Designing for Learning in an Open World Gráinne Conole,2012-09-21 The Internet and associated technologies have been around for almost twenty years Networked access and computer ownership are now the norm There is a plethora of technologies that can be used to support learning offering different ways in which learners can communicate with each other and their tutors and providing them with access to interactive multimedia content However these generic skills don t necessarily translate seamlessly to an academic learning context Appropriation of these technologies for academic purposes requires specific skills which means that the way in which we design and support learning opportunities needs to provide appropriate support to harness the potential of technologies More than ever before learners need supportive learning pathways to enable them to blend formal educational offerings with free resources and services This requires a rethinking of the design process to enable teachers to take account of a blended learning context

Metamorphoses of the Absolute Otto Neumaier,Daina Teters,2019-01-10 This collection of essays is devoted to the diversity of the conceptual and terminological definitions of the notion of the absolute Absolute comprises both the concepts of the Western world related to God and the verbal constructions flowing from these ideas in the spheres of law philosophy linguistics politics medicine literature and arts Over time absolute and its neologisms have undergone various modifications assuming the associated characteristics of syntactic ambiguity and inflation Absolute can imply an increase in the degree of a quality attached to some object or phenomenon and can be used as either an adverbial modifier or a proper noun In its appearances as a procedural term absolute mostly conveys a negative connotation when evaluating some action The question posed in this book is not what absolute is but what possibilities exist with regard to perceiving and conceptualizing it in human terms both historically and in the present
