Something about the Author Gerard J. Senick,1997-04 A collection of autobiographical essays written by prominent authors and illustrators of books for children and young adults Education and Schooling in Japan since 1945 Edward R. Beauchamp,2014-09-19 The best scholarship on the development of contemporary Japan This collection presents well over 100 scholarly articles on modern Japanese society written by leading scholars in the field These selections have been drawn from the most distinguished scholarly journals as well as from journals that are less well known among specialists and the articles represent the best and most important scholarship on their particular topic An understanding of the present through the lens of the past The field of modern Japan studies has grown steadily as Westerners have recognized the importance of Japan as a lading world economic force and an emerging regional power The post 1945 economic success of the Japanese has however been achieved in the context of that nation s history social structure educational enterprise and political environment It is impossible to understand the postwar economic miracle without an appreciation of these elements Japan s economic emergence has brought about and in some cases exacerbated already existing tensions and these tensions have in turn had a significant impact on Japanese economic life The series is designed to give readers a basic understanding of modern Japan its institutions and its people as we stand on the threshold of a new century often referred to as the Pacific Century

Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose,2000-12-11 In this remarkable book Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries Unlike other works on the subject Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work anecdotes contemporary reviews and opinions and some of the women s own comments She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today focused on the women who have become legends of the genre And though she laments so many mysteries so little time she makes a good effort a mentioning some of the best of the rest When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players she relates them to their times their families their personal situations and above all to their books She subtly points out that Sayers whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous created in Lord Peter the ideal lover one who is all that a woman desires and needs DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels The biographies of these woman are as engrossing as the stories they wrote and Martha DuBose has shined a different intimate and intriguing light on them their works and the lives that informed those works This book is so full of treasure it s hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce I love a mystery Some of the treats inside In the Beginning The Mothers of Detection Anna Katherine Green Mary Roberts Rinehart A Golden Era The Genteel Puzzlers Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Ngaio Marsh Margery Allingham Josephine Tey Modern Motives Mysteries of the Murderous Mind Patricia Highsmith P D James Ruth Rendell Mary Higgins Clark Sue Grafton and more
