Emperors New Clothes With Record:

Douglas Moore Jerry L. McBride, 2011-01-01 MLA Index and Bibliography Series vol 36 Additional information online at <https://www.areditions.com/books/IB036.html> Revolutionizing Children's Records David Bonner, 2007-11-26 Young People's Records and Children's Record Guild were the first commercially significant record clubs in the world. By applying proven book club methods to the field of phonograph records, these two related companies attracted some hundred thousand subscribers at their peak and serviced perhaps a million members in their existence. Revolutionizing Children's Records: The Young People's Records and Children's Record Guild Series 1946-1977 tells the history of YPR/CRG, explaining how these two labels intersected important developments in the histories of mass marketing, recording technology, educational philosophy, folk music, contemporary composition, and Cold War politics. David Bonner covers in detail the history of YPR/CRG, tracing its influences back to the beginnings of music education in the 19th Century and incorporating the impact of the American folk music revival on music educators. The narrative follows the career paths of the company principals, such as its progressive founder Horace Grenell, the musicians who recorded for him like American folk music revival pioneer Tom Glazer, and the record industry offshoots they created in the process. Bonner considers advances the club made in recording technology as the first record label devoted exclusively to unbreakable vinyl discs and provides a comprehensive summary of record club marketing, including the application of music appreciation to phonograph records. He also charts the commercial, critical, and political response to these endeavors, including an historical footnote to the Red Scare unavailable in existing Cold War literature. A complete and detailed discography listing every YPR and CRG recording, including all known writers and performers, concludes this excellent reference for scholars, nostalgists, and phonographic fanatics. Research from

Archival Case Records Philip C.C. Huang, Kathryn Bernhardt, 2014-04-30 Legal history studies have often focused mainly on codified law without attention to actual practice and on the past without relating it to the present. As the title Research from Archival Case Records: Law, Society, and Culture in China of this book suggests, the authors deliberately follow the research method of starting from court actions and only on that basis engage in discussions of laws and legal concepts and theory. The articles cover a range of topics and source materials, both past and present. They provide some surprising findings about disjunctures between code and practice, adjustments between them, and how those reveal operative principles and logics different from what the legal texts alone might suggest. Contributors are Kathryn Bernhardt, Danny Hsu, Philip C.C. Huang, Christopher Isett, Yasuhiko Karasawa, Margaret Kuo, Huaiyin Li, Jennifer M. Neighbors, Bradley W. Reed, Matthew H. Sommer, Huey Bin Teng, Lisa Tran, Elizabeth VanderVen, and Chenjun You. California. Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District).
