La Maldicion De Midas En Una Region Del Mundo Colonial Popayan:

La maldición de Midas en una región del mundo colonial Guido Barona Becerra, 1995     A New World of Gold and Silver John J. TePaske, 2010-10-15 Colonial Latin America was famed for the precious metals plundered by the conquistadores and the gold and silver extracted from its mines. Historians and economists have attempted to determine the amount of bullion produced and its impact on the colonies themselves and the emerging early modern world economy. Using official tax and mintage records this book provides decade by decade and often annual data on the amount of gold and silver officially refined and coined in the treasury and mint districts of Spanish and Portuguese America. It also places American bullion output within the context of global production and addresses the issue of contraband production and bullion smuggling. The book is thus an invaluable source for evaluating the rise of the early modern economy.

The History of a Periphery Juliet B. Wiersema, 2024-01-09 An exploration of Colombian maps in New Granada. During the late Spanish colonial period the Pacific Lowlands also called the Greater Choc was famed for its rich placer deposits. Gold mined here was central to New Granada's economy yet this Pacific frontier in today's Colombia was considered the periphery of the periphery. Infamous for its fierce unconquered Indigenous inhabitants and its brutal tropical climate it was rarely visited by Spanish administrators, engineers or topographers and seldom appeared in detail on printed maps of the period. In this lavishly illustrated and meticulously researched volume Juliet Wiersema uncovers little known manuscript cartography and makes visible an unexamined corner of the Spanish empire. In concert with thousands of archival documents from Colombia, Spain and the United States she reveals how a periphery was imagined and projected largely for political or economic reasons. Along the way she unearths untold narratives about ephemeral settlements, African adaptation and autonomy, Indigenous strategies of resistance and tenuous colonialisms on the margins of a beleaguered viceroyalty.

El siglo XVIII americano: estudios de historia colonial Juan David Montoya Guzmán, Ana Catalina Reyes, Sebastián Gómez, 2013-01-01 El presente volumen recoge diversas investigaciones recientes sobre aspectos relevantes y novedosos para la compresión y estudio del siglo XVIII en diferentes lugares del continente americano. Nueva Inglaterra, la cuenca del mar Caribe, Nueva España, el Nuevo Reino de Granada, Quito y Brasil. El grupo de historiadores que ha hecho posible este libro se ha encargado de llamar la atención sobre la significativa importancia del siglo XVIII como una época de consolidación pero a su vez de innumerables fracasos que impulsaron la decadencia del dominio europeo en una vastísima porción del Nuevo Mundo y que dio paso a la cristalización de procesos revolucionarios e independentistas. Este volumen se ha articulado entre exploraciones geográficas, regímenes de esclavitud, revoluciones, contrabandos, espionajes y fronteras, todos temáticos enmarcados en lo que puede considerarse como un siglo XVIII de larga duración. Las contribuciones que aquí presentamos deben ser útiles no solo a los investigadores preocupados por temáticas similares sino también para aquellos lectores interesados en conocer aspectos de la historia colonial americana que sin duda se suelen relativizar y en ocasiones ignorar en las historias monológicas totales y generales del continente

Territorialidad y familia entre las sociedades negras del Sur del Valle del Río Cauca

Mario Diego Romero Vergara, 2024-03-04 Este texto aborda la historia del proceso de construcción de la territorialidad de las poblaciones negras del sur del valle interandino del Alto Cauca. Históricamente vinculadas a un proceso de resistencia constituidas como pueblos reclaman reconocimientos y reparaciones que puedan ser traducidos en los desarrollos de sus unidades locales familiares y sus economías campesinas. Dicha historia ha estado mediada por procesos culturales económicos políticos y conflictos sociales así como a sus vinculaciones a los trabajos agropecuarios y mineros del siglo XVIII y XIX y a su condición de trabajadores de las modernas plantaciones cañeras. La documentación de archivo fue clave para reconocer la historicidad del proceso de construcción como sociedad la lectura de los relatos que sugerían la oficialidad enmarcados en informes descripciones demandas quejas y balances económicos advirtiendo en ellos ciertos lenguajes simbólicos y prejuicios que denotaban correlatos subalternos opuestos a la misma oficialidad. Lo que en la documentación es presentado por los hacendados como negativo peligroso insurgente y hasta salvaje es realmente la construcción de una sociedad de los negros. Este libro muestra una parte de las diversas posibilidades que las sociedades negras han construido en las dispersiones en procura de una vida digna y frente a las condiciones adversas a las que han sido sometidas desde su esclavización.

Rivers of Gold, Lives of Bondage Sherwin K. Bryant, 2014 Rivers of Gold Lives of Bondage Governing through Slavery in Colonial Quito

La guerra de los supremos (1839-1842) Autores varios Ediciones LAVP, 2019-11-29

Desde el Congreso de Cúcuta en 1821 en el que se creó la Gran Colombia los diputados habían promulgado leyes que limitaban el poder de la Iglesia católica en el ejercicio de la educación y la vida política del país. Entre las medidas tomadas estaba el fin de la Inquisición y el cierre de los monasterios que tuvieran menos de 8 personas habitando su sede. Dicha decisión legislativa contaba con el apoyo del arzobispo de Bogotá. A pesar de esas medidas la Iglesia conservó apoyo popular y por lo tanto siguió siendo actor fundamental en la política del país. En medio del agitado ambiente político los candidatos para las elecciones presidenciales de 1837 fueron el liberal José María Obando propuesto por el general Santander y José Ignacio de Márquez también liberal pero más moderado. A pesar de que Obando era favorito Márquez logró el triunfo. Esto causó mucho descontento entre los partidarios y del propio general de Santander quien hasta los últimos días de su existencia fue intrigante, ambicioso y enemigo personal del Libertador. De esta forma los progresistas se convirtieron en el primer partido de la oposición. En ese momento a ellos se sumó la Sociedad Católica ya que consideraba que Márquez era más antirreligioso que Obando. A los pocos meses de la formación del gobierno el presidente José Ignacio de Márquez tuvo que sustituir a los santanderistas que quedaban en su equipo. En su lugar nombró a dos antiguos bolivarianos Pedro Alcántara Herrán y Tomás Cipriano de Mosquera. Pocos días después los partidarios de Santander y de Obando publicaron en su periódico unos artículos reviviendo la llama del federalismo. Los dirigentes afines de algunas provincias comenzaron a pedir una reforma

constitucional en ese sentido Cuando Márquez pretendió hacer cumplir la ley sobre los monasterios menores y dispuso su cierre De acuerdo a la ley que iba a afectar a la zona de Pasto la venta de los bienes obtenidos tras el cierre de los conventos se destinaron a las organizaciones educativas muchas de ellas religiosas La medida del cierre de los conventos encontró la frenada oposición del padre Francisco de la Villota y Barrera superior del Oratorio de San Felipe Neri quien dotado de habilidades históricas instigó a los habitantes de Pasto que enseguida se pusieron del lado del religioso La rebelión fue apoyada por José María Obando quien se declaró Supremo Director de la guerra y obtuvo el respaldo de la guerrilla del Pata dirigida por Juan Gregorio Sarria

Indigenous Peoples and Archaeology in Latin America Cristóbal Gnecco, Patricia Ayala, 2016-06-16 This book is the first to describe indigenous archaeology in Latin America for an English speaking audience Eighteen chapters primarily by Latin American scholars describe relations between indigenous peoples and archaeology in the frame of national histories and examine the emergence of the native interest in their heritage Relationships between archaeology and native communities are ambivalent sometimes an escalating battleground sometimes a promising site of intercultural encounters The global trend of indigenous empowerment today has renewed interest in history making it a tool of cultural meaning and political legitimacy This book deals with the topic with a raw forthrightness not often demonstrated in writings about archaeology and indigenous peoples Rather than being politically correct it attempts to transform rather than simply describe

Afrodescendant Resistance to Deracination in Colombia Aurora Vergara-Figueroa, 2017-10-26 This book provides a socio historical analysis of the 2002 massacre at Bellavista Bojay Choc Colombia The author examines how the concepts of forced displacement and migration could be formulas for historical erasure These concepts are used to name populations such as the survivors of this massacre and are limited in their ability to contribute to the demands for reparation of the affected populations Instead based on an ethnographic study of the pain and suffering generated in the survivors the book proposes the concept of deracination as a tool to study land dispossession It captures both the complex local specificities the global linkages of this phenomenon and the strategies of resistance used by the people of this community to channel what seems as an impossible mourning     La Compañía Barrio y Sordo Daniel Gutiérrez Ardila ,James Vladimir Torres,2022-01-11 Este libro construido a partir de un extenso epistolario sigue la pista de una compa a comercial neogranad na desde sus or genes en 1796 hasta la batalla de Boyac Creada por los peninsulares Juan Barrio y Tom s Sordo la firma se especializ desde el comienzo en el abasto de la provincia de Antioquia Luego de pagar la novatada con un cargamento de mercanc as il citas los socios comprendieron la necesidad de acercarse al poder e instalaron su oficina central en Santa Fe logrando insertarse en una de las redes pol ticas y comerciales m s importantes del virreinato ligada ntimamente al virrey Amar y Borb n Poco a poco diversificaron su portafolio y ampliaron su presencia geogr fica hasta cubrir buena parte de las provincias del Reino Adem s de su papel como mayoristas y distribuidores supieron posicionarse como una agencia cambiaria y de tr fico de influencias como un operador log stico y como un peque o banco Todo iba viento en popa cuando estall la revoluci n que los oblig a trasladar la compa a a Maracaibo y a abrirse al Atl ntico habi ndose esfumado para siempre la vieja intermediaci n peninsular     Profesionalización de la historia en Colombia Alexander Betancourt Mendieta,Renzo Ramírez Bacca,2025-04-25 Este libro presenta al lector los procesos de institucionalizaci n y profesionalizaci n de la disciplina hist rica en Colombia Est dividido en veinticinco cap tulos redactados por miembros de distintas academias profesores e investigadores de varias universidades colombianas La primera parte que comprende cinco cap tulos revela los antecedentes institucionales que hicieron posible la pr ctica de la historia como una disciplina espec fica desde el manejo de los archivos en el gobierno mon rquico hasta la fundaci n de la Academia Colombiana de Historia Destaca adem s la relevancia de las interacciones entre historia y antropolog a para el desarrollo de las ciencias sociales en el pa s La segunda parte compuesta por trece cap tulos describe las experiencias de institucionalizaci n de los departamentos de Historia en las universidades colombianas La tercera y ltima parte con siete cap tulos muestra el desenvolvimiento de estos procesos en distintas regiones de Colombia y c mo se ha escrito y difundido la historia en cada una de ellas El libro ofrece pues una amplia cartograf a de autores e instituciones que constituyen elementos claves para comprender el devenir de la disciplina hist rica en Colombia desde el siglo xIx hasta nuestros d as
