Embroidering Shrouds:

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery The Deceiver Priscilla Masters, 2018-02-01 A desperate phone call from an old acquaintance plunges forensic psychiatrist Claire Roget into an explosive situation with echoes in her own past Forensic psychiatrist Dr Claire Roget finds it impossible to refuse when she receives a desperate phone call from an old acquaintance obstetrician Charles Tissot One of his patients Heather Kimble alleges that Tissot seduced her at a party and that he is the father of her unborn child His career on the line Charles begs Claire to expose Heather's fragile mental state and discredit her wild claims With a history of making similar false allegations her two previous babies having suffered unexplained cot deaths Heather's accusations would appear to be nothing more than the result of a damaged mind But as Claire delves further it becomes clear that Charles hasn't been telling her the whole truth Could Heather's story possibly have some merit And is her unborn child in danger Crooked Streets Priscilla Masters, 2017-02-01 Detective Inspector Joanna Piercy investigates the disappearance of a young husband and discovers all is not as it seems Jadon Glover is good looking professional reliable and a perfect husband according to his wife So when he fails to return home one miserable March night she rings the police certain that something has happened to him DI Joanna Piercy and DS Mike Korpanski are sceptical there is no such thing as a perfect marriage So what is the truth about Jadon As the investigation proceeds it soon becomes apparent that Jadon Glover has been keeping dark secrets from his wife And as the police pursue their house to house enquiries through the claustrophobic jumbled streets of cramped Victorian terraces
