Wright, 1999-10-20 A groundbreaking culinary work of extraordinary depth and scope that spans more than one thousand years of history A Mediterranean Feast tells the sweeping story of the birth of the venerated and diverse cuisines of the Mediterranean Author Clifford A Wright weaves together historical and culinary strands from Moorish Spain to North Africa from coastal France to the Balearic Islands from Sicily and the kingdoms of Italy to Greece the Balkan coast Turkey and the Near East The evolution of these cuisines is not simply the story of farming herding and fishing rather the story encompasses wars and plagues political intrigue and pirates the Silk Road and the discovery of the New World the rise of capitalism and the birth of city states the Crusades and the Spanish Inquisition and the obsession with spices The ebb and flow of empires the movement of populations from country to city and religion have all played a determining role in making each of these cuisines unique In A Mediterranean Feast Wright also shows how the cuisines of the Mediterranean have been indelibly stamped with the uncompromising geography and climate of the area and a past marked by both unrelenting poverty and outrageous wealth The book's more than five hundred contemporary recipes which have been adapted for today's kitchen are the end point of centuries of evolution and show the full range of culinary ingenuity and indulgence from the peasant kitchen to the merchant pantry They also illustrate the migration of local culinary predilections tastes for food and methods of preparation carried from home to new lands and back by conquerors seafarers soldiers merchants and religious pilgrims A Mediterranean Feast includes fourteen original maps of the contemporary and historical Mediterranean a guide to the Mediterranean pantry food products resources a complete bibliography and a recipe and general index in addition to a pronunciation key An astonishing accomplishment of culinary and historical research and detective work in eight languages A Mediterranean Feast is required and intriguing reading for any cook armchair or otherwise Buckminster Fuller Thomas T. Performing the Gospels in Byzantium Roland Betancourt, 2021-05-13 Tracing the Gospel text from script to illustration to recitation this study looks at how illuminated manuscripts operated within ritual and architecture Focusing on a group of richly illuminated lectionaries from the late eleventh century the book articulates how the process of textual recitation produced marginalia and miniatures that reflected and subverted the manner in which the Gospel was read and simultaneously imagined by readers and listeners alike This unique approach to manuscript illumination points to images that slowly unfolded in the mind of its listeners as they imagined the text being recited as meaning carefully changed and built as the text proceeded By examining this process within specific acoustic architectural spaces and the sonic conditions of medieval chant the volume brings together the concerns of sound studies liturgical studies and art history to demonstrate how images texts and recitations played with the environment of the Middle Byzantine church Bernard of consists of mystical highlights moments of stylistic beauty and traditional exegetical discourse In contrast to previous studies this book does not limit itself to the historical and devotional side of Bernard but brings to the fore his stylistic originality Bernard emerges as a flexible thinker a great dramatist and an adroit master of language who combines the fixed pattern of monastic life with the vicissitudes of extra mural events On the one hand Bernard s writings are composed according to the rhythm of the uninterrupted ritual of prayer and singing inside the walls of the monastery On the other hand that ritual is interspersed with notions of love and death The present study describes the literary devices through which Bernard shapes the monastic existence as a subtle blend of liturgical routine and uncontrollable events and emotions Arthur C.
