Patent and Trademark Office,2001 The Pèlerinage Allegories of Guillaume de Deguileville Marco Nievergelt,Stephanie A. V. G. Kamath,2013 New essays on the unjustly neglected P lerinage works by de Guileville showing in particular its huge contemporary influence The fourteenth century French pilgrimage allegories of Guillaume de Deguileville or Digulleville shaped late medieval and early modern European culture Portions of the P lerinage de Vie Humaine P lerinage de l Ame and P lerinage de Jhesucrist survive in more than eighty medieval manuscripts and translations into English German Dutch Castilian and Latin appeared by the early sixteenth century along with adaptations into French prose and dramatic forms and numerous early printed editions This volume furnishes a better understanding of the allegories circulation creation and importance from the 1330s into the 1560s via trans national multilingual and interdisciplinary perspectives The collection s first section on Tradition identifies the patterns that developed as Deguileville's corpus captured the attentions of adaptors, annotators and illustrators. The second section on Authority addresses the cultural context of Deguileville himself, his approach to poetic craft and the status of his French and Latin poetry. The third section on Influence closely examines selected connections between the Plerinages and the literary productions of later authors, translators and reading communities, including the French verse of Philippe de Mézières, Castilian print adaptation and the early modern Croatian novel. Overall, the collection provides a variety of approaches to examining literary reception, attending not only to texts but also to evidence of surviving manuscripts and early printed editions; it offers new insights into a rich and complex allegorical corpus and its impact on European literary history. Marco Nievergelt is a Maître Assistant in Early English Literature in the English department of the University of Lausanne. Stephanie A. Viereck Gibbs Kamath studies English and French medieval literature with a particular interest in allegory, translation studies and the history of the material text. Torres, Geraldine Veyseyre.

Statement of Disbursements of the House, 2005 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society

Robert W. Kolb, 2018-03-27. Thoroughly revised, updated and expanded. The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society, Second Edition, explores current topics such as mass social media, cookies and cyber attacks, as well as traditional issues including accounting, discrimination, environmental concerns and management. The new edition also includes an in-depth examination of current and recent ethical affairs such as the dangerous work environments of off-shore factories for Western retailers, the negligence resulting in the 2010 BP oil spill, the gender wage gap, the minimum wage debate and increasing income disparity and the unparalleled level of debt in the U.S. and other countries, with the challenges it presents to many societies and the considerable impact on the ethics of intergenerational wealth transfers. Key Features Include: Seven volumes available in both electronic and print formats; contain more than 1,200 signed entries by significant figures in the field; cross-references and suggestions for further readings to guide students to in-depth resources; Thematic Reader's Guide groups related entries by general topics; Index allows for thorough browse and search capabilities in the electronic edition.

Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha

Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2019-02-01. Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co-existed as parallel disciplines, occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres. These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines. The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies, diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non-Western societies. Contributors to this book include literary, film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities

Sacred Nature Jerome A. Stone, 2017-06-26 Sacred Nature examines the crisis of environmental degradation through the prism of religious naturalism which seeks rich spiritual engagement in a world without a god Jerome Stone introduces students to the growing field of religious naturalism exploring a series of questions about how it addresses the environmental crises evaluating the merits of public prophetic discourse that uses the language of spirituality He presents and defends the concept of religious naturalism while drawing out the implications of religious naturalism for addressing some of the major environmental issues facing humans today This book is designed for undergraduate and graduate students as well as scholars specializing in contemporary religious thought or environmental studies

Later Middle English Literature, Materiality, and Culture Brian Gastle, Erick Kelemen, 2018-04-12 The essays in this volume consider the ways in which material and intellectual culture both shaped and were shaped by the literature of late medieval England The first section Textual Material reflects on cultural and social issues generally referred to as the History of Ideas and how those ideas manifest in later medieval English texts Essays address for example affect in The Book of Margery Kempe rhetoric in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight anarchy in late medieval political texts and temporality in Gower's Confessio Amantis The essays in the second section Material Texts examine physical objects from pilgrim badges to manuscripts to money to early printed editions and the cultural behaviors associated with them interpreting these objects and exploring their connections to the important literary and political texts of the age such as Piers Plowman Lydgate's Troy Book and Chaucer's Canterbury Tales All of the essays in this collection emerge from the relationships and connections between the issues that characterize Jim Dean's work the cultural material and aesthetic aspects of later medieval English literature So too do they reflect a movement in medieval literary studies presaged by Dean's career of scholarship and teaching that critical approaches to literary texts are best undertaken with an understanding of the complex cultural and historical milieu that defines both the production of those texts and the production of our own work on those texts

Imago Mortis Ashby Kinch, 2013-03-15 In Imago Mortis Mediating Images of Death in Late Medieval Culture Ashby Kinch argues for the affirmative quality of late medieval death art and literature providing a new interdisciplinary approach to a well known body of material He demonstrates the surprising and effective ways that late medieval artists appropriated images of death and dying as a means to affirm their artistic social and political identities The book dedicates each of its three sections to a pairing of a visual convention deathbed scenes the Three Living and Three Dead and the Dance of Death and a Middle English literary text Hoccleve's Lerne for to die Audelay's Three Dead Kings and Lydgate's Dance of Death Rachel Carson , HighwoodNP presents a profile of American biologist and author Rachel Louise Carson 1907 1964 as part of the GirlSite resource The resource also offers access to additional information
