At the Breast Linda Blum, 2000-06-09 In our ironic postfeminist age few experiences inspire the kind of passions that breastfeeding does For advocates breastfeeding is both the only way to supply babies with proper nutrition and the bond that cements the mother child relationship Mother's milk remains natural in a world of genetically modified produce and corporate health care But is it a realistic option for all women And can a well intentioned insistence on the necessity of breastfeeding become just another way to cast some women as bad mothers Linda M Blum is author of Between Feminism and Labor The Significance of the Comparable Worth Movement She teaches sociology and women's studies at the University of New Hampshire and wrote this book while a Bunting Fellow at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study
