

A dramatic landscape featuring snow-capped mountains in the background and a large, dark, rocky formation in the foreground. The scene is misty or smoky, creating a somber and atmospheric mood. The text is overlaid on the central part of the image.

Excess of love, did ye say? There was no excess, there was defect. She loved her son too little, not too much. If she had loved him more there'd be no difficulty.

Excess Of Love:

Truity Abram Allen, 2013-09-16 From the trues of nature man reasons his truths the sum of which is TRUITY Truity creates all sustains all and accounts for all The Adversity of Diversity Law and Truity's Trinity subject function and object ground all grammar reinforce every language and accommodate all reason Truity reveals the fundamental law no subject possesses truth as every subject represents truth Man has yet to learn this basic rule of grammar To be born in ignorance is understandable but to stand in ignorance is to insult The Creator Excess and the Mean in Early Modern English Literature Joshua Scodel, 2009-02-09 This book examines how English writers from the Elizabethan period to the Restoration transformed and contested the ancient ideal of the virtuous mean As early modern authors learned at grammar school and university Aristotle and other classical thinkers praised golden means balanced between extremes courage for example as opposed to cowardice or recklessness By uncovering the enormous variety of English responses to this ethical doctrine Joshua Scodel revises our understanding of the vital interaction between classical thought and early modern literary culture Scodel argues that English authors used the ancient schema of means and extremes in innovative and contentious ways hitherto ignored by scholars Through close readings of diverse writers and genres he shows that conflicting representations of means and extremes figured prominently in the emergence of a self consciously modern English culture Donne for example reshaped the classical mean to promote individual freedom while Bacon held extremism necessary for human empowerment Imagining a modern rival to ancient Rome georgics from Spenser to Cowley exhorted England to embody the mean or lauded extreme paths to national greatness Drinking poetry from Jonson to Rochester expressed opposing visions of convivial moderation and drunken excess while erotic writing from Sidney to Dryden and Behn pitted extreme passion against the traditional mean of conjugal moderation Challenging his predecessors in various genres Milton celebrated golden means of restrained pleasure and self respect Throughout this groundbreaking study Scodel suggests how early modern treatments of means and extremes resonate in present day cultural debates An Excess of Love, 1996 From Violence to Speaking Out Leonard Lawlor, 2016-08-30 Drawing on a career long exploration of 1960s French philosophy Leonard Lawlor seeks a solution to the problem of the worst violence The worst violence is the reaction of total apocalypse without remainder it is the reaction of complete negation and death it is nihilism Lawlor argues that it is not just transcendental violence that must be minimised all violence must itself be reduced to its lowest level He offers new ways of speaking to best achieve the least violence which he creatively appropriates from Foucault Derrida and Deleuze and Guattari as speaking freely speaking distantly and speaking in tongues Practice of Perfection and Christian Virtues Alfonso Rodríguez, 1929 Making Love Paul Kelleher, 2015-07-16 In Making Love Sentiment and Sexuality in Eighteenth Century British Literature Paul Kelleher revises the history of sexuality from the vantage point of the literary history of sentimentalism Kelleher demonstrates how eighteenth century British philosophers essayists and novelists fundamentally

reconceived the relations among sentiment sexuality and moral virtue It is his contention that sentimental discourse both philosophical and literary posited heterosexual desire as the precondition of moral feeling and conduct The author further suggests that sentimental writers fashioned the ideal of conjugal love as an ideological antidote to the theories of self love and self interest found in the works of Thomas Hobbes and Bernard Mandeville Heterosexual desire and its culmination in conjugal love in other words were represented as the privileged means for an individual to transcend self love and to develop a moral sensibility attuned to the thoughts and feelings of others At the same time Kelleher suggests other pleasures and desires particularly those rooted in same sex eroticism were increasingly depicted as antithetical to conjugal love and thus were morally devalued and socially disenfranchised Kelleher s argument unfolds through close readings of a variety of texts including Shaftesbury s Characteristics of Men Manners Opinions Times Joseph Addison and Richard Steele s the Tatler and the Spectator Eliza Haywood s Love in Excess Samuel Richardson s Pamela and Henry Fielding s Tom Jones Although these texts embody diverse rhetorical strategies and thematic concerns he shows how they collectively reinforce an overarching sentimental ideology on the one hand heterosexual desire and conjugal love become synonymous with sympathy benevolence and moral goodness while on the other hand same sex desire is pathologized as a selfish withdrawal from procreation domesticity sociability and ultimately humanity itself

The Christian's model Franz Hunolt,1895 The Philokalia Brock Bingaman,Bradley Nassif,2012-08-23 The Philokalia literally love of the beautiful is after the Bible the most influential source of spiritual tradition within the Orthodox Church First published in Greek in 1782 by St Nicodemos of the Holy Mountain and St Macarios of Corinth the Philokalia includes works by thirty six influential Orthodox authors such as Maximus the Confessor Peter of Madascus Symeon the New Theologian and Gregory Palamas Surprisingly this important collection of theological and spiritual writings has received little scholarly attention With the growing interest in Orthodox theology the need for a substantive resource for Philokalic studies has become increasingly evident The purpose of the present volume is to remedy that lack by providing an ecumenical collection of scholarly essays on the Philokalia that will introduce readers to its background motifs authors and relevance for contemporary life and thought

The Practice of Hope Néstor Oscar Míguez,2012-06 In Not Like Those Who Have No Hope Nestor O Miguez brings the insights of historical critical study and political analysis together with incisive theological reflection Taking on European philosophical interpretations of Paul the North Atlantic consensus regarding social stratification in the Pauline churches and the distortions of rapture theology Miguez situates Paul s mission in the political context of Roman Thessalonica and reads his first letter in engagement with Latin American realities The result is a surprising rediscovery of Paul as an organic intellectual for whom hope is always a socially concrete reality

Other Logics Admir Skodo,2014-03-13 Other Logics Alternatives to Formal Logic in the History of Thought and Contemporary Philosophy challenges the widespread idea of formal logic as inherently monolithic universal and ahistorical Written by both leading and up and coming scholars and edited by Admir Skodo Other Logics offers a wide variety of historical and philosophical alternatives to this idea all arguing that logic is a historical concrete and multi dimensional phenomenon To name a few examples Frank Ankersmit lays down a representationalist logic Alessandra Tanesini forcefully argues for the possibility of logical aliens Christopher Watkin analyzes how leading contemporary French philosophers view the idea of logic and Aaron Wendland unearths Heidegger s critique of formal logic In Other Logics readers will find provocative interventions in a highly contested field in contemporary philosophy Contributors include Frank Ankersmit Christopher Watkin Giuseppina D Oro Alessandra Tanesini Admir Skodo Aaron Wendland Ervik Cejvan Anders Kraal Christopher Fear Karim Dharamsi Johan Mod e and Thord Svensson

The Court of Reason Beatrix Himmelmann,Camilla Serck-Hanssen,2021-11-08 The Proceedings present the contributions to the 13th International Kant Congress which was held at the University of Oslo August 6 9 2019 The congress which hosted speakers from more than thirty countries and five continents was dedicated to the topic of the court of reason The idea that reason stands before itself as a tribunal characterizes the whole of Kant s critical project Without such a court reason falls into conflict with itself With such a court in place however it may succeed in establishing the possibility and limits of metaphysics ethics aesthetics law and science The idea of reason being its own judge is not only pivotal to a proper understanding of Kant s philosophy but can also shed light on the burgeoning fields of meta philosophy and philosophical methodology The 2019 Kant Congress put special emphasis on Kant s methodology his account of conceptual critique and the relevance of his ideas to current issues in especially political philosophy and the philosophy of law Additional sections discussed a wide range of topics in Kant s philosophy The Proceedings will provide anyone who is interested in exploring the variety of present day work on Kant and Kantian themes with a wealth of fruitful inspiration

Judaeo Arabic Studies Norman Golb,2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 During the middle decades of this century fundamental research on the Jews of medieval Arabic speaking lands was carried out by relatively few scholars whether in Israel or the Western countries The author of this title sought to remedy this deficit in however small a measure by organizing a Conference on Judaeo Arabic Studies at Chicago The purpose of these papers agreed upon in advance by the participants was to draw as broad a picture as possible of the contemporary state of research on certain topics subsumed under the general rubric of medieval Jewish Arabic studies The Practice of the Love of Jesus Christ Saint Alphonsus de Liguori, Aeterna Press, THE whole sanctity and perfection of a soul consists in loving Jesus Christ our God our sovereign good and our Redeemer Whoever loves me says Jesus Christ himself shall be loved by my Eternal Father My Father loves you because you have loved Me Some says St Francis de Sales make perfection consist in an austere life others in prayer others in frequenting the Sacraments others in alms deeds But they deceive themselves perfection consists in loving God with our whole heart The Apostle wrote Above all things have love which is the bond of perfection It is love which keeps united and preserves all the virtues that render a man perfect Hence St Augustine said Love God and do whatever you please because a soul that loves God is taught by that same love never to do anything that will displease him and to leave nothing undone that may please him Repertorium Oratoris Sacri Herman John Hueser, 1880

Thinking Life with Luce Irigaray Gail M. Schwab, 2020-04-01 Featuring a highly accessible essay from Irigaray herself this volume explores her philosophy of life and living Life thinking an important contemporary trend in philosophy and in women's and gender studies stands in contrast to philosophy's traditional grounding in death exemplified in the work of philosophers such as Socrates Plato and Schopenhauer The contributors to Thinking Life with Luce Irigaray consider Irigaray's criticisms of the traditional Western philosophy of death including its either/or dualisms and binary logic as well as some of Irigaray's solutions for cultivating life The book is comprehensive in its analyses of Irigaray's relationship to classical and contemporary philosophers writers and artists and produces extremely fruitful intersections between Irigaray and figures as diverse as Homer and Plato Alexis Wright the First Nations novelist of Australia and twentieth century French philosophers like Sartre Badiou Deleuze and Guattari It also develops Irigaray's relationship to the arts with essays on theater poetry architecture sculpture and film New Statesman, 1927 Disease and Death in Eighteenth-Century Literature and Culture Allan Ingram, Leigh Wetherall Dickson, 2017-02-23 This collection examines different aspects of attitudes towards disease and death in writing of the long eighteenth century Taking three conditions as examples ennui sexual diseases and infectious diseases as well as death itself contributors explore the ways in which writing of the period placed them within a borderland between fashionability and unfashionability relating them to current social fashions and trends These essays also look at ways in which diseases were fashioned into bearing cultural moral religious and even political meaning Works of literature are used as evidence but also medical writings personal correspondence and diaries Diseases or conditions subject to scrutiny include syphilis male impotence plague smallpox and consumption Death finally is looked at both in terms of writers constructing meanings within death and of the fashioning of posthumous reputation
