Gabriel Meléndez, 2017-04-20 In the shadow of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains New Mexico s Mora Valley harbors the ghosts of history troubadours and soldiers Plains Indians and settlers families fleeing and finding home There more than a century ago villagers collect scraps of paper documenting the valley s history and their identity military records travelers diaries newspaper articles poetry and more and bind them into a leather portfolio known as The Book of Archives When a bomb blast during the Mexican American War scatters the book s contents to the wind the memory of the accounts lives on instead in the minds of Mora residents Poets and storytellers pass down the valley s traditions into the twentieth century from one generation to the next In this pathbreaking dual language volume author A Gabriel Mel ndez joins their ranks continuing the retelling of Mora Valley s tales for our time A native of Mora with el don de la palabra the divine gift of words Mel ndez mines historical sources and his own imagination to reconstruct the valley s story first in English and then in Spanish He strings together humorous tragic and quotidian vignettes about historical events and unlikely occurrences creating a vivid portrait of Mora both in cultural memory and present reality Local gossip and family legend intertwine with Spanish language ballads and the poetry of New Mexico s most famous dueling troubadours Old Man Vilmas and the poet Garc a Drawing on New Mexican storytelling tradition Mel ndez weaves a colorful dual language representation of a place whose irresistible characters and unforgettable events and the inescapable truths they embody still resonate today

Untranslating Machines Jacques Lezra, 2017-11-15 On what basis can we establish an alternative to the unifying of cultures brought about by economic globalization When ideas like objects and words can be translated and marketed everywhere what forms of critique are available Straddling the fields of political philosophy comparative literature animal studies global studies and political economy Untranslating Machines proposes to this end a weakened defective concept of untranslatability The analytic frame of Jacques Lezra s argument is rooted in Marx Derrida and Wittgenstein He moves historically from the moment when translation becomes firmly wed to mercantilism and to the consolidation of proto national state forms in European early modernity to the current moment in which the flow of information commodities and value creation protocols among international markets produces the regulative fantasy of a global coherent market of markets In a world in which translation and translatability have become a means and a model for the consolidation of a global cultural system this book proposes an understanding of untranslatability that serves to limit the articulation between a globalized capitalist value system and the figure and techniques of translation The Writings of Eusebio Chacón Eusebio Chacón,2012-03-15 Eusebio Chacón born in Peasco New Mexico is arguably one of the most significant and most overlooked figures in New Mexico's cultural heritage He earned a law degree from Notre Dame and returned to practice law in Trinidad Colorado He served as a district attorney for Las Animas County Colorado and as a translator for the U S Court of Private Land Claims In 1898 he began to write and edit for El Progreso in which many of his articles exposed the unjust treatment of Hispanics in Colorado and New Mexico He was also New Mexico's first novelist and took pride in his pioneering efforts to establish a Nuevomexicano literary tradition This collection of Chacón's writings brings together all published and written materials found displaying his versatility with samples of his work as an accomplished orator translator essayist historian novelist and poet Federal Register ,1998-04-17

F. Cummins, Tom Cummins, 2002 Andean visual objects inform studies of a colonial empire People of the Iberian Borderlands David Martín Marcos, 2022-09-02 This book is devoted to the inhabitants of the Spanish Portuguese borderlands during the early modern period It seeks to challenge a predominant historiography focused on the study of borderlands societies relying exclusively on the antagonistic topics of subversion and the construction of boundaries It states that by focusing just on one concept or another there is a restrictive understanding tending to condition the agency of local communities by external narratives Thus if traditionally border people were reduced by some scholars to actors of a struggle against a supposedly imposed border in a more modern perspective their behaviors have been also framed in bottom up processes of consolidation of spaces of sovereignty in a no less limiting vision Faced with both approaches the objective of this work is not to deny them but first and foremost to situate the experiences of border populations outside of logics that I understand as originally alien to themselves and to highlight their own subjectivity Finally it also demonstrates that most of the practices developed by border people were fundamentally aimed at defending their local communities It will be useful for both audiences interested in early modern Iberia or border studies from a bottom up perspective A fuego lento Emilio Bobadilla, 2019-03-01 La obra maestra del escritor cubano Emilio Bobadilla como narrador es A fuego lento La primera parte de la novela transcurre en Ganga inspirada en la ciudad colombiana de Barranquilla donde Bobadilla vivió algunos meses en 1898 El cuadro que traza A fuego lento es esperpéntico Por entonces Barranquilla era un puerto principal de Colombia y era llamada La Nueva York de Colombia La Nueva Barcelona o La Nueva Alejandría Tenía varios cines y las compañías de óperas italianas y de teatro españolas se presentaban allí A ese lugar llega el doctor Eustaquio Baranda un exiliado dominicano que ha estudiado medicina en París El personaje atrae a las poderosas locales los mismos que después lo aborrecen desechados porque ha conquistado los favores de Alicia deseada por uno de los prohombres lugareños Baranda se va a París con Alicia Y allí se consume su vida en el apetito social de Alicia exaltado por sus ambiciones y la influencia provinciana de los antiguos conocidos de Ganga Muere a pesar de la presencia balsámica de una francesa fina culta delicada y distinguida a la que el doctor Baranda renuncia por no tener el valor de separarse de Alicia Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Department of Information & Collections, 2005-12-21 The Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries aims at recording articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description Only the Road / Solo el Camino Margaret Randall, 2016-09-22 Featuring the work of more than fifty poets writing across the last eight decades Only the Road Solo el Camino is the most complete bilingual anthology of Cuban poetry available to an English readership It is distinguished by its stylistic breadth and the diversity of its contributors who come from throughout Cuba and its diaspora and include luminaries lesser known voices and several Afro Cuban and LGBTQ poets Nearly half of the poets in the collection are women Only the Road paints a full and dynamic picture of modern Cuban life and poetry highlighting their unique features and idiosyncrasies the changes across generations and the ebbs and flows between repression and freedom following the Revolution Poet Margaret Randall who translated each poem contributes extensive biographical notes for each poet and a historical introduction to twentieth century Cuban poetry

'Black but Human' Carmen Fracchia, 2019-10-16 Black but Human is the first study to focus on the visual representations of African slaves and ex slaves in Spain during the Hapsburg dynasty The Afro Hispanic proverb Black but Human is the main thread of the six chapters and serves as a lens through which to explore the ways in which a certain visual representation of slavery both embodies and reproduces hegemonic visions of enslaved and liberated Africans and at the same time provides material for critical and emancipatory practices by Afro Hispanics themselves The African presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the late fifteenth century and the end of the seventeenth century was as a result of the institutionalization of the local and transatlantic slave trades In addition to the Moors Berbers and Turks born as slaves there were approximately two million enslaved people in the kingdoms of Castile Aragon and Portugal The Black but Human topos that emerges from the African work songs and poems written by Afro Hispanics encodes the multi layered processes through which a black emancipatory subject emerges and a black nation forges a collective resistance It is visually articulated by Afro Hispanic and Spanish artists in religious paintings and in the genres of self portraiture and portraiture This extraordinary imagery coexists with the stereotypical representations of African slaves and ex slaves by Spanish sculptors engravers jewellers and painters mainly in the religious visual form and by European draftsmen and miniaturists in their landscape drawings and sketches for costume books
