Blank Canvas Marcy Gregg, 2022-05-24 When Marcy Gregg awoke from a coma 13 years had vanished from her memory She was 30 years old she thought she was still 17 She didn't recognize the man who introduced himself as her husband She stared at pictures of the three children they said were hers trying desperately to remember them but her mind was blank Terrified and confused Marcy did the only thing she could think of she faked it She told the doctors she was starting to remember and bluffed her way through visits from friends and family Against all odds it worked she was released to a home family and life she should have known intimately but seemed to be a stranger's How was she going to pull off the biggest acting challenge imaginable and would her memories ever return Ghost Boy meets What Alice Forgot in this amazing true story of a woman who lost herself and tried to fight her way back on her own but who found unexpected beauty in hope faith and second chances Armed Services Catalog of Medical Matériel United States. Armed Services Medical Procurement Agency, 1949 Nature's Palette David Lee, 2010-09-03 Though he didn't realize it at the time David Lee began this book twenty five years ago as he was hiking in the mountains outside Kuala Lumpur Surrounded by the wonders of the jungle Lee found his attention drawn to one plant in particular a species of fern whose electric blue leaves shimmered amidst the surrounding green The evolutionary wonder of the fern's extravagant beauty filled Lee with awe and set him on a career long journey to understand everything about plant colors Nature's Palette is the fully ripened fruit of that journey a highly illustrated immensely entertaining exploration of the science of plant color Beginning with potent reminders of how deeply interwoven plant colors are with human life and culture from the shifting hues that told early humans when fruits and vegetables were edible to the indigo dyes that signified royalty for later generations Lee moves easily through details of pigments the evolution of color perception the nature of light and dozens of other topics Through a narrative peppered with anecdotes of a life spent pursuing botanical knowledge around the world he reveals the profound ways that efforts to understand and exploit plant color have influenced every sphere of human life from organic chemistry to Renaissance painting to the highly lucrative orchid trade Lavishly illustrated and packed with remarkable details sure to delight gardeners and naturalists alike Nature's Palette will enchant anyone who's ever wondered about red roses and blue violets or green thumbs Boredom Alberto Moravia, 2011-07-20 The novels that the great Italian writer Alberto Moravia wrote in the years following World War II represent an extraordinary survey of the range of human behavior in a fragmented modern society Boredom the story of a failed artist and pampered son of a rich family who becomes dangerously attached to a young model examines the complex relations between money sex and imperiled masculinity This powerful and disturbing study in the pathology of modern life is one of the masterworks of a writer who as Anthony Burgess once remarked was always trying to get to the bottom of the human imbroglio My Name Was Indigo Raven Demers, 2001 A prismatic and harmonious exploration through poetry into the depths of a woman's life journey The poetry is presented as one continuous wave of

BOOK JACKET The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism
