Australia's adult XXX industry and the Christian morals driven pressure groups that advocate tighter censorship restrictions. In a country that has the dubious honor of being the most censorial of Western democracies, film censorship is based on the principle of offense to a reasonable adult, an undefined refrain that religious minorities have used to manipulate censorship decisions in their favor. The history of these groups and the political support for their right wing Christian agenda driven by what Australians term Wowsers makes Australian film censorship unique in its delineation of the aesthetics of offense as grounds for the suppression of free dissemination to the point of seeking mandatory ISP Internet filtering and Internet blacklisting of all material classified RC or refused classification, much of which is available for dissemination throughout Europe and the USA in violation of UN Human Rights Article 19. In this comprehensive study of the socio-political ideology surrounding the censorship of primarily sexually explicit material pornography, Cettl delineates the aesthetic construction of offense as a transgressive genre and charts the morality driven religiosity behind their construction as Other to a civilized society, questioning whether the categorization of such material as Other makes of it legitimate discourse. With extensive case histories never before published, government censorship reports, press clippings, and secret internal memos between some of Australia's most powerful and influential politicians, Offensive to a Reasonable Adult exposes the quagmire of Australian censorship law and the morals cabal of wowsers that dominate the censorship agenda in the so-called Clever Country.
