Embodiment Essays On Gender And Identity:

Embodiment Meenakshi Thapan, 1997 Papers presented at an international workshop held in 1994 Embodied Entanglements: Gender, Identity, and the Corporeal in Asia Zawiszová, Halina, Strafella, Giorgio, Lavička, Martin, Ideas on the human body gender and identity lie at the core of many socio political issues and cultural trends in Asia today while also inspiring innovative research on artistic expression from Asia's past By focusing on socio political as well as cultural issues from diverse geographical and historical contexts this book highlights complex links and interactions that bind these three interpretative axes How do bodies become conduits for the expression and negotiation of gender and other identities What do the lived experiences of women and LGBTQ people in Asia reveal about biopolitics normative expectations and value systems in different societies How does art reflect the representation and fashioning of gendered bodies and ambiguous identities Cutting across the quotidian and the avant garde activism and art violence and pleasure as well as the intimate and the political this book sheds new light on Asian cultures and societies spanning India Indonesia Japan mainland China Taiwan and Thailand affirming thus the region's significance in broader debates on biopolitics gender and human dignity

Embodiment, Identity, and Gender in the Early Modern Age Amy Leonard, David Whitford, 2020-12-30 Embracing a multiconfessional and transnational approach that stretches from central Europe to Scotland and England from Iberia to Africa and Asia this volume explores the lives work and experiences of women and men during the tumultuous fifteenth to seventeenth centuries The authors all leading experts in their fields utilize a broad range of methodologies from cultural history to women's history from masculinity studies to digital mapping to explore the dynamics and power of constructed gender roles Ranging from intellectual representations of virginity to the plight of refugees from the sea journeys of Jesuit missionaries to the impact of Transatlantic economies on women's work from nuns discovering new ways to tolerate different religious expressions to bleeding corpses used in criminal trials these essays address the wide diversity and historical complexity of identity gender and the body in the early modern age With its diversity of topics fields and interests of its authors this volume is a valuable source for students and scholars of the history of women gender and sexuality as well as social and cultural history in the early modern world (Dis)embodied Form Anita Ghai, 2003 With reference to India

Hybrid Identities and Adolescent Girls Laurel D. Kamada, 2010 This book examines the ethnic gendered and embodied hybrid identities of half Japanese girls in Japan colourfully narrated through their own voices The girls struggle to positively construct their identities into positions of control over disempowering discourses of otherness while also celebrating cultural capital as they negotiate their constructed identities of Japaneseness whiteness and halfness doubleness Talking Bodies Emma Rees, 2017-11-21 In this collection leading thinkers writers and activists offer their responses to the simple question do I have a body or am I my body The essays engage with the array of meanings that our bodies have today ranging from considerations of nineteenth century discourses of bodily shame and otherness through to arguing for a brand new corporeal vocabulary for the twenty first century Increasing numbers of people are choosing to modify their bodies but as the essays in this volume show this is far from being a new practice over hundreds of years it has evolved and accrued new meanings This richly interdisciplinary volume maps a range of cultural anxieties about the body resulting in a timely and compelling book that makes a vital contribution to today's key debates about embodiment Embodied Working Lives Louise

Waite,2006-01-01 Embodied Working Lives explores the work a day of seasonal migrant laborers in India through a nexus of embodiment theories to enhance our understanding of what constitutes the intense lived and physical experience of such work Echoing constructive explorations of labor science Bernard Doray but in the sentiment and with the intense rigor of contemporary phenomenology and labor studies Louise Waite gives us unique and original ethnographic research to help enhance our understanding of laboring bodies and the policies that effect them I Drum, Therefore I Am Gareth Dylan Smith,2016-05-13 Despite their central role in many forms of music making drummers have been largely neglected in the scholarly literature on music and education But kit drummers are increasingly difficult to ignore While exponents of the drum kit are frequently mocked in popular culture they are also widely acknowledged to be central to the musical success and aesthetic appeal of any musical ensemble in which they are found Drummers are also making their presence felt in music education with increasing opportunities to learn their craft in formal contexts Drawing on data collected from in depth interviews and questionnaires Gareth Dylan Smith explores the identities practices and learning of teenage and adult kit drummers in and around London As a London based drummer and teacher of drummers Smith uses his own identity as participant researcher to inform and interpret other drummers accounts of their experiences Drummers learn in multi modal ways usually with a keen awareness of exemplars of their art and craft The world of kit drumming is highly masculine which presents opportunities and challenges to drummers of both sexes Smith proposes a new model of the Snowball Self which incorporates the constructs of identity realization learning realization meta identities and contextual identities Kit drummers identities practices and learning are found to be intertwined as drummers exist in a web of interdependence Drummers drum therefore they are they do and they learn in a rich tapestry of means and contexts Gender and Human Rights in the Commonwealth Commonwealth Secretariat,2004 This book brings together the papers commissioned for a Pan Commonwealth Expert Group Meeting on Gender and Human Rights which took place at the Commonwealth Secretariat in London in February 2004 These papers together with other key background papers represent much of the analysis and experience from Commonwealth member countries that informed the development of the Human Rights section of the new Commonwealth Plan of Action for Gender Equality 2005 2015 The papers address a wide range of Gender and Human Rights issues including the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women CEDAW gender based violence culture and the law indigenous peoples trafficking and migration land and property rights diversity and a life cycle approach to gender and human rights The contributors include government policymakers judges lawyers academics representatives of civil society organizations and specialists from multilateral agencies including the Commonwealth Secretariat The purpose of this book is to contribute to current policymaking program planning and implementation on Gender and Human Rights It is intended for a wide audience of policymakers magistrates judges and lawyers academics and civil society organizations grappling with these issues It is also intended as a conceptual and policy oriented resource for those committed to implementing and supporting the Human Rights goals of the new Commonwealth Plan of Action for Gender Equality 2005 2015 Sexuality, Gender and Rights Geetanjali Misra,Radhika Chandiramani,2005-11-23 This volume analyzes and documents the groundbreaking work done by many organizations to bring issues of sexuality and rights to public attention to expand the freedoms of women and sexual minorities and to highlight the unfair distinctions faced by those not conforming to gender and sexual norms across a range of expressions behaviours and identities in Asia This volume covers eight countries in South and Southeast Asia The contributors address issues of power and social hierarchies by using the principles of justice equality non discrimination and access to rights and services They cover diverse issues like sexual rights sexuality education sexual health services transsexuals and other sexual minorities HIV AIDS prevention as well as sex work and the representation of sexuality in popular culture The contributors argue that neither gender nor sexuality can be addressed in isolation from human rights and demonstrate how linking sexuality and gender with human rights has an impact on people s lives across intersecting issues and contexts Moving beyond theoretical discussions of sexuality gender and rights this volume looks at what these ideas mean in practice and offers examples of the diversity of effective approaches that can be adopted in varied settings Moreover it illustrates how sexuality ties in with wider issues health personal relationships economic well being equitable access to public services and the freedom to think speak and associate without fear of discrimination Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes,2021-11-15 This new edition of the Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia The Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focusing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka This revised edition has been thoroughly updated and includes new chapters thus adding new areas of scholarship The Handbook is organized thematically into five major parts Historical formations and theoretical framings Law citizenship and the nation Representations of culture place identity Labor and the economy Inequality activism and the state The Handbook illustrates the ways in which scholarship on gender has contributed to a rethink of theoretical concepts and empirical understandings of contemporary South Asia Finally it focuses on new areas of inquiry that have been opened up through a focus on gender and the intersections between gender and categories such as caste ethnicity sexuality and religion This timely study is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives Contemporary Transnational Feminist Visual Activism and Gender-Based Violence Basia Sliwinska, 2025-09-30 This book illuminates arts activist interventions that raise consciousness and advocacy for women's right to a life free from violence In a context where Gender Based Violence GBV has continued to intensify across the globe the international range of essays focus on violations of bodily integrity and autonomy reproductive domestic and sexual violence femicide and feminicide Comparing and interrogating arts activist strategies and visual methods the book also explores tactics employed by arts activists attentive to effects and lived experiences of GBV and imagining potential solutions founded in feminist thinking to change behaviours and raise awareness generating systemic change The case studies of feminist transnational contemporary arts activism include examples from Austria Brazil Canada Ghana Guatemala Hong Kong Mexico and the United States Arts engaged with include textile work crafts making performance art clay work protest art and documentary art indicating the breadth and richness of the work of feminist political artists At a time when according to the UN Women's estimates almost one in three women have been subjected to violence it is critical to understand how feminist politics catalyses social cultural and political changes This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history women's studies gender studies and visual culture Staging Feminisms Anita Singh, 2021-07-15 This book questions how feminist beliefs are enacted within an artistic context It critically examines the intersection of violence gender performance and power through contemporary interventionist performances The volume explores a host of key themes like feminism and folk epic community theatre performance as radical cultural intervention volatile bodies and celebratory protests Through analysing performances of theatre stalwarts like Usha Ganguly Maya Krishna Rao Sanjoy Ganguly Shilpi Marwaha and Teejan Bai the volume discusses the complexities and contradictions of a feminist reading of contemporary performances A major intervention in the field of feminism and performance this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of gender studies performance studies theatre studies women's studies cultural studies sociology of gender and literature Genocides and Xenophobia in South Asia and Beyond Rituparna Bhattacharyya, 2023-07-07 This volume foregrounds some of the unknown or lesser known incidents of xenophobia and genocide from India Bangladesh Sri Lanka South Africa and Rwanda It critically analyses the cultural and structural contexts triggering these various forms of genocides and xenophobia and situates them within modern histories of violence and human tribulations The book discusses various non Western case studies which include the communal violence incited by anti CAA protests in Delhi the expulsion and displacement of Kashmiri Pandits xenophobic attitudes against illegal immigrants in Assam genocide in Sylhet during the Liberation War of Bangladesh the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and incidences of human rights violations across the world A comprehensive and transdisciplinary text the book will be useful for students and researchers of human geography sociology political science social work anthropology colonialism and postcolonialism nationalism imperialism human rights and history Confronting the Body James H. Mills, Satadru Sen, 2004 The editors bring together some of the best new scholarship on physicality in modern India in a single volume and provide a balance of materials from colonial and post colonial India Included are new writings by established and upcoming writers in the social sciences and humanities all based on original research Sexuality and the Law Vanessa Munro, Carl Stychin, 2007-05-07 Rediscovering the peculiarity of feminist perspectives rather than the range of gender oriented analyses in legal regulation and sexuality this edited collection avoids the reductionist and essentialist shortcomings of feminism unmodified

Sexuality, Obscenity and Community C. Gupta, 2002-05-30 Through analysis of an impressive array of low and high Hindu literatures particularly pamphlets tracts newspapers and archival data Gupta explores the emerging discourse of gender and sexuality which was essential to the development of notions of Hindu communality and nationalism in the colonial period The book offers an exceptionally nuanced account of Hindi gender politics Unearthing Gender Smita Tewari Jassal, 2012-03-28 This book analyzes the folk songs from the Bhojpuri speaking regions of North India to explore how ideas of gender caste and class are socially constructed transmitted questioned and reaffirmed through their performance

Routledge Readings on Law and Social Justice Kalpana Kannabiran, 2022-07-11 Routledge Readings on Law and Social Justice Dispossession Marginalities Rights presents some of the finest essays on social justice rights and public policy With a lucid new Introduction it covers a vast range of issues and offers a compelling guide to understanding law and socio legal studies in South Asia The book covers critical themes such as the jurisprudence of rights justice dignity with a focus on the regimes of patriarchy labour and dispossession The fourteen chapters in the volume divided into three sections examine contested sites of the constitution courts prisons land and complex processes of migration trafficking digital technology regimes geographical indications and their entanglements This multidisciplinary volume foregrounds the politics and plural lives of in law by including perspectives from major authors who have contributed to the academic and or policy discourse of the subject This book will be useful to students scholars policymakers and practitioners interested in a nuanced understanding of law especially those studying law marginality and violence It will serve as essential reading for those in law socio legal studies legal history South Asian studies human rights jurisprudence and constitutional studies gender studies history politics conflict and peace studies sociology and social anthropology It will also appeal to legal historians and practitioners of law and those in public administration development studies environmental studies migration studies cultural studies labour studies and economics Civility in Crisis Suryakant Waghmore, Hugo Gorringer, 2020-12-23 This book critically examines the relationship between civility citizenship and democracy It engages with the oft neglected idea of civility as a Western concept to explore the paradox of high democracy and low civility that plagues India This concept helps analyse why democratic consolidation translates into limited justice and minimal equality along with increased exclusion and performative violence against marginal groups in India The volume brings together key themes such as minority citizens and the incivility of caste civility and urbanity the struggles for dignity and equality pursued by subaltern groups along with feminism and queer politics and the exclusionary politics of the Citizenship Amendment Act to argue that civility provides crucial insights into the functioning and social life of a democracy In doing so the book illustrates how a successful democracy may also harbour illiberal values and normalised violence and civil societies may have uncivil tendencies Enriched with case studies from various states in India this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of political science political philosophy South Asian studies minority and exclusion studies political sociology and social anthropology
