Hugo,2016-06-23 Excerpt from Hernani Whenever it has been possible each volume has been adorned with a portrait of the author at the time he wrote his book In conclusion I wish to repeat here what I have said in the General Preface to the Oxford Modern French Series that those who speak a modern language best invariably possess a good literary knowledge of it This has been endorsed by the best teachers in this and other countries and is a generally admitted fact The present series by providing works of high literary merit will certainly facilitate the acquisition of the French language a tongue which perhaps more than any other offers a variety of literary specimens which for beauty of style depth of sentiment accuracy and neatness of expression may be equalled but not surpassed About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of
