Fox In The Night:

Fox in the Night Martin Jenkins, 2017-06-27 Synopsis coming soon      Fox News and American Politics Dan Cassino, 2016-04-14 In recent years scholars have argued that the ability of people to choose which channel they want to watch means that television news is just preaching to the choir and doesn't change any minds. However, this book shows that the media still has an enormous direct impact on American society and politics. While past research has emphasized the indirect effects of media content on attitudes through priming or framing, for instance, Dan Cassino argues that past data on both the public opinion and the media side wasn't detailed enough to uncover it. Using a combination of original national surveys, large scale content analysis of news coverage along with data sets as disparate as FBI gun background checks and campaign contribution records, Cassino discusses why it's important to treat different media sources separately, estimating levels of ideological bias for television media sources as well as the differences in the topics that the various media sources cover. Taking this into account proves that exposure to some media sources can serve to actually make Americans less knowledgeable about current affairs and more likely to buy into conspiracy theories. Even in an era of declining viewership, the media, especially Fox News, are shaping our society and our politics. This book documents how this is happening and shows the consequences for Americans. The quality of journalism is more than an academic question when coverage focuses on questionable topics or political bias; there are consequences.

Dearborn Independent, 1925      Fox in the Night Martin Jenkins, Richard Smythe, 2018-08 This beautiful picture book is the perfect introduction to light and dark Fox. She is hungry. She waits until it's dark and then she hunts for food using the moon and the streetlights to find her way. Part of the Science Storybook series from Walker Books, illustrated by up and coming talent Richard Smythe and written by Martin Jenkins, the award-winning author of Can We Save the Tiger and Ape.
