Bessenecker,2006-09-27 Have you been called by God to stick out act out speak out Are you ready to set aside comfort and privilege for meaning and impact Scott Bessenecker profiles young Christians who have done just that making radical commitments to seek justice and mercy among the poor and suffering people of the world Blood and Fire Margaret M. Poloma,Ralph W. Hood, Jr.,2008-11-01 What does it mean to live out the theology presented in the Great Commandment to love God above all and to love your neighbor as yourself In Blood and Fire Poloma and Hood explore how understandings of godly love function to empower believers Though godly love may begin as a perceived relationship between God and a person it is made manifest as social behavior among people Blood and Fire offers a deep ethnographic portrait of a charismatic church and its faith based ministry illuminating how religiously motivated social service makes use of beliefs about the nature of God's love. It traces the triumphs and travails associated with living a set of rigorous religious ideals providing a richly textured analysis of a faith community affiliated with the emerging church movement in Pentecostalism one of the fastest growing and most dynamic religious movements of our day. Based on more than four years of interviews and surveys with people from all levels of the organization from the leader to core and marginal members to the poor and addicts they are seeking to serve. Blood and Fire sheds light on the differing worldviews and religious perceptions between those who served in as well as those who were served by this ministry. Blood and Fire argues that godly love the relationship between perceived divine love and human response is at the heart of the vision of emerging churches and that it is essential to understand this dynamic if one is to understand the ongoing reinvention of American Protestantism in the twenty first century.

For An Audience of One R.T. Kendall, 2020-02-04. Seek honor and praise from God and not people. This book will help you to stop being motivated by the approval of others and instead start living for the validation that comes from God alone. Respected author and theologian R T Kendall shares a profound revelation of the meaning of John 5:44 the scripture that has guided his life for more than sixty years. Early in his ministry the wise counsel of two mentors brought this scripture to light and he has determined to live by it ever since. Now he passes on the same wise counsel to his readers. In For an Audience of One Kendall explores what it means to truly live for Christ alone. Many Christians believe in God and claim that Jesus is their Lord and Savior but sadly their actions betray them. They are more concerned about the approval of people. They avoid truly following God's leading or taking a bold stand for righteousness if they fear they might lose a friend. Because they are more worried about what people think than what God thinks they miss out on what God is doing. It's time to learn what a life truly surrendered to God and God alone looks like. Readers can live the life He has purposed for them. They can stop being motivated by fear of others and addicted to their approval. For an Audience of One shows readers how to start living for the honor and praise that comes from God alone.
