Framing Our Past:

Framing Our Past Sharon Anne Cook, Lorna R. McLean, Kate O'Rourke, 2001 Reflecting a rethinking of the making of modern Canada this well illustrated anthology of 85 essays reaches beyond ivory tower images and taken for granted assumptions of women's roles This sampling by primarily women contributors drawn from personal and organizational records emphasizes the experiences of diverse women engaged in all spheres of private and public life from a vignette of Native community life to profiles of innovators in many fields Includes a cross referenced essay index 10 x 9 5 format Cook is a professor of education at the U of Ottawa c Book News Inc

Forming Nation, Framing Welfare Gail Lewis, 2006-02-06 This book introduces a historical perspective on the emergence and development of social welfare Starting from the familiar ground of the family it traces some of the crucial historical roots and desires that fed the development of social policy in the 19th and 20th centuries around education the family unemployment and nationhood By aiming to discover the link between past and present it shows that social problems are socially constructed in specific contexts and that there are diverse and competing ways of telling history

Women, Gender, and History Education Marie-Hélène Brunet, Kristina R. Llewellyn, Rose Fine-Meyer, 2024-11-07 This is the first edited collection to focus on women gender and history education in Canada The aim of this edited collection is threefold to offer a historical analysis of women and gender in K 12 teaching and learning of history to provide an examination of women and gender in relation to contemporary pedagogy curriculum and resources in K 12 history education and teacher education and to explore the future of history education when informed by intersectional feminism and gender theory Readers are introduced to the ways in which women's historical narratives have been repeatedly marginalized despite the efforts of feminist activists and educators This collection is the beginning of a long overdue conversation about women and gender in how we teach and learn about the past

Framing and Imagining Disease in Cultural History G. Rousseau, M. Gill, D. Haycock, M. Herwig, 2003-07-03 Throughout human history illness has been socially interpreted before its range of meanings could be understood and disseminated Writers of diverse types have been as active in constructing these meanings as doctors yet it is only recently that literary traditions have been recognized as a rich archive for these interpretations These essays focus on the methodological hurdles encountered in retrieving these interpretations called framing by the authors Framing and Imagining Disease in Cultural History aims to explain what has been said about these interpretations and to compare their value

Leadership Communication as Citizenship John O. Burtis, Paul D. Turman, 2010 Leadership Communication articulates the important roles communication plays in helping to co construct group organizational or community direction Leadership Communication focuses on the communication skills necessary to help co construct an effective direction in one's systems while playing the varied roles of doer follower guide manager and or leader Leadership Communication is organized around three major units 1 the integrally linked role played by communication and direction

givers in constructing our past current and future experiences 2 the communication skills required for different types of direction givers and 3 the nature of dramatic action which represents human engagement in systems that may manifest as ethical action and future experiences This book has a number of unique features including a coherent and unified set of frameworks with which to synthesize and employ a wide range of leadership research results and theory as well as other practical materials from contemporary leadership studies a focus on explaining the common communicative elements and skills e g soliciting and saving narratives for use as teaching tales strategic stories and memorable messages framing and critical incidents dialog discussion and debate involved across seemingly quite different leadership contexts e g working in groups in small organizations in large and complex organizations in social movements in communities and in the broad cultural sweep of civic life a discussion of the different processes for attaining a direction giving role or position given the different needs faced by the system an explanation of the art of following doing and guiding well the small leadership so often overlooked or undervalued in leader centric explanations for effective systems an explanation of three different orientations for communicating the vision selling a vision working with those who are seeking a vision and acting with those for whom a vision is an evoked co construction and a discussion of how crisis as a point of decision or of opportunity can be useful as a source of the energy and rhetorical resources necessary for rare and difficult forms of dramatic action leadership Now and Then Peter Gyulay,2020-08-14 We all live on the banks of the river of time Some don t believe that time exists and physicists still aren t sure what it is Regardless of this no one can escape the flux of life All too often we hide from time with our heads stuck in the past or the future Mindfulness teaches us to be present each moment to face what is instead of what was or will be But is mindfulness enough Should we only place our attention on the present moment Now and Then presents an integrated approach to time that is grounded in the present but also focused on the past and future It shows us that to truly live is to embrace time in all its aspects It is a valuable tool for anyone who wants to practice being in the moment and enjoy a rich and dynamic life Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History Patrizia Gentile,Jane Nicholas,2013-12-06 From fur coats to nude paintings and from sports to beauty contests the body has been central to the literal and figurative fashioning of ourselves as individuals and as a nation In this first collection on the history of the body in Canada an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores the multiple ways the body has served as a site of contestation in Canadian history in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Showcasing a variety of methodological approaches Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History includes essays on many themes that engage with the larger historical relationship between the body and nation medicine and health fashion and consumer culture citizenship and work and more The contributors reflect on the intersections of bodies with the concept of nationhood as well as how understandings of the body are historically contingent The volume is capped off with a critical introductory chapter by the editors on the history of bodies and the development of the body as a category of analysis Taiwan During the First Administration of Tsai

Ing-wen Gunter Schubert, Chun-yi Lee, 2021-10-21 This book offers a substantive assessment of the first Tsai Ing wen administration investigating different policy fields and issues from 2016 to 2020 prior to Tsai s election for a second term Providing a balanced account of government performance under Tsai s Ing wen s reign chapters in this edited volume combine theory and extensive empirical data to highlight both achievements and shortfalls of her administration Chapters range comprehensively from topics of the implementation of same sex marriage curriculum reform transitional justice industrial policy and pension reform which have been celebrated by domestic Tsai Ing wen supporters but have also met with considerable opposition from within Taiwanese society Externally cross strait relations the New Southbound Policy and the triangular relationship with China and the USA which embodied major challenges for Tsai s first administration are also analysed as key reference points throughout Featuring contributions from twenty six internationally renowned Taiwan scholars Taiwan During the First Administration of Tsai Ing wen is an essential resource for students and scholars of Taiwanese politics and society cross strait relations and international relations Blowing up the Skirt of History Kym Bird, 2024-07-12 From history and politics to fantasy and farce the first flourish of women s theatre in Canada questioned the discourses that formed and informed ideas of gender sex and sexuality This book revives ten theatrical comedies that staged the promise of social change The Factory Voice Jeanette Lynes, 2009 Wrapped around the stories of these four women is a mystery Something s gone wrong with the Mosquitos being built for the war effort they keep crashing in flight tests for no apparent reason Is the problem with their design or are they being sabotaged By whom The traitorous Red Finns The political subversives who have recently escaped from one of the nearby prison camps Everyone s on high alert and The Factory Voice keeps abreast of the details Or at least the rumours Subjects Or Citizens? Adolf Ens, 1994 During the 1870s 7 000 Mennonites descendants of Dutch and German Anabaptists arrived in Canada to settle in the newly created province of Manitoba While in Europe they had steadily moved eastward under pressure of persecution and governmental restrictions until they settled in foreign colonies in New Russia Ukraine in 1789 Generations of living as non citizen settlers under special arrangements with the ruler had reinforced their separatist understanding of what it meant to live in nonconformity with the world Adolf Ens s volume traces the tensions of Mennonites becoming full citizens in the participatory democracy of Canada through the crucial steps of immigration settlement and naturalization implementing local municipal government and becoming part of the public school system This process was greatly complicated by the outbreak of the First World War and the intolerance it produced toward those who were pacifist German and different Almost 8 000 of the descendants of this immigrant group left for Latin America in the aftermath of the war becoming subjects once again The rest gradually accommodated themselves to being full Canadian citizens BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada , 2019-01-21 Canada s history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while providing prospects for the future Contributors are Victor Armony David Este Augie Fleras Peter R Grant Shibao Guo Abdolmohammad Kazemipour Anne Marie Livingstone Adina Madularea Ayesha Mian Akram Nilum Panesar Yolande Pottie Sherman Paul Pritchard Howard Ramos Daniel W Robertson Vic Satzewich Morton Weinfeld Rima Wilkes Lori Wilkinson Elke Winter Nelson Wiseman Lloyd Wong and Henry Yu

Be Delusional Anna Rose Egges, 2023-01-04 Be Delusional is for everyone looking to make a massive change in their life It is a book of inspiration that illustrates the power of positive thinking how words and thoughts become actions and the secrets to rewriting our negative subconscious programming Be Delusional talks about the importance of telling the truth and never giving up on your dreams no matter how lofty they may seem It gives examples of people that have made their dreams come true against all odds Be Delusional speaks on small things that we can do everyday that will change our mentality and lead us to attract the good in which we desire This book is a must read for everyone and anyone especially if you are in need of a little motivation

Beyond Bylines Barbara M. Freeman, 2011-12-14 Beyond Bylines Media Workers and Women's Rights in Canada explores the ways in which several of Canada's women journalists broadcasters and other media workers reached well beyond the glory of their personal bylines to advocate for the most controversial women's rights of their eras To do so some of them adopted conventional feminine identities while others refused to conform altogether openly and defiantly challenging the gender expectations of their day The book consists of a series of case studies of the women in question as they grappled with the concerns close to their hearts higher education for women healthy dress reforms the vote equal opportunities at work abortion lesbianism and Aboriginal women's rights Their media reflected their respective eras intellectual magazines daily and weekly newspapers radio feminist public relations alternative women's periodicals and documentary film made for television Barbara Freeman takes an interdisciplinary approach combining biography history and communication studies to demonstrate how their use of different media both enabled and limited these women in their ability to be daring advocates for gender equality She shows how a number of these women were linked through the generations by their memberships in activist women's organizations

New Dimensions of Diversity in Nordic Culture and Society Jenny Björklund, Ursula Lindqvist, 2016-04-26 In the new millennium categories of identity have become particularly destabilized with the emergence of a new generation of people in the Nordic region who demand more dynamic and fluid identities New Dimensions of

Diversity in Nordic Culture and Society reinvestigates the tired concept of diversity to make room for dynamic new realities as well as the ample new questions to which they give rise This volume assumes diversity to be a fundamental feature of Nordic modernity Given that the Nordic countries consistently rank among the world's wealthiest most educated and most egalitarian these case studies provide important counter narratives to prevailing local and global discourses of Nordic-ness The contributors not only interrogate historical categories of diversity in a Nordic context including gender sex class ethnicity and race they also show how these categories intersect They examine new forms of and platforms for diverse ideas and creative expression including fluid masculinities digital cultures new media and fashion They question the terms on which the Nordic region's indigenous peoples the Sámi and the Greenlandic Inuit as well as stateless people such as the Kurds are brought into Nordic discussions of diversity citizenship and agency and analyze the implications of particular neo-nationalist and patriarchal discourses that have emerged since the turn of the century The book draws from a variety of disciplinary perspectives and interdisciplinary fields and will spark productive and critical conversations among all with an interest in the national and regional cultures subcultures and social dynamics that inform modern life in the Nordic region

The Unitarian Review Joseph Henry Allen, 1888 The Unitarian Review, 1888 Memory Mosaics: Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory-work Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, Daisy Pillay, Claudia Mitchell, 2018-10-24 This book communicates new voices insights and possibilities for working with the arts and memory in researching teacher professional learning The book reveals how through the arts teacher researchers can reimagine and reinvigorate moments of the past as embodied and empowering scholarly experiences The peer reviewed chapters were composed from juxtaposing unique mosaic pieces written by 21 new and emerging scholars in South Africa and Canada Their research explores diverse arts based practices and resources including collage film drawing narrative poetry photography storytelling and television alongside related ethical issues Critically Memory Mosaics also demonstrates how artful memory work can engender agency in professional learning with teacher researchers taking up pressing issues of social justice such as inclusion and decolonisation Overall the book offers a multidimensional polyvocal exploration of how artful memory work can bring about future oriented professional learning enacted as pedagogies of reinvention and productive remembering Memory Mosaics Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory Work by Kathleen Pithouse Morgan Daisy Pillay and Claudia Mitchell along with teacher researchers on two continents is a ground breaking book It models a collaborative approach to arts based research that melds memory work visual and poetic arts and reflective practice to promote professional learning personal transformation decolonisation and a more just future Like colourful pebbles and bits of glass the authors place teachers' self stories in relation to one another in an artful design creating thematic coherence that evokes a deep sense of knowing Judith C Lapadat Professor Emeritus Faculty of Education University of Lethbridge Canada Memory Mosaics Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory Work assembles exemplars of professional learning in an intriguing mosaic format A topic is introduced followed by memory pieces then discussion and or creative response This lively juxtaposition generates momentum for highly productive forms of remembering around social justice issues even as the reader is invited into an intimate circle of shared concern for these issues with these and other teacher researchers It is a beautiful original and practical book Teresa Strong Wilson Associate Professor Faculty of Education McGill University Canada The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Philip Alexander Bruce, William Glover Stanard, 1914

Framing Our Past Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Framing Our Past books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Framing Our Past books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Framing Our Past books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Framing Our Past versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Framing Our Past books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Framing Our Past books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Framing Our Past books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Framing Our Past books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Framing Our Past books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?

FAQs About Framing Our Past Books
