Emerging Constitution The:

The Emerging Constitutional Law of the European Union Adam Bodnar, Michal Kowalski, Karen Raible, Frank Schorkopf, 2003-07-22 Young lawyers from different academic centres in Germany and Poland comment on the ongoing constitutional debate in the EU Each of the more than 20 articles is dedicated to a specific theme i e human rights institutional design current and future function of the EU homogeneity and identity security and defence policy home policy and common values Similarities as well as differences in the perspectives of an old EU Member State on the one hand and an EU Member State to be on the other hand are revealed The Emerging Constitution Rexford Guy Tugwell, 1974 The New Politics Loren Berengere, 2017-01-06 Dare to perilously entangle yourself inside Berengeres provocative vision of the nature and foundation of political values He intoxicates We are in the presence of a red comet in a smog filled sky His two formations of books disturb They attack the readers prejudices They are very learned Each book establishes him as brave and original Each essay in each book is swift strenuous and seductive Each sentence jabs Berengere alleges that he makes more eye captivating claims in one spree of pages than most academics dare in a lifetime and reasonable minds could easily conclude that he is not entirely wrong The New British Constitution Vernon Bogdanor, 2009-06-03 The last decade has seen radical changes in the way we are governed Reforms such as the Human Rights Act and devolution have led to the replacement of one constitutional order by another This book is the first to describe and analyse Britain s new constitution asking why it was that the old system seemingly hallowed by time came under challenge and why it is being replaced The Human Rights Act and the devolution legislation have the character of fundamental law They in practice limit the rights of Westminster as a sovereign parliament and establish a constitution which is quasi federal in nature The old constitution emphasised the sovereignty of Parliament The new constitution by contrast emphasises the separation of powers both territorially and at the centre of government The aim of constitutional reformers has been to improve the quality of government But the main weakness of the new constitution is that it does little to secure more popular involvement in politics We are in the process of becoming a constitutional state but not a popular constitutional state The next phase of constitutional reform therefore is likely to involve the creation of new forms of democratic engagement so that our constitutional forms come to be more congruent with the social and political forces of the age The end point of this piecemeal process might well be a fully codified or written constitution which declares that power stems not from the Queen in Parliament but instead as in so many constitutions from We the People The old British constitution was analysed by Bagehot and Dicey In this book Vernon Bogdanor charts the significance of what is coming to replace it The expenses scandal shows up grave defects in the British constitution Vernon Bogdanor shows how the constitution can be reformed and the political system opened up in The New British Constitution The New Hampshire State Constitution Lawrence Friedman, 2015-03-16 In this newly revised work Lawrence Friedman presents a comprehensive and accessible survey of

The Gambia in transition: Towards a new constitutional order Satang Nabaneh, Adem Abebe, Gaye Sowe, 2022-09-01 The Gambia opened a new chapter in her history after 22 years of authoritarian rule under former dictator Yahya Jammeh, heralding the promise of a New Gambia. The country is at a critical juncture in its transition from Jammeh's autocratic rule to a fully fledged democracy. The ambitious transitional processes include the Truth, Reparations, and Reconciliation Commission to create an official record of past abuses and crimes; the Constitutional Review Commission to draft a new Constitution; and the permanent National Human Rights Commission to build a human rights culture. The Gambia in transition: Towards a new constitutional order is a diverse collection of timely, rigorous, and insightful essays on human rights, constitutional reform, rule of law, and democratic governance. It serves as an important reference for academics, policymakers, researchers, civil society organisations, human rights defenders, learners, and the public at large.

Hong Kong's New Constitutional Order Yash Ghai, 1997-05-01 This is the first systematic analysis of the constitutional, legal, economic, social, and political systems of Hong Kong as a special administrative region of China. It examines the Basic Law against its historical and socio-economic contexts, including its international and domestic foundations, and the loss and the resumption of sovereignty by China. The author offers a conceptualization of the Basic Law and locates it within China's constitutional, political, and legal systems. The book explores the balance, as well as the tensions, between the autonomy of Hong Kong and the sovereignty of China, which are aggravated by the necessity to accommodate contrasting economic and political systems. It also identifies key legal and political problems that are likely to arise in implementing the Basic Law and suggests an approach to its interpretation The Basic Law provides a fascinating example of the interaction of widely different traditions of law politics and economy and a novel system of autonomy Its study is therefore of great interest to scholars of comparative law and politics This new edition covers significant political constitutional and legal developments since the transfer of sovereignty in July 1997

The New Constitution Movement Martinus François,2018-01-20

THE NEW CONSTITUTION MOVEMENT sets out boldly to fill the void that was left after the disbanding of the Constitutional Review Commission and its Report which became yet another casualty of the myopic self interest of our postcolonial two party dictatorship political system in St Lucia known as the Westminster Model The extraordinary thing about THE NEW CONSTITUTION MOVEMENT is that it should be read as a fitting epitaph to the Westminster Model of political governance bequeathed to us by London as part of our 1979 Independence gift The basic postulation of THE NEW CONSTITUTION MOVEMENT is that government and politics in St Lucia the OECS and the wider Caribbean needs to be reinvented for a post postcolonial 21st century society The fact is building a new 21st century society on the wreckage of the old and decrepit postcolonial structures involves the design of new more appropriate political systems which must be altogether tougher more challenging more positive more ambitious more inspirational more generational and above all more transformational This book shows how through a process of social reengineering we need to radically overhaul or even scrap many of the hitherto sacred cows of the colonially inherited Westminster system to the point that they may even lose some of their traditional meanings the Monarchy the Office of Governor General the Executive Branch the Office of Prime Minister the Cabinet System the Legislative Branch the Senate the Office of Leader of the Opposition the Political Parties the Public Service Local and Municipal Government and last but not least Regional Integration
