Schließlich stellt Miriam Kohn die Nutzung dieses für die Freitagsmoschee bestimmenden Ausstattungsgegenstandes durch Hinzuziehung von mamlukischen Bild- und Schriftquellen sowie den Inschriften der Minbare dar. This publication is dedicated to the documentation and analysis of the structure and decoration, endowment and use of mamluk minbars. For the first time these objects are presented as endowed, created, used and meaningful objects of the society under Mamluk rule. The work is based on a survey of preserved minbars in Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Israel and the areas of Palestinian Authority control carried out between 2006 and 2013. The visual aspects of the minbars are described and classified. Furthermore, their endowment is examined and emphasized as the main reason for the numerousness of minbars preserved from Mamluk rule. Finally, the use of minbars is explored by using Mamluk visual and written sources as well as their inscriptions.

The Timurid Century Charles Melville, 2020-05-14. The century after the conquests of Timur witnessed the division of eastern and western Iran between his Turko-Mongol successors and a flowering of Persian culture in the great cities of Herat, Samarkand and Tabriz among others. In this, the ninth volume in The Idea of Iran series, leading scholars analyse the ways that Timurid contemporaries viewed their traditions and their environment, asking questions such as what was the view of outsiders and how does modern scholarship define the distinctive aspects of the period. Essential reading for scholars, students and all those interested in the history of Iran, the book considers the political, religious and cultural history of this rich and highly productive interval that was the springboard for the formation of new imperial Ottoman, Safavid, Mughal and Uzbek orders of succeeding centuries.
