

A stylized illustration featuring a black silhouette of a person carrying a large, dark, rounded object on their back. The object is inscribed with the text 'EXERCISES IN FUTILITY' in bold, red, sans-serif capital letters. The person is walking on a dark, jagged path that leads into a landscape of rolling hills and mountains, rendered in shades of gray and yellow. The sky is a solid yellow color.

Huisman, Gudrun Vande Walle, 2015-04-10 The study of white collar crime remains a central concern for criminologists around the world and research concentrates on its nature prevalence causes and responses However most books on white collar crime tend to focus on Anglo American examples which is surprising given the amount of rich data and research taking place in mainland Europe This new handbook seeks to reset the balance and for the first time presents an overview of state of the art research on white collar crime in Europe Adding to the existing Anglo American body of knowledge the Handbook will discuss specific European topics and typical European features of white collar crime The Routledge Handbook of White Collar and Corporate Crime in Europe consists of more than thirty chapters on topics ranging from the Icelandic Banking Crisis to the origins of the study of white collar crime to contemporary topics such as white collar crime in countries post transition from communist regimes the illegal e waste trade and white collar crime in professional football Furthermore the book contains extensive case study analyses of landmark European cases of white collar crime The editors have gathered together the leading voices in the field and a final section offers commentaries on white collar crime in Europe from eminent criminologists David Friedrichs and Hazel Croall This Handbook will thus serve as a work of reference for all scholars and students engaged in the study of corporate and white collar crime and will also set out directions for new research in the future
