Emergent Eritrea Challenges Of Economic Development:

Emergent Eritrea Gebre Hiwet Tesfagiorgis,1995      Emergent Eritrea Gebre Hiwet Tesfagiorgis,1992      Emergent Eritrea Gebre Hiwet Tesfagiorgis,1992      Eritrea at a Crossroads Andebrhan Welde Giorgis,2014 I congratulate Andebrhan Welde Giorgis on his high quality and extremely informative book that has not only the merit to be an update on the political situation in Eritrea but also asks the pertinent questions on the future of his marvelous country He does it with tact and success based on his long experience as freedom fighter as senior public servant as Ambassador and his rich experience of Africa Each country in Africa must be able to determine its own future Freedom responsibility control over its destiny and solidarity are the key ideas of the new vision for international cooperation that will help ensure the sustainability of the development process The urgent need to create a democratic government resonates throughout the book Good governance respect for human rights principles of democracy and rule of law are essential universal values underpinning it Andebrhan is one of those men visionaries and open to dialogue reform and change Eritrea at a Crossroads is key to understanding the challenges facing Eritrea and Africa It is an eye opener on a complex and little understood crisis that is festering in Africa and holding the continent back The book provides a solid intellectual foundation to understanding the region and will give anyone who wants to build a better future for Africa a great starting point I congratulate him on this most valuable book which finds its place among all the lovers of Africa Louis Michel Member of European Parliament European Commissioner for Development and Humanitarian Aid 2004 2009 and Foreign Minister of Belgium 1999 2004 Freedom fighter scholar central banker diplomat and now unhappy exile no one could be better placed than Andebrhan Welde Giorgis to trace Eritrea s distressing slide from triumph to tragedy It s a harrowing story but the author tells it comprehensively objectively and lucidly in this excellent study The future can be rescued as Andebrhan makes clear but only if the past is understood and the present confronted by decent concerned Eritreans acting with the moral political and economic support of the wider international community May his voice be heard Gareth Evans Chancellor Australian National University President International Crisis Group 2000 09 and Foreign Minister of Australia 1988 96      Eritrea Update ,1992

Biopolitics, Militarism, and Development David O'Kane,Tricia Redeker Hepner,2009-03-01 Bringing together original contemporary ethnographic research on the Northeast African state of Eritrea this book shows how biopolitics the state led deployment of disciplinary technologies on individuals and population groups is assuming particular forms in the twenty first century Once hailed as the African country that works Eritrea s apparently successful post independence development has since lapsed into economic crisis and severe human rights violations This is due not only to the border war with Ethiopia that began in 1998 but is also the result of discernible tendencies in the high modernist style of social mobilization for development first adopted by the Eritrean government during the liberation struggle 1961 1991 and later carried into the post independence era The contributions to this volume reveal and interpret the links between development and developmentalist ideologies intensifying militarism and the controlling and disciplining of human lives and bodies by state institutions policies and discourses Also assessed are the multiple consequences of these policies for the Eritrean people and the ways in which such policies are resisted or subverted This insightful comparative volume places the Eritrean case in a broader global and transnational context State-building in Post Liberation Eritrea Redie Bereketeab,2009-05-30

State Building In Post Liberation Eritrea explores the potentials achievements and challenges facing Eritrea in its efforts to construct a viable state after it became independent in 1991 de facto and 1993 de jure It also examines the post liberation experience of state building focusing on the institutionalisation bureaucratisation and democratisation of state organs The Eritrean state s legitimacy and popularity initially rested on the track record of the Eritrean People s Liberation Front s EPLF its efficiency organisational skill and capacity to mobilise the population which spawned hopes and optimism about the future The book also analyses what happened to those great hopes and optimisms by examining its achievements and failures in this regard It equally analyses the role played by external factors particularly the second war with Ethiopia and its implications for state building in Eritrea Eritrea Mussie Tesfagiorgis G. Ph.D.,2010-10-29 This authoritative overview serves as a comprehensive resource on Eritrea s history politics economy society and culture Located in eastern Africa bordering the Red Sea between Djibouti and Sudan Eritrea is a poor but developing East African country the capital of which is Asmara Formerly a province of Ethiopia Eritrea became independent on May 24 1993 following a 30 year struggle that culminated in a referendum vote for independence Written materials on most aspects of Eritrean history and culture are quite scarce Eritrea fills that gap with an exhaustive thematically organized overview It examines Eritrean geography the history of Eritrea since the ancient period and the government politics economy society cultures and people of the modern nation Though based largely on the documentary record the book also recognizes the value of oral history among the people of Eritrea and incorporates that history as well Leading sources are quoted at length to provide analysis and perspective

Eritrea and Ethiopia Tekeste Negash,2019-09-30 The Ethiopian Eritrean federation a product of a United Nations resolution came into existence in 1952 and was abolished ten years later The primary objective of this book is to examine the rise and the fall of the federation in the light of present day realities This central theme is placed in context by a reconstruction of Eritrean political organizations during the crucial postwar years The work includes a short account of the war between Eritrean nationalist forces and the Ethiopian government which led up to the emergence of Eritrea as a sovereign state Based primarily on archival sources at the Public Record Office in London Eritrea and Ethiopia argues that no other group in the region has repeatedly succeeded in shaping its political destiny as the Tigreans of Eritrea have Negash maintains that the federation was abolished by Eritrean social and political forces rather than by Ethiopia The UN imposed federation together with its accompanying constitution were doomed to fail as these were foreign to Eritrean and Ethiopian conceptions of political power The attempts of the Eritrean Moslem League to defend and maintain the federation were frustrated by internal contradictions by the Unionist party and by misconstrued perceptions of the division of powers between Eritrea and Ethiopia The author looks closely at the impact of the British period on Eritrean society Such an examination provides a better understanding of the background to the conflict and it is an important part of Eritrean political and social history This book is the story of the slow but steady dissolution of the federation as seen and observed by the British diplomatic corps Between 1952 and 1962 there were about thirty British nationals assigned to the Eritrean government These expatriates kept in touch with the British consulate general whose responsibility was to protect the interests of British nationals as well as to report developments to London The conclusions and interpretations found in this book are to a great extent based on that documentation Eritrea and Ethiopia is the first study of its kind to follow the rise and fall of the federation It will be a challenging and insightful read for students of African affairs diplomatic historians policy studies scholars and political theorists Eritrea, 1996 Post Report, 1996 Beyond Agricultural Impacts Nkulumo

Zinyengere, Theobald Frank Theodory, Million Gebreyes, Chinwe Ifejika Speranza, 2017-06-20 Beyond Agricultural Impacts Multiple Perspectives on Climate Change in Africa presents the theories and methods commonly applied in climate change assessment from various locations in Africa also inspiring further research that addresses the broad spectrum of societal impacts that result from altered climate status Using case studies the work provides insights into climate change impacts and adaptation with a lens on vulnerable groups in African agriculture e g smallholder crop and livestock farmers women and youth The book also highlights areas of further interest in climate change and agriculture research in Africa all done through views from multiple disciplines in the agriculture and climate change nexus Presents themes theories tools and methods for mitigating the impact of climate change in African agriculture Highlights the research gaps and opportunities in research on climate change and agriculture Uses examples and cases to provide insights into shaping future research Provides insights from African countries including Lesotho Malawi Zimbabwe Zambia Tanzania Ethiopia Eritrea Uganda Ghana and Cameroon

The 1998-2000 Eritrea-Ethiopia War and Its Aftermath in International Legal Perspective Andrea de Guttry, Harry H. G. Post, Gabriella Venturini, 2021-04-01 This book centres on the war that raged between Eritrea and Ethiopia from 1998 to 2000 a war that caused great loss of life and tremendous devastation It analyses the war in great detail from an international legal perspective the nature and the state of the boundary conflict preceding the actual armed conflict the military actions themselves the role of the UN peace keeping mission the responsibility for the multitude of explosive remnants of the war left behind Ample attention is paid to the decisions of the Eritrea Ethiopia Claims Commission and the Eritrea Ethiopia Boundary Commission This study is not limited to the war and the period immediately following it it also examines its more extended aftermath prolonging the analysis as far as the more recent improvement in the relations between Eritrea and Ethiopia away from a situation of no war no peace that prevailed after the armed conflict ended The analysis of the war and its aftermath is not only in terms of international legal issues it has been placed in a wider than strictly legal perspective The book is a valuable work for academics and practitioners in international law human rights and humanitarian law in particular for political scientists diplomats civil servants historians and all those others seriously interested in the Horn of Africa Andrea de Guttry is Full Professor of Public International Law at the Scuola Superiore Sant Anna in Pisa Italy Harry H G Post is Adjunct Professor in the Facult Libre de Droit of the Universit Catholique de Lille in Lille France Gabriella Venturini is Professor Emerita in the Dipartimento di Studi internazionali giuridici e storico politici of the Universit degli Studi di Milano in Milan Italy

Historical Dictionary of Eritrea Dan Connell, 2019-07-15 In 1991 Eritrea won a 30 year war for independence from Ethiopia and in 1993 it was recognized as Africa s newest nation after more than a century of conquest and occupation by a succession of external powers that included the Ottomans Egypt Italy Great Britain and Ethiopia Each had left its mark while fostering a deep distrust of outsiders and a fierce commitment to Eritrea s separate political identity Eritrea and Ethiopia slipped into a chronic state of no peace no war that kept the entire Horn of Africa off balance for nearly two decades the standoff ended in 2018 when a newly installed Ethiopian prime minister reached out to Eritrea and set in motion a rapid fire series of talks among the states of the African Horn that broke down long standing barriers and raised hopes for a new era of regional peace and cooperation This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Eritrea contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Eritrea

Losing Place Johnathan Bascom, 2001-09-01 Refugee flight settlement and repatriation are not static self contained or singular events Instead they are three stages of an ongoing process made and mirrored in the lives of real people For that reason there is an evident need for historical and longitudinal studies of refugee populations that rise above description and trace the process of social transformation during the full circle of flight resettlement and return home This book probes the economic forces and social processes responsible for shaping the everyday existence for refugees as they move through exile

In Search of Cool Ground Tim Allen, 1996 Concentrates attention on crucial issues which have been largely ignored and must become key aspects of assistance programs in war torn areas of the Horn of Africa

The Routledge Handbook of African Law Muna Ndulo, Cosmas Emeziem, 2021-11-23 The Routledge Handbook of African Law provides a comprehensive critical overview of the contemporary legal terrain in Africa The international team of expert contributors adopt an analytical and comparative approach so that readers can see the nexus between different jurisdictions and different legal traditions across the continent The volume is divided into five parts covering Legal Pluralism and African Legal Systems The State Institutions Constitutionalism and Democratic Governance Economic Development Technology Trade and Investment Human Rights Gender Based Violence and Access to Justice International Law Institutions and International Criminal Law Providing important insights into both the specific contexts of African legal systems and the ways in which these legal traditions intersect with the wider world this handbook will be an essential resource for academics researchers lawyers and graduate and undergraduate students studying this ever evolving field

From Crisis to Growth in Africa Mats Lundahl, 2005-07-05 This book is concerned with the problem of achieving sustained economic growth in thirteen African countries Structural adjustments designed to remove imperfections have made it difficult for the market system to work optimally

New Approaches to Migration? Nadjé Al-Ali, Khalid Koser, 2003-09-02 This book critically evaluates the transnational communities approach to contemporary international migration It does so through a specific focus on the relationship between transnational communities and home The meaning of home for international migrants is changing and evolving as new globally oriented identities are developed These issues are explored through a number of central themes the meaning of home to transnational peoples the implications of transforming these social spaces and how these have been transformed

Blood, Land, and Sex Lyda Favali, Roy Pateman, 2003-06-18 In Eritrea state traditional and religious laws equally prevail but any of these legal systems may be put into play depending upon the individual or individuals involved in a legal dispute Because of conflicting laws it has been difficult for Eritreans to come to a consensus on what constitutes their legal system In Blood Land and Sex Lyda Favali and Roy Pateman examine the roles of the state ethnic groups religious groups and the international community in several key areas of Eritrean law blood feud or murder land tenure gender relations marriage prostitution rape and female genital surgery Favali and Pateman explore the intersections of the various laws and discuss how change can be brought to communities where legal ambiguity prevails often to the grave harm of women and other powerless individuals This significant book focuses on how Eritrea and other newly emerging democracies might build pluralist legal systems that will be acceptable to an ethnically and religiously diverse population

The African Metropolis Toyin Falola, Bisola Falola, 2017-08-07 On a planet where urbanization is rapidly expanding nowhere is the growth more pronounced than in cities of the global South and in particular Africa African metropolises are harbingers of the urban challenges that lie ahead as societies grapple with the fractured social economic and political relations forming within these new often mega cities The African Metropolis integrates geographical and historical perspectives to examine how processes of segregation marginalization resilience and resistance are shaping cities across Africa spanning from Nigeria and Ghana to Kenya Ethiopia and South Africa The chapters pay particular attention to the voices and daily realities of those most vulnerable to urban transformations and to questions such as Who governs Who should the city serve Who has a right to the city And how can the built spaces and contentious legacies of colonialism and prior development regimes be inclusively reconstructed In addition to highlighting critical contemporary debates the book furthers our ability to examine the transformations taking place in cities of the global South providing detailed accounts of local complexities while also generating insights that can scale up and across to similar cities around the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies urban development and human geography
