Emil Brunner Makers Of The Modern Theological Mind:

Emil Brunner James Edward Humphrey, 1976 Emil Brunner J. Edward Humphrey, 2016-01-01 Emil Brunner 1889 1966 is one of the Three Bs Barth Brunner and Bultmann who shaped Christian theological studies in the twentieth century Brunner and Karl Barth are the undisputed champions of the theological revival known as neo orthodoxy and the two of them did more than any others to prepare for the resurgence of historical biblical Christianity in the Western world today Brunner was part of the wrecking crew that dismantled the house of liberal theology with its humanistic view of Jesus Christ its optimistic view of man's goodness and its progressive idea of history as inevitably leading to the kingdom of God The core of Brunner's theology was the coming of the infinite God to finite man in the person of Jesus Christ In this book Dr J Edward Humphrey sets forth and examines Brunner's doctrines of Christ and God his doctrine of sin and the need for personal faith his doctrines of the church as a fellowship and the place of revelation and the Bible as the norm for faith and practice Brunner's great books on Christian doctrine have manifested an unusual staying power and Dr Humphrey helps us get at Brunner with insight appreciation and a critical evaluation About the Makers of the Modern Theological Mind series Who are the thinkers that have shaped Christian theology in our time This series tries to answer that question by providing a reliable guide to the ideas of the men who have significantly charted the theological seas of our century Each major theologian is examined carefully and critically his life his theological method his most germinal ideas his weaknesses as a thinker his place in the theological spectrum and his chief contribution to the climate of theology today Welcome to the series Emil Brunner Mark G. McKim, 1996 After an essay sketching Brunner's life and major theological contributions the bibliography is divided into parts on works written by Brunner edited by Brunner written by Brunner jointly with others prefaces and forewords and book reviews by Brunner as well as secondary sources For scholars in religious studies Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Makers of the modern theological mind John P. Newport, 1984 Teilhard De Chardin (Makers of the Modern Theological Mind) Doran McCarty, 1976 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin is one of those unusual men who fit no mold and cannot be easily labeled A complex and brilliant thinker he had a simple and mystical faith A Frenchman who loved his homeland he spent most of his life in China because he was not allowed by his superiors to teach in French As a Jesuit priest he held views on creation and evolution considered highly suspect and unorthodox yet he submitted humbly to his order's prohibition against teaching or publishing during his lifetime His profession palaeontology called on him to study the past but the greater portion of his thinking and writing has to do with the future the future of man and society Teilhard de Chardin is one of the few modern thinkers who have tried to integrate all phenomena into one system His first book The Phenomenon of Man published after his death took the reading public by storm because of its vast sweep and bold attempt to create a complex and cosmic system from both a scientific and a Christian point of view Doran McCarty's treatment of Teilhard covers all the important aspects of his life and thought Here you will find discussions of Teilhard's views on the nature of God the nature of man the structure of reality creation and evolution democracy and totalitarianism Here too are explanations of his unique terminology including centreism withinness Christogenesis Christophere noosphere the Omega Point Dr McCarty presents Teilhard's ideas in more traditional terms while still remaining faithful to the original complexity and terminology This is especially important since Teilhard never had a chance to refine his thought against the reaction and criticism of the scholarly world Dr McCarty's treatment is an excellent introduction for the person who wants to know more about Teilhard as well as being a useful and important study of this unique and influential thinker Publisher Makers of the modern theological mind: Anders Nygren Thor Hall, 1978 "Believing Thinking, Bounded Theology" Cynthia Bennett Brown, 2016-01-28 Surprisingly little attention has been given in recent scholarship to the work of Emil Brunner 1889-1966 one of the leading neo orthodox theologians of the twentieth century But his influence on modern theology persists to this day offering a path to philosophical truth through faith In Believing Thinking Bounded Theology Cynthia Bennett Brown explores the nature of and limits to theological thinking in Brunner's work What results from this study is an encounter with a thoroughly biblical warmly pastoral carefully intellectual and insistently Christocentric exposition of the Christian faith that remains relevant for theology and life today A Practical Christology for Pastoral Supervision Geoff Broughton, 2021-03-28 This book sets out a Christological framework for developing and delivering pastoral supervision Pastoral supervision is a key consideration for any denomination congregation or faith based organisation so this is a vital resource for well being for clergy chaplains and a wide array of pastoral workers Three central Christological themes the revealing re membering and restoring Jesus provide the theological framework for good supervision practice The book draws insights from three gospel passages Luke 24:13-34 Luke 22:39-53 and John 21:1-14 for its Christological themes The practical Christology for pastoral supervision is deepened and extended through three theologians Martin Luther reformed Emil Brunner neo orthodox and James McClendon small B baptist Professional supervision coaching mentoring and spiritual direction is increasingly sought even required by many people in church and faith based organisations This book will therefore be an excellent resource to theologians interested in supervision practical theology and Christology Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim, 2008-01-01 It's hard to be the only one That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society In these dying days of Christendom the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal institutional and societal secular in nature While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign For most Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life Instead life is lived largely without reference to God And to live any other way is often hard In this volume Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing What does it mean to be the church in this new situation Throughout McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church McKim s goal is to enable the singing of the Lord s song in the new and strange land of a secular society Fifty Key Christian Thinkers Peter McEnhill,George Newlands,2004-08-02 Fifty Key Christian Thinkers provides both valuable information and stimulating debate on the lives and work of fifty of the most important Christian theologians This guide provides an overview of Christian theology from the emergence of the faith 2000 years ago to the present day Among the figures profiled in this accessible guide are St Paul Barth Aquinas Boethius Niebuhr Calvin Luther Feuerbach Kierkegaard Origen The Neo-Orthodox Theology of W.W. Bryden John A Visser,2011-11-24 Walter W Bryden was Principal of Knox College Toronto after the Second World War and one of the leading Presbyterian theologians of the period from the 1920s to the 1950s In The Neo Orthodox Theology of W W Bryden John Visser makes an important contribution by analysing Bryden s thought placing it in the context of contemporary European and American theology Visser emphasises in particular Bryden s role in introducing and popularising the ideas of Karl Barth in North America prior to the translation of Barth s Commentary on Romans into English and his Neo Orthodox theology owed much to Barthian ideas In his most important work The Christian s Knowledge of God Bryden challenged the modernist emphasis on the rational arguing for a Christocentric doctrine of Revelation Visser brings a wealth of scholarship and research to his subject revealing Bryden s pivotal role in the development of neo orthodoxy within the Protestant tradition in North America a role that previous studies have often failed to explore

A Trinitarian Theology of Nature Lianne Winslow, 2020-03-20 In its attempt to ascertain the mechanisms of nature contemporary science seems to be generating unanswerable questions One way forward might be by appealing to a theistic metaphysics of the fundamental workings in natural science Moving beyond Barth's objection to natural theology this work arrives at some of Emil Brunner's exegetical insights indicating that nature is divine communication This communication and revelation is understood through natural types or onto types building upon the insights of Jonathan Edwards Edwards proposed messages in nature as a language of God intending to convey spiritual biblical and theological messages to the creature as part of God's end in creating Edwards's insights are brought forth to determine the usefulness of his typological method all the way down to cellular and molecular mechanisms Edwards also proposed that God's acting in nature reflects the Trinitarian God of the Christian faith Therefore a Trinitarian theology of Nature composing a Theology of Nature a Christology of Nature and a Pneumatology of Nature explores how each divine person of the Godhead acts in perichoretic unity in the world we encounter God's Trinitarian powerful and magnificent glory is not merely displayed by what has been made but is also intimately shared in a gospel of nature

Monographic Series Library of Congress, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1977 The Presbyterian Philosopher Douglas J. Douma, 2017-01-24 This is the story of Gordon Clark 1902-85, a respected philosopher and prolific writer who held that Christianity as a logically coherent system is superior to all other philosophies. Clark fought no wars and conquered no kingdoms. Yet he was a leading figure in many theological wars fought for the Kingdom of God. These battles for the minds and souls of men were every bit as crucial as physical wars between nations. In an age of increasing secularization, he put up an intellectual defense of the Christian faith. This faith, he believed, was a system. All of its parts link together a luxury of no other philosophy. His stance shows a Christianity that is in fact intellectual, not relying on appeals to emotion or experience. In propounding this view, he encountered frequent opposition, not from the secular world but from within his own denomination. This biography helps explain why his thought was so profound, why resistance mounted against him, and how his struggles impacted American Presbyterianism. Additionally, this book calls for a reappraisal of Clark's views, which have been maligned by controversy. Understanding and applying his views could significantly fortify Christians combating irrational and non-systematic ideas prevalent in today's churches.

Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th-century theological movement of Dialectical Theology. In this monograph, David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation: Law and Gospel. He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid-1920s, centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law-gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology. After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method, Gilland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology, The Mediator (1927). In light of the preceding analysis, the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth, Nature and Grace (1934). The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth.

The Claim of God Ethan Worthington, 2015-07-10 Through close readings of Karl Barth's theological work from 1916 to 1929, this book offers an exposition of Barth's doctrine of sanctification in his earlier theology, arguing that from his earliest writings after 1915, the doctrine of sanctification was one of the key theological components used in describing the encounter between God and man in a positive and concrete manner. This book both fills an important gap in Barthian scholarship and responds to the appeal by other recent interpreters of Barth's theology for a more balanced and careful exposition of his work. Throughout the course of this exposition, the force of Eduard Thurneysen's wonderfully insightful comments about Barth show themselves to be fruitfully borne out within his work from early on. That is, Karl Barth's theological thinking was from the beginning directed to the life of man: the life of man on the one side and, on the other, the Word of God that meets this life, lays hold of it, and transforms it.
