Radical Islam's Rules Paul Marshall, 2005-02-25 A major feature of the rise of Islamism in the Middle East Asia Africa and parts of the West is the rapid growth of a starkly repressive version of Islamic shari a law often fueled by funds and support from Saudi Arabia The central purpose of Islamists including terrorists is to impose such law in all Muslim lands and then throughout the world in a new Caliphate Despite its importance this worldwide growth of extreme shari a is under documented and little understood By a comparative study over the last twenty five years of Saudi Arabia Iran Pakistan Sudan Nigeria Malaysia and Indonesia this book shows its terrible effects on human rights especially the status of women and religious freedom of Muslims as well as religious minorities and on democracy itself It also shows that such laws are a direct threat to the American interest of advancing democracy and human rights that the United States lacks a policy for dealing with the spread of extreme shari a and concludes with policy recommendations for the United States regarding specific countries confronting extreme shari a
