Duke and Others, Trustees* James Buchanan Duke, Duke Endowment, 1925 James B. Duke John Wilber Jenkins, James Buchanan DUKE, 1927 Cigarettes, Inc. Nan Enstad, 2018-12-10 Traditional narratives of capitalist change often rely on the myth of the willful entrepreneur from the global North who transforms the economy and delivers modernity for good or ill to the rest of the world With Cigarettes Inc Nan Enstad upends this story revealing the myriad cross cultural encounters that produced corporate life before World War II In this startling account of innovation and expansion Enstad uncovers a corporate network rooted in Jim Crow segregation that stretched between the United States and China and beyond Cigarettes Inc teems with a global cast from Egyptian American and Chinese entrepreneurs to a multiracial set of farmers merchants factory workers marketers and even baseball players jazz musicians and sex workers Through their stories Cigarettes Inc accounts for the cigarette's spectacular rise in popularity and in the process offers nothing less than a sweeping reinterpretation of corporate power itself The Duke Legacy D. W. Duke, 2014-03-27 Washington Duke is very young when he first realizes there is racial discrimination in the South Living outside of Hillsboro North Carolina in the mid 1820s he is one of ten children in a family that shares the wilderness with bears rattlesnakes and mountain lions Washington learns about the world around him from his scholarly father nurtures a compassion for others and eventually grows into a man deeply troubled by the institution of slavery Unaware of what awaits him Washington is conscripted into the Confederate Army and reluctantly leaves his three hundred acre farm in 1864 to fight in the war When the Civil War is over Washington is left widowed with nothing but his farm two blind mules a wagon load of tobacco and his four children Determined to rise from the rubble Washington soon begins building the foundation for the Duke financial empire although not without challenges As Washington ages his sons eventually capture his dream to establish Duke University Even with the family's successes though there is tragedy and heartache Washingtons granddaughter Doris dies under suspicious circumstances in 1993 and her estate becomes embroiled in a legal battle Based on a true story this compelling and inspirational tale examines the life of a gentle giant and his descendants who together built a multibillion dollar empire numerous charitable foundations and a renowned academic institution proving that anyone can overcome adversity to achieve greatness Indenture of James B. Duke Establishing the Duke Endowment, with Provisions of the Will and a Trust of Mr. Duke Supplementing the Same ; Also, An Address on the Origin, Nature and Purpose of the Duke Endowment. --. Duke Endowment,1932 The Politics of Despair Tracy Campbell,2005-01-01 Shortly after 1900 tens of thousands of tobacco growers throughout Kentucky and Tennessee convulsed the region for nearly a decade in a revolt against the monopolistic practices of the American Tobacco Company Though the revolt known as the Tobacco Wars remains one of the more remarkable insurgencies of rural America it is also one of the more misunderstood In this first major account of the uprising in over half a century Tracy Campbell tells the story of these embattled farmers and casts a provocative new light on the issues that fueled the Tobacco Wars When tobacco prices fell below the cost of production in the early 1900s farmers in western Kentucky and Tennessee faced with desperate economic circumstances formed cooperatives through which they could pool their crops and withhold tobacco from the market until a satisfactory price was offered Campbell recounts the organizational underpinnings of the notorious Black Patch War and the forces that drove farmers to seek violent solutions to their economic ills Campbell then expands the story to the burley region where a simultaneous movement was under way In 1908 over thirty thousand burley growers undertook the only successful large scale agricultural strike in American history Campbell brings this drama to life and describes the emotional day when the farmers achieved their unprecedented victory over the powerful Tobacco Trust The Tobacco Wars represented one of the last desperate gasps from the countryside before the onset of agribusiness drove millions of farmers and their families away for good The Politics of Despair thus stands as a unique reminder of a tradition of protest that has perhaps been irretrievably lost This book will interest not only rural and labor historians and students of the American South but anyone concerned with the profound issues surrounding the decline of rural America United States of America ... V. Aluminum Company of America Et Al. ... ,1941 Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 3 Cristina Berna,Eric Thomsen,2024-08-26 Joaquín Sorolla born in Valencia 1863 died in Cercedilla 1923 is one of the most successful Spanish painters ever He was a genius in capturing the essence of the scene he was painting In Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 3 1911 1920 Sorolla paints still paints many important portraits although in the course of preparing for his grand masterpiece The Vision of Spain which hangs in the Hispanic Society of America he did not have the same amount of time available Sorolla also indulged in painting gardens as relaxation from the gigantic The Vision of Spain project The portraits provide a deep and interesting look into both American and Spanish society in this period In his early years Sorolla often showed social realism in his culmination period showed the increasingly wealthy sitters that came to him and in his final period he is a celebrated portraitist of rich
