In The Path Of Tito:

In the Path of Tito ... Vilko Vinterhalter,1972 Tito Geoffrey Swain,2010-11-30 Josip Broz Tito was a remarkable figure in the history of Communism the Second World War the Balkans and post war Eastern Europe He was the only European besides Lenin to lead a successful Communist revolution and became one of the most renowned Communist leaders of all time For a certain generation he was remembered as someone who stood up to both Hitler and Stalin and won Tito was above all else a communist and was devoted to the communist cause until the day he died What made him different from other communist leaders was that his early experience of Soviet Russia had given him sufficient knowledge of the Soviet experiment to be wary of its spell In this the first post communist biography of Tito the acclaimed historian Geoffrey Swain paints a new picture of this famous figure focusing primarily on his Communist years It will be essential reading for anyone interested in Communist and Eastern European history Partisans in Yugoslavia Miranda Jakisa,Nikica Gilic,2015-03-15 The ubiquitous Partisan narrative in Yugoslavia served well as founding myth of its newly united people Its retrospective deconstruction has absorbed most of the academic attention for the Yugoslav Partisans since the break up This edition in contrast looks into the hybrid nature of partisanship itself as it appears in film art and literature It explores the Partisans in Yugoslavia in Partisan novels films and songs analyzes the still ongoing transformation process of the Partisan narrative and reviews its transitions into popular visual culture Macedonia Thammy Evans,2007 Macedonia is a treasure trove of outdoor adventures folk festivals and picturesque scenery Still the only English travel guide to the country this second edition has been completely updated to keep up with the advances in this former Yugoslavian territory that has enjoyed independence for over a decade Constructing Yugoslavia Vesna Drapac,2010-01-27 Vesna Drapac provides an insightful survey of the changing nature of the Yugoslav ideal demonstrating why Yugoslavism was championed at different times and by whom and how it was constructed in the minds of outside observers Covering the period from the 1850s to the death of Tito in 1980 Drapac situates Yugoslavia in the broader international context and examines its history within the more familiar story of Europe in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This approachable study also explores key themes and debates including The place of the nation state within the worldview of nineteenth century intellectuals The memory of war and commemorative practices in the interwar years Resistance and collaboration The nature of dictatorships Gender and citizenship Yugoslavia s role from the perspective of the Superpowers Drawing on a wide range of sources in order to recreate the atmosphere of the period Constructing Yugoslavia traces the formation of popular perceptions of Yugoslavia and their impact on policy toward Yugoslavs It is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the history of this fascinating nation and its ultimate demise Translations from Hung-ch'i (Red Flag) United States. Joint Publications Research Service,1964 A Muslim Woman in Tito's Yugoslavia Munevera Hadžišehović,2003 Born in a small river town in the largely Muslim province of Sandzak Munevera Hadzisehovic grew up in an area sandwiched between the Orthodox Christian regions of Montenegro and Serbia cut off from other Muslims in Bosnia and Herzegovina Her story takes her reader from the urban culture of the early 1930s through the massacres World War II and the repression of the early Communist regime to the dissolution of Yugoslavia in the early 1990s It sheds light on the history of Yugoslavia from the interwar Kingdom to the breakup of the socialist state In poignant and vivid detail Hadzisehovic paints a picture not only of her own life but of the lives of other Muslims especially women in an era and an area of great change Readers are given a loving yet accurate portrait of Muslim customs pertaining to the household gardens food and dating in short of everyday life Hadzisehovic writes from the inside out starting with her emotions and experiences then moving outward to the facts that concern those interested in this region the role of the Ustashe Chetnicks and Germans in World War II the attitude of Serb dominated Yugoslavia toward Muslims and the tragic state of ethnic relations that led to war again in the 1990s Some of Hadzisehovic s experiences and many of her views may be controversial She speaks of Muslim women s reluctance to give up the veil the disadvantages of mixed marriages and the problems caused by Serb and Croat nationalists Her benign view of Italian occupation is in stark contrast to her depiction of bloodthirsty Chetnik irregulars Her analysis of Belgrade s Muslims suggests that class differences were just as important as religious affiliation In this personal yet universal story Hadzisehovic mourns the loss of two worlds the orderly Muslim world of her childhood and the secular multi ethnic world of communist Yugoslavia

The Transition to Socialism in China (Routledge Revivals) Mark Selden,Victor Lippit,2016-07-01 First published in 1982 The dramatic changes in policy and theory following the death of Chairman Mao in 1976 and the publication of the most extensive official and unofficial data on the Chinese economy and society in twenty years both necessitated and made possible a thorough reconsideration of the full range of issues pertaining to the political and economic trajectory of the People s Republic in its first three decades The contributors to this volume initiated a comprehensive effort to address fundamental problems of China s socialist development and to reassess earlier perspectives and conclusions

Problems of Communism ,1954 Yugoslavia, Nonalignment and Cold War Globalism Zvonimir Stopić,Robert Niebuhr,David Pickus,2024-10-28 This book explores the emergence of Yugoslav globalism and how it was influenced by the early Cold War the changes once Yugoslavia established itself as a nonaligned leader and what the decline of Yugoslav globalism reveals about the waning Cold War and the history of internationalist diplomacy Although Yugoslavia was correctly defined as a regional power it is not true that Tito s influence was confined to the Balkans alone Even before the 1948 split with Stalin political elites and intellectuals imagined socialist Yugoslavia as a model for international comity and development Subsequently due to dramatic changes in the climate of international diplomacy Yugoslav globalist outreach found an audience and altered the course of early and fateful superpower stand offs In turn such globalism was a significant part of Tito s stewardship of nonalignment This is a story that has never been fully told Yugoslavia Nonalignment and Cold War Globalism fills this gap in discussions of the emergence of globalist discourse in the post 1989 era This volume is aimed at scholars and students of the Cold War and Tito's era in Yugoslavia as well as general readers of history interested in leadership and the role of regional powers in world politics Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency, 1962 Tito and His Comrades Jože Pirjevec, 2018-05-22 This landmark biography now in English for the first time reveals the life of one of the most powerful figures of the Cold War era Josip Broz nicknamed Tito led Yugoslavia for nearly four decades with charisma cunning and an iron fist An illuminating definitive portrait of a complex man in turbulent times a life as riveting as any John Le Carr plot Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1956 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Tito William Henry Carson, 1903 The Search for a Cold War Legitimacy: Foreign Policy and Tito's Yugoslavia Robert Edward Niebuhr, 2018-01-03 Titoist Yugoslavia is a particularly interesting setting to examine the integrity of the modern nation state especially the viability of distinctly multi ethnic nation building projects Scholarly literature on the brutal civil wars that destroyed Yugoslavia during the 1990s emphasizes divisive nationalism and dysfunctional politics to explain why the state disintegrated But the larger question remains unanswered just how did Tito's state function so successfully for the preceding forty six years In an attempt to understand better what united the stable multi ethnic and globally important Yugoslavia that existed before 1991 Robert Niebuhr argues that we should pay special attention to the dynamic and robust foreign policy that helped shape the Cold War Fairy Tales for Children A great collection of fantastic fairy tales. (Vol. 5) Wonderful Stories, 2023-07-25 Once upon a time There were mischievous gnomes sweet fairies and talking animals who lived happily in the forest There were also children princes and princesses magical flowers and witches on flying brooms There were in fact enchanted and amusing stories all gathered in an incredible collection of fairy tales Add this book to your cart and get ready to fly on the wings of imagination get ready to dream

Titoism, Self-Determination, Nationalism, Cultural Memory Gorana Ognjenović, Jasna Jozelic, 2016-06-28 This volume provides a more detailed picture which might surprise those who thought they knew everything about Yugoslavia as well as we are hoping to inspire others to read more about this historically social experiment that against all odds actually did exist and prospered for a while in the midst of the spiders web of the global political chaos which lasts still today Contributors cover a range of topics including absolute modernity film and the preservation and creation of memory through clothing among others From Author to Text Caroline Levine, Mark W Turner, 2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume proposes to shift the critical emphasis from a canonical author to her uncanonical text from George Eliot to her novel Romola and contends that this choice both broadens the range of interpretive possibilities and brings them into sharper focus The editors invited a variety of critics to put their different critical models to work on Romola and the results are fertile and suggestive among the issues explored here are the domestic politics of marriage the relationship between narrative and epistemology the materiality of the text the novel's relation to nineteenth century narratives of martyrdom and the gendering of space Such theoretical eclecticism when focused on a common reference point necessarily opens out into a dialogue among critical and interpretive models Theory throws light onto Romola just as Romola throws light onto theory Yugoslav Drama, Second Edition Mihailo Crnobrnja, 1996-04-29 Crnobrnja discusses in detail the part of the drama most visible to the world the rapid dissolution of the country following civil war and internationalization He emphasizes the dichotomy between the lack of compromise on the part of the Yugoslav participants and the natural tendency to compromise that characterizes both the European Communities and the processes and actions of the United Nations In a synthesis of the immediate situation he draws together the threads of the story to consider and analyse possible future scenarios and to place them in a broader Balkan and European context The updated second edition provides an evaluation of events in the ongoing struggle over the last two years and the prospects for peace in the near future Space Tourism United States.
