Children, Childhood and Cultural Heritage Kate Darian-Smith, Carla Pascoe, 2013 Explores how the everyday experiences of children and their imaginative and creative worlds are collected interpreted and displayed in museums and on monuments and represented through objects and cultural lore Christopher Marlowe Richard Wilson, 2014-07-15 Christopher Marlowe has provoked some of the most radical criticism of recent years There is an elective affinity it seems between this pre modern dramatist and the post modern critics whose best work has been inspired by his plays The reason suggested by this collection of essays is that Marlowe shares the post modern preoccupation with the language of power and the power of language itself As Richard Wilson shows in his introduction it is no accident that the founding essays of New Historicism were on Marlowe nor that current Queer Theorists focus so much on his images of gender and homosexuality Marlowe staged both the birth of the modern author and the origin of modern sexual desire and it is this unique conjunction that makes his drama a key to contemporary debates about the state and the self from pornography to gays in the military Gay Studies Cultural Materialism New Historicism and Reader Response Criticism are all represented in this selection which the introduction places in the light not only of theorists like Althusser Bataille and Bakhtin but also of artists and writers such as Jean Genet and Robert Mapplethorpe Many of the essays take off from Marlowe s extreme dramatisations of arson cruelty and aggression suggesting why it is that the thinker who has been most convincingly applied to his theatre is the philosopher of punishment and pain Michel Foucault Others explore the exclusiveness of this all male universe and reveal why it remains so offensive and impenetrable to feminism For what they all make disturbingly clear is Marlowe s violent untamed difference from the clichés and correctness of normative society Memorial Service of Leland Stanford, Jr, 1884 Big Four Oscar Lewis, 2012-12-05 Here for the first time is told in a single volume one of the most remarkable stories in American history An Easterner is never long in California without hearing something of the big four four Sacramento shopkeepers Collis P Huntington Leland Stanford Mark Hopkins and Charles Crocker who got control of the newly organized Central Pacific Railroad property These men are portrayed in Mr Lewis s volume vividly and with a great wealth of pertinent anecdote Thus their true characters are revealed and the grandiose era in which they lived and operated is re created as well Huntington the shrewd manipulator and lobbyist in Washington founded the great fortune which is responsible for the magnificent library at San Marino Leland Stanford Governor of California and United States Senator created Leland Stanford Junior University Hopkins the cold quiet watchdog of the railroad s treasury kept himself out of the limelight out of politics and scandal yet like the others died enormously wealthy while Crocker founded a dynasty of bankers still important in the affairs of California and the nation Oscar Lewis a longtime authority on Californiana and secretary of the Book Club of California spent six years gathering the material for The Big Four and writing it The result is a definitive telling of a story that is ever fresh and ever fascinating The Congregationalist and Christian World, 1902 American Disruptor Roland De Wolk, 2021-04-13 The rags to riches story of Silicon Valley s original disruptor American Disruptor is the untold story of Leland Stanford from his birth in a backwoods bar to the founding of the world class university that became and remains the nucleus of Silicon Valley The life of this robber baron politician and historic influencer is the astonishing tale of how one supremely ambitious man became this country s original disruptor reshaping industry and engineering one of the greatest raids on the public treasury for America s transcontinental railroad all while living more opulently than maharajas kings and emperors It is also the saga of how Stanford once a serial failure overcame all obstacles to become one of America s most powerful and wealthiest men using his high elective office to enrich himself before losing the one thing that mattered most to him his only child and son Scandal and intrigue would follow Stanford through his life and even after his death when his widow was murdered in a Honolulu hotel a crime quickly covered up by the almost stillborn university she had saved Richly detailed and deeply researched American Disruptor restores Leland Stanford s rightful place as a revolutionary force and architect of modern America     The Churchman ,1890     The New International Year Book ,1919     New International Yearbook ,1919     Annual report Golden Gate Kindergarten Association, San Francisco,1911     Report Golden Gate Kindergarten Association,1891     Library Bulletins Columbia University.
