national stakeholders maneuver between competition and cooperation coexistence and conflict Contributors probe the notion of coexistence and the logic that underlies centuries of sharing exploring when and why sharing gets interrupted or not by conflict and the policy consequences These essays map the choreographies of shared sacred spaces within the framework of state society relations juxtaposing a site's political and religious features and exploring whether sharing or contestation is primarily religious or politically motivated Although religion and politics are intertwined phenomena the contributors to this volume understand the category of religion and the political as devices meant to distinguish between the theological and confessional aspects of religion and the political goals of groups Their comparative approach better represents the transition in some cases of sites into places of hatred and violence while in other instances they remain noncontroversial The essays clearly delineate the religious and political factors that contribute to the context and causality of conflict at these sites and draw on history and anthropology to shed light on the often rapid switch from relative tolerance to distress to peace and calm

Witherington III, 2017-10-01 Increasingly scholars recognize that prophetic traditions expressions and experiences stand at the heart of most religions in the ancient Mediterranean world This is no less true for the world of Judaism and Jesus Ben

Witherington III offers an extensive cross cultural survey of the broader expressions of prophecy in its ancient Mediterranean context beginning with Mari moving to biblical figures not often regarded as prophets Balaam Deborah Moses and Aaron and to the apocalyptic seer in postexilic prophecy showing that no single pattern describes all prophetic figures The consequence is that different aspects of Jesus s activity touch upon prophetic predecessors his miracles on Elijah and Elisha his self understanding as the Son of Man on Daniel and 1 Enoch his warnings of woe and judgment on the writing prophets in Judean tradition and his messianic entry into Jerusalem on Zechariah 9 Witherington also surveys the phenomenon of apocalyptic prophecy in early Christianity including Paul Revelation the Didache Hermas and the Montanist movement Jesus the Seer is a worthy complement to Witherington s other volume on Jesus Jesus the Sage Fortress Press 2000 Sharing Your Faith With A Muslim Abdiyah Akbar Abdul-Haqq,1980-08-01 This is the book for you if you are serious about communicating the truth of the Gospel to Muslims It is thorough It is authoritative It is written by a third world Christian whose father was a convert from Islam It is the contention of the author that an effective evangelistic approach to the adherents of Islam must be based upon a study of Christ as He is found in both Scripture and the Koran Christ then becomes the bridge between the two faiths Such a search is to Abdul Haqq the natural means of introducing the Savior Having seen Christ on the pages of the Bible he moves on to a presentation of the great issues of sin salvation and the nature of God as the final pressing points to raise in efforts to win Muslim friends and neighbors to Jesus NIV, Faithlife Illustrated Study Bible, Hardcover John D.
