Elongated Figures:

A Catalog of Identifiable Figure Painters of Ancient Pompeii, Herculaneum, and Stabiae Lawrence Richardson, 2000 A herculean effort to identify the hands of individual wall painters who worked in Pompeii and the surrounding area How did figure painting fit into the economic and artistic life of Pompeii Did the best painters work in conjunction with one another Did they paint only the important pictures in the best rooms and if so who painted the rest Were the best houses the showplaces for these painters work If not what was the function of these decorations in Pompeian life L Richardson jr has had a long and distinguished career writing about Roman art and architecture particularly that of the companion town of Pompeii and its environs In this newest work he attributes many of the surviving wall decorations to particular painters It is a catalog in the true sense grouping the pictures by style and then by painter Richardson describes the salient characteristics of a painter s work and then inventories the pictures he attributes to that painter together with cross references to other catalogs and sources of good reproductions The book will serve as a valuable resource for specialists in classics and art history as well as a unique guide for intellectually adventurous tourists visiting the Museo Nazionale at Naples and the sites of Pompeii Herculaneum and Stabiae

Ebrahim Alkazi Amal Allana, 2024-03-11 Amal Allana s compelling biography of her father is the first carefully researched full length account of the life work and times of Ebrahim Alkazi one of the giants of twentieth century theatre and a key promoter of the visual arts movement in India. Evoking the excitement of Alkazi's student years in England, the controversies that surrounded his provocative ideas to transform the theatre movement in Bombay and later in Delhi as the director of the National School of Drama (NSD), this book charts Alkazi's meteoric rise to the top with his modernist staging of plays and his aim of putting Hindi theatre on the map. It was at the Sangeet Natak Akademi that Alkazi first confronted resistance to his ideas on the role of tradition in the making of a new national culture. By the 1970s, disillusioned with the curtailing of civil liberties and a dysfunctional bureaucracy, he ultimately resigned from the NSD, developing his own independent institutions for the promotion of the visual arts in India as well as abroad. Staging the cultural history of India between the 1940s and 2000s and featuring a galaxy of artists and actors as the dramatis personae including M. F. Husain, F. N. Souza, Akbar Padamsee, Gieve Patel, Nissim Ezekiel, Alyque Padamsee, Girish Karnad, Manohar Singh, Vijaya Mehta, Kusum Haidar, and Gerson da Cunha, Allana's chronicle is charged with their fierce energy and commitment as contributors to a vibrant new India. The author's personal perspective as Alkazi's daughter brings to the narrative an added dimension of veracity and sensitivity. With objective candour, Allana shares details of her parents' relationship as they examine their marriage on entirely new terms as a partnership of equals. Holding Time captures Alkazi in his quest to bring about an inclusive international, intercultural, and interdisciplinary thinking in artistic expressions that is transformative and liberating. This book offers unique glimpses into an enigmatic personality whose emotionally charged life closely reflected and ran parallel to the growth and evolution of his startlingly fresh ideas and vision for a modern cultural movement in India.

The Oxford Handbook of Light in Archaeology Costas Papadopoulos, Holley Moyes, 2021-12-09. Light has a fundamental role to play in our perception of the world. Natural or artificial lightscapes orchestrate uses and experiences of space and in turn influence how people construct and negotiate their identities, form social relationships, and attribute meaning to material practices. Archaeological practice seeks to analyse the material culture of past societies by examining the interaction between people, things, and spaces. As light is a crucial factor that mediates these relationships, understanding its principles and addressing illumination's impact on sensory experience and perception should be a fundamental pursuit in archaeology. However, in archaeological reasoning, studies of lightscapes have remained largely neglected and understudied. This volume provides a comprehensive and accessible consideration of light in archaeology and beyond by including dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering diverse aspects of illumination in different spatial and temporal contexts from prehistory to the present. Written by leading international scholars, it interrogates the qualities and affordances of light in different contexts and material environments, explores its manipulation, and problematises its elusive properties. The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into sensory experience and perception, demonstrating illumination's vital impact on social, cultural, and artistic contexts.
