to today Featuring contributions from scholars who present the latest research on a pluriform religious movement that became a global faith The volume focuses on key aspects of Calvin's thought and its diverse reception in Europe the transatlantic world Africa South America and Asia Calvin's theology was from the beginning open to a wide range of interpretations and was never a static body of ideas and practices Over the course of his life his thought evolved and deepened while retaining unresolved tensions and questions that created a legacy that was constantly evolving in different cultural contexts Calvinism itself is an elusive term bringing together Christian communities that claim a shared heritage but often possess radically distinct characters The Handbook reveals fascinating patterns of continuity and change to demonstrate how the movement claimed the name of the Genevan reformer but was moulded by an extraordinary range of religious intellectual and historical influences from the Enlightenment and Darwinism to indigenous African beliefs and postmodernism In its global contexts Calvinism has been continuously reimagined and reinterpreted This collection throws new light on the highly dynamic and fluid nature of a deeply influential form of Christianity

God and Globalization: Volume 4 Max L. Stackhouse, 2007-11-15

This is the fourth volume in the series God and Globalization sponsored by the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton NJ. The 3 previous volumes were multi-authored. This volume is authored solely by Max Stackhouse, the general editor of the series, with a Foreword by the distinguished church historian Justo Gonzales. This final interpretive volume argues for a view of Christian theology that in critical dialogue with other world religions and philosophies is able to engage the new world situation, play a critical role in reforming the powers that are becoming more diverse and autonomous, and generate a social ethic for the 21st century.

The World's Constitution Adam K. Webb, 2025-01-02. Global governance is tightening and foreshadows that world state formation will become a live political issue in this century. Some observers treat it as inevitable amid the urgency of global issues. They foresee a technocratic scaling up of the model of state authority that has prevailed at the national level for over two hundred years. Many critics and members of the public around the world look askance at that prospect. They rightly fear a moral vacuum of authority disconnected from the world's traditions and a concentration of power that would be damaging to liberty or even dystopian in its upshot. Still, they often merely aim to stand athwart the scaling up of political institutions rather than actively trying to shape an alternative that can seize the global horizon. The World's Constitution: Spheres of Liberty in the Future Global Order offers a radically different vision of future world order that could work in a global space while shifting the balance of power from state back to society. It draws on older resources in political thought, both Western and non-Western, to upend mainstream notions of statehood and sovereignty that have been taken for granted for too long in the modern era. It offers an original, sphere-pluralist framework that can reconcile liberty, tradition, and cosmopolitanism. As a book rooted in the past but mindful of future constitutional and policy challenges, it bridges ideas and real-world implications with insights that cut across a wide range of topics, from migration and social welfare to personal law systems and channels of representation. It opens an exciting debate about global constitutional futures that is likely to become more salient over the next couple of generations. Biography across the Digitized Globe, 2025-02-27. This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders, founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen, the Netherlands. Throughout his academic career, Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research: biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection. Over this same period, however, the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially, which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre. Through its thirteen thought-provoking essays, this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well-developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources.

Reforming Apologetics J. V. Fesko, 2019-03-19. Challenging the dominant Van Tillian approach in Reformed apologetics, this book by a leading expert in contemporary Reformed theology sets forth the principles that undergird a classic Reformed approach J V Fesko's detailed exegetical theological and historical argument takes as its starting point the classical Reformed understanding of the two books of God's revelation nature and Scripture Believers should always rest on the authority of Scripture but also can and should appeal to the book of nature in the apologetic task

T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, Cory Brock, 2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields God and Humanity Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, 2024-07-11 This is the first book to apply Bavinck's theological anthropology to contemporary theological issues Sutanto provides a sustained close reading of Herman Bavinck's contributions to theological anthropology and positions him in conversation with current and historical dialogues on embodiment revelation affect theory phenomenology the cognitive science of religion ethics race covenant and the beatific vision Sutanto explores the holistic character of Bavinck's vision of humanity suggesting ways in which his theological anthropology cuts across several potential binaries in contemporary discourse between affect and reason body and soul animality and religiosity unity and diversity and between a this worldly or other worldly eschatology
